Dedication

With angelic satisfaction and devoid of all reservation we proudly dedicate this book to the prince of education: the student. We are neither humble nor meek about this tribute, because we are aware of no other individual worthier of applause. The student has the natural right to stroke his own mane since there have been many times when he has pulled in desperation this very same hair. His toil has not been entirely directed to overcome ignorance, but rather mostly consisted of a constant scheming designed to out-wit (with not limited success) the docile professors.

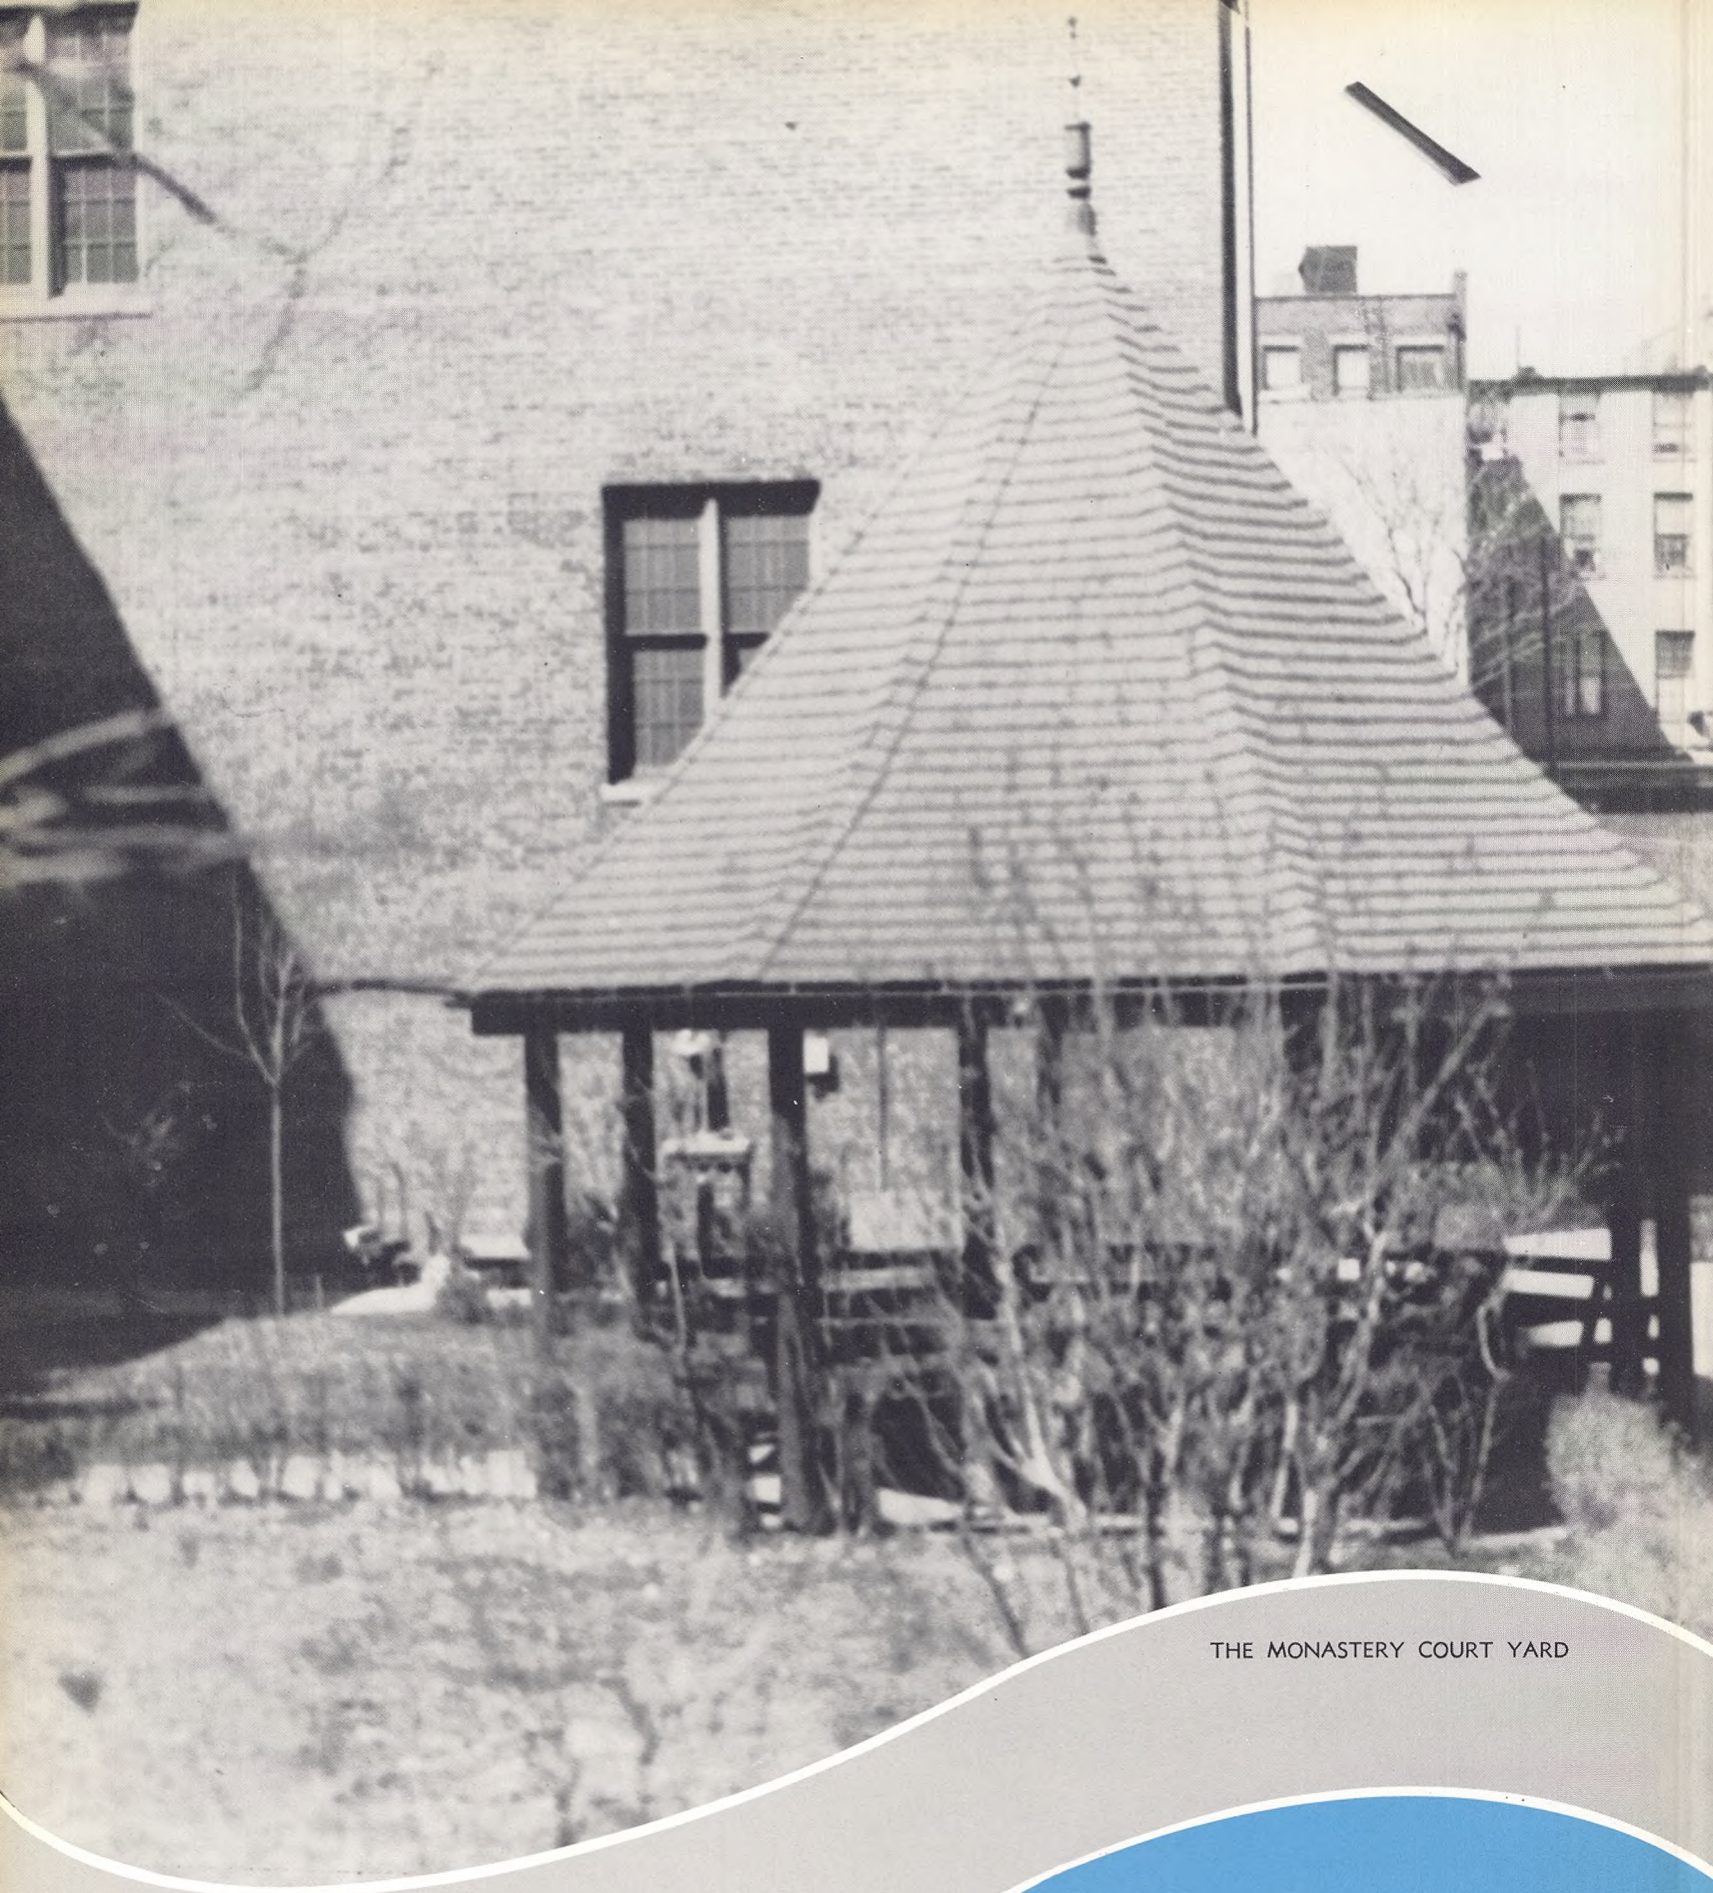

Without the student, that specimen for whom the administration has a devoted interest, scholastic institutions would not thrive. Obviously, there just would not be classes if there were not students, and students would not cut classes unless there were classes to cut. Without him education would be futile; however, whether men are learned or teachers, time proceeds heedlessly. And assuredly, time is the student's only disinterested spectator. The prince of education is the material object of education and the amoeba floundering in the evaporating ocean of time.

Hence, as delighted children with the pride of devils, we project our chests and dedicate these pages to the Beowulf, the conqueror of ignorance, the essence of learning, the protagonist of a four-act comedy, the professor's maintainer and the molder of the future—the student.

IN MEMORIAM

The students and faculty of Saint Francis College join in commemorating these pages to the reverend memory of the beloved Dr. Otto Pfeiffenberger.

He walked our halls and the halls of the world as a man above men, a scholar of all the arts, a jurist, and a true educator.

His warmth, humanity, and magnificence, have become part of our own natures, and his memory shall linger within our hearts even until we are all joined together in eternity.

Three years have passed and the last step is just ahead—but the Juniors think it all happened pretty fast. Looking back over another year, it might be noted that the Class of '51 took its ascent to higher ranks most graciously when September '49 rolled around. Behind were the confused Freshmen days of little red beanies, new surroundings, and the Sophomore days of just getting into the swing of things. It was the dawn of a new day and the Juniors took it in their stride.

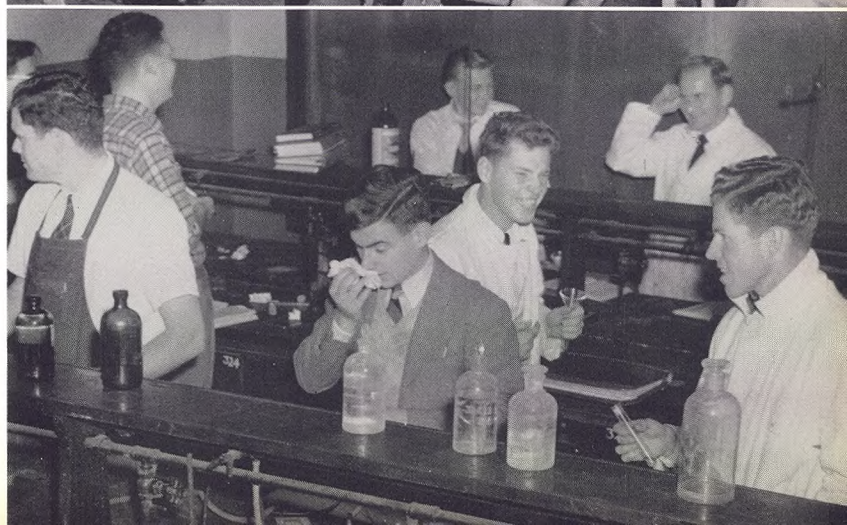

Bill Weir of track fame was elected class president. Tom McHugh was voted vice president; Henry Zeigler and Steve Rusnak were elected treasurer and secretary respectively. The new officers took on their tasks with zest.

Class rings, and the Junior Prom arrangements kept them quite busy. The Prom offered its problems, but after much blood, sweat, and tears everything worked out very well under co-chairmen John Kenny and class president Bill Weir. The Astor Roof was the site of the Junior Prom and everyone had a good time.

The Juniors ruled in many of the College organizations during the past year. Bernie McQuillan, Ray Supino, Ed McDonnell, John DeVivo, and Don Regan sat on the Student Council. Bernie served as the Secretary of the Council. John Ryan was associate editor of the Yearbook, and was slated for the editorship next year.

The Voice found itself with three editors from the Junior Class—Bill Brooks as editor-in-chief, Frank McCormack as associate editor, and Ray Maloney as feature editor. Bernie McQuillan matched "As Pegler Sees It" with "The Viewpoint". Also many of the departmental and religious organizations had Juniors serving as officers.

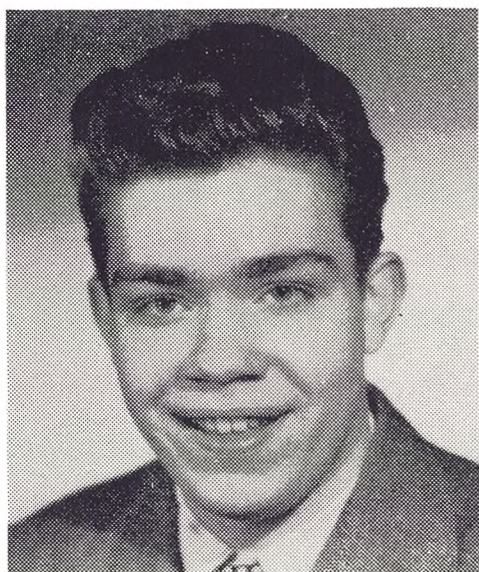

For the Juniors only one year lies ahead, but with things as they are now, the Class of '51 won't be forgotten soon.

What's that? You say so what if I'm finishing my sophomore year, what does that mean? Well, pull up a beer case and sit down and let me tell you what it means to be finishing up your sophomore year at Saint Francis College.

On the surface it may appear to mean that I have acquired sixty-four credits which entitles me to half a degree, the back half, not a small accomplishment at that, but beneath the surface it means much more.

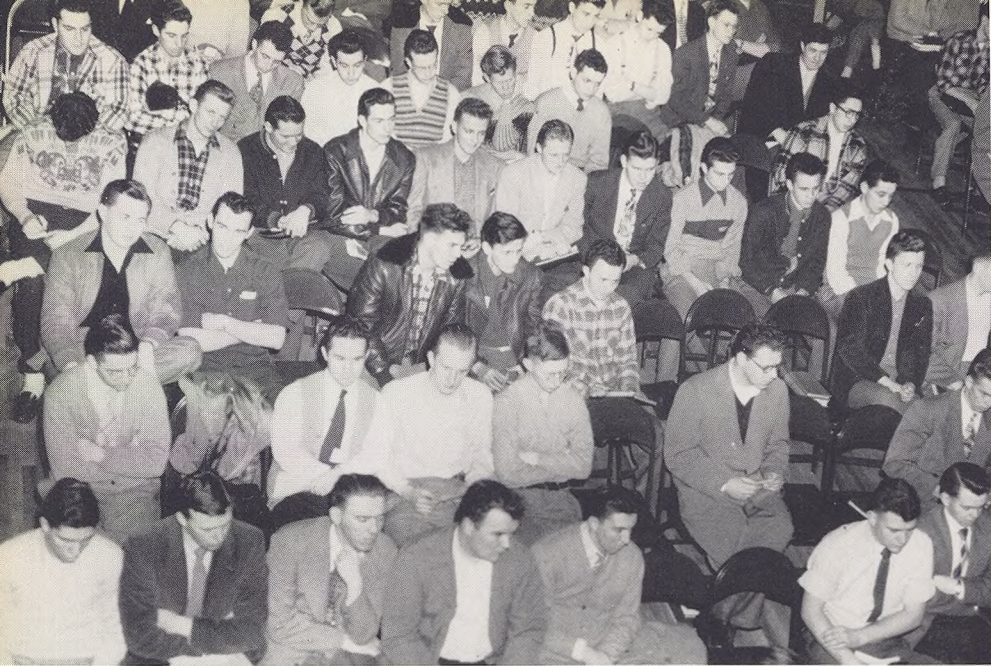

Sure we had to struggle to comprehend the mysteries of the molecule and to change our "erstes" to oysters, but that's all in a days work in college. There are many things which stand out in a college year and we've had our share. We remember being bombarded with tomatoes and eggs by the rebellious Frosh who couldn't seem to realize that we were the ones who were supposed to give the 'hazing'. We also remember the wonderful time we had at the Soph-Frosh-Hop, the first social event of the year. We remember most of the good times, and we hope we can forget the many nights when we had to burn the midnight oil to cram for exams.

We have arrived. We find ourselves at the half-century mark halfway through our college careers, about to become real upper-classmen. Now we are beginning to plan the courses in our major field, struggling with chemical equations, economic principles, and wondering why metaphysics is a required course.

We hope our next two years will be as wonderful as our first two and we pray to God for success in our studies and guidance in becoming true Franciscans.

In later years our college days will serve us as a period fraught with fond memories. It may seem a trifle early for us to have memories, but then our freshman year has been a memorable one. Already we of the Freshman class can recognize some of the experiences which we will remember after we have left these hallowed halls.

We will remember orientation week, our first activity as freshmen, with its Franciscan-spirited, forty-five minute informal talks delivered by Joe Wielert. We will remember how bewildering the next few weeks were, and how hard the sophomores worked to put us in a state of fear over the impending hazing. We will remember how finally the hazing came and would have passed quite uneventfully had we not decided on the last day to give the sophomores a little of what they had given us. We will remember how we marched to Saint John's and raucously sang to them, getting the first tinges of that ancient rivalry in our blood. We will remember the Soph-Frosh Hop, intended to be an opportunity for us to forgive the sophomores, but which in reality had to work the other way around for the disillusioned Sophs. We will remember our first contact with the Alumni Association, and how we were impressed by the list of accomplishments of former Saint Francis men, as well as by their offer to us of any help we might require. We will remember the first game of the season and how the enthusiastic Franciscan spirit made every one of us stand up and tingle with the excitement of the season's first victory. And finally we will remember that it was a freshman's girl who won the Sweet-heart contest over all the other entries made by the rest of the student body.

These will we remember, and it is in these memories that we will feel justly proud not only of our school but also of our contribution to our school in our freshman year.

During the past few years Student Government at Saint Francis College has come alive. No longer is it a nebulous, impractical dream of a few individuals, but it is now a vital part of the intellectual environment of the College.

The Council has become an integral part of life at the College. The Student Body is conscious and proud of the fact that the Student Council is a fighting organization, aware of the necessity of the proper and consistent representation. The road that the Council has covered in the last few years has been a tough one, full of many handicaps—student apathy and administration indifference or caution. But now the Council has proved itself. It has stood up for the rights of the students. Regardless of the inconveniences of time, effort and reputation.

During the past year the Council has made rapid strides in the direction of finally achieving its goal: a free, truly representative, well organized, and effective organ of student government.

Celebrating the victory, Jack Lynch, Joe Cowden, Frank Bucaro, John DeVivo, Mike Monaco, Mike Marotta, new President Mike Petito, Charlie Kenny, Kevin Mullany.

INTER-AMERICAN CONGRESS OF N. F. C. C. S.

St. John's College was the site for the first Inter-American Congress to be held in this area. The sponsors were the two N. F. C. C. S. Commissions which St. Francis College holds, namely International Relations with Al La Rocca and Inter-American Action headed by Frank Palminteri. Fifteen colleges of N. F. C. C. S. participated in the program which lasted from ten in the morning until seven in the evening.

The theme of this Congress was "The Catholic College student looks at South America". A movie in color was shown by Pan-American Airways to set the mood of the Congress. There were a number of clergymen and laymen who addressed the group on the topic of the day. Students from the various catholic colleges conducted a forum and panel session during the meeting, and the entertainment was supplied by a number of talented South American students attending colleges here.

The object of this and other similar affairs is to stimulate friendship and a spirit of cooperation on the student level between ourselves and our neighbors south of the border.

91st ANNIVERSARY BALL

"One-two-three, kick."

It was a gala event, this 91st Anniversary Ball. There was dancing, entertainment, contests, and plenty of refreshments to insure a happy time for everyone. Most of all, the Ball helped raise the funds necessary for the building of the new Franciscan Monastery.

J. Wesley Hart, Class of '38, served as general chairman and Mike Petito represented on the committee the St. Francis College student body which contributed much to the financial and social success of the evening's festivities at the Main Ballroom of the Columbus Club, K. of C., November 15th, 1949.

BISHOP MOLLOY RETREAT HOUSE

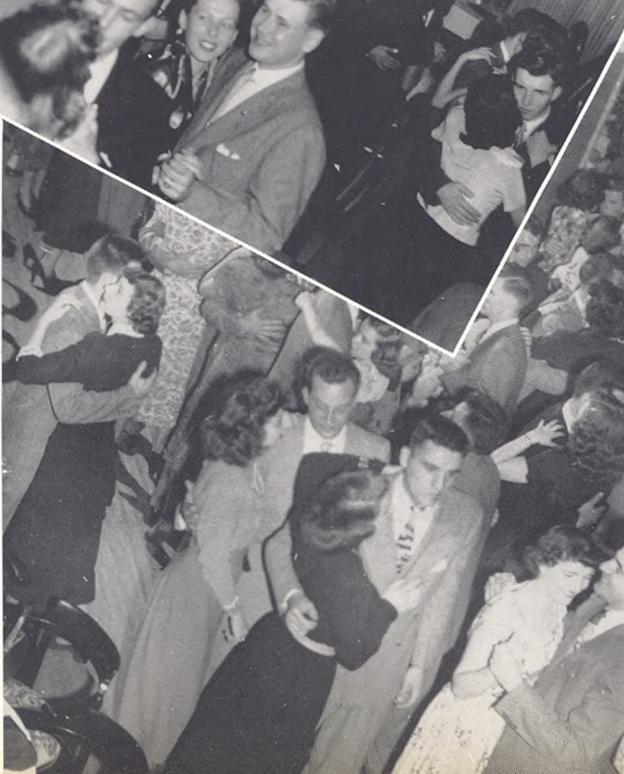

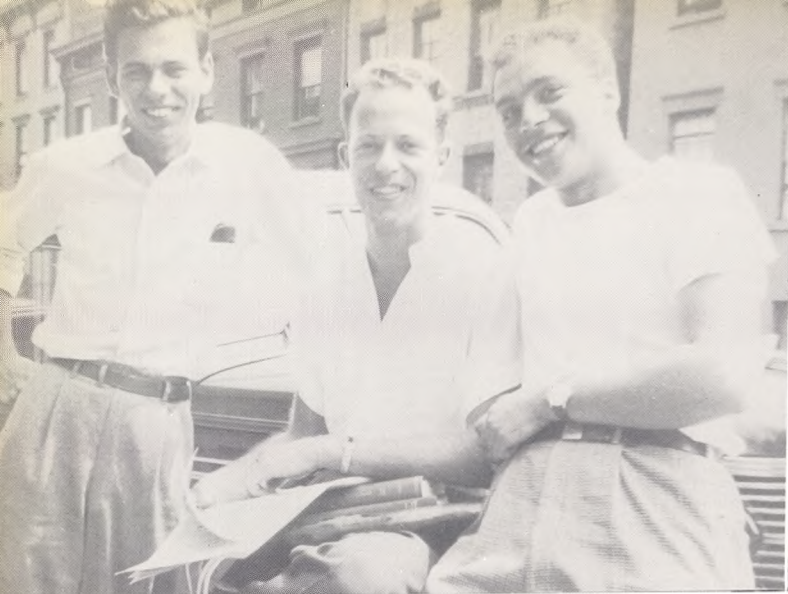

Following the precedent set by the 1949 Senior class, sixty-two seniors gathered at the Bishop Molloy Retreat House for the Annual Senior Retreat.

With the accent on the spiritual, the Seniors cut themselves away from mundane matters for three days. Spiritual reading, discourses, silence at all times, continuous adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and excellent meals, all added up to a great spiritual adventure for the men.

Father Cosmas Shaughnessy, Retreat Director, and Father Alfred Duffy of the Passionist Congregation conducted the retreat. All agreed they did an excellent job in showing us how to obtain a deeper appreciation of the Catholic faith.

ORGANIZATIONS

ARTS CLUB

Was organized in 1938. Its objective is to give the students an opportunity to see and evaluate culture in the forms of Art, Literature, and Theatrical productions.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Student Athletic Association of St. Francis College has the tremendous job of running the student Intra-Mural program, taking care of ticket sales for games, and acting as over-all supervisor of physical activities for the student body. Jim Brennan, John Bertone, and Jim McHugh are the student officers of this worth-while organization.

The Chesterton Club was organized this year by a group of students who felt the need for a Chesterton Club at St. Francis College. It has a large membership and promises to be one of the better clubs in the college.

CHESTERTON CLUB

Interest in Germanic culture and civilization is the common bond of all the members of the German Club. Founded fourteen years ago, the club upholds its tradition with annual social events, meetings, and lectures given by its beloved moderator, "Doc Pfeiffenberger."

GERMAN CLUB

EDUCATION CLUB

This club has been in existence for a few years now, and although it doesn't boast a large membership it is a very interesting club. The many students who belong to it are future teachers for our high schools and colleges.

LE CERCLE FRANCOIS

Through the inspiration of its moderator, Mr. Nicholas Fiorenza the French Club of St. Francis College has conducted many cultural and social meetings for the enlightenment of its members. They attend films, operas, and plays that deal with "La Belle France".

Under the guidance of Dean Brother Celestine, the Glee Club has developed into a first class group. The members sing at many of our assembly meetings and social events during the school year.

GLEE CLUB

If you are a chemist or hope to be one at St. Francis, you soon become a member of the Indicator Club.

Originally founded to coordinate the theoretical chemistry of the classroom with the worlds of industry and science, the club utilizes field trips, experiments, and discussion by top men in the field of science.

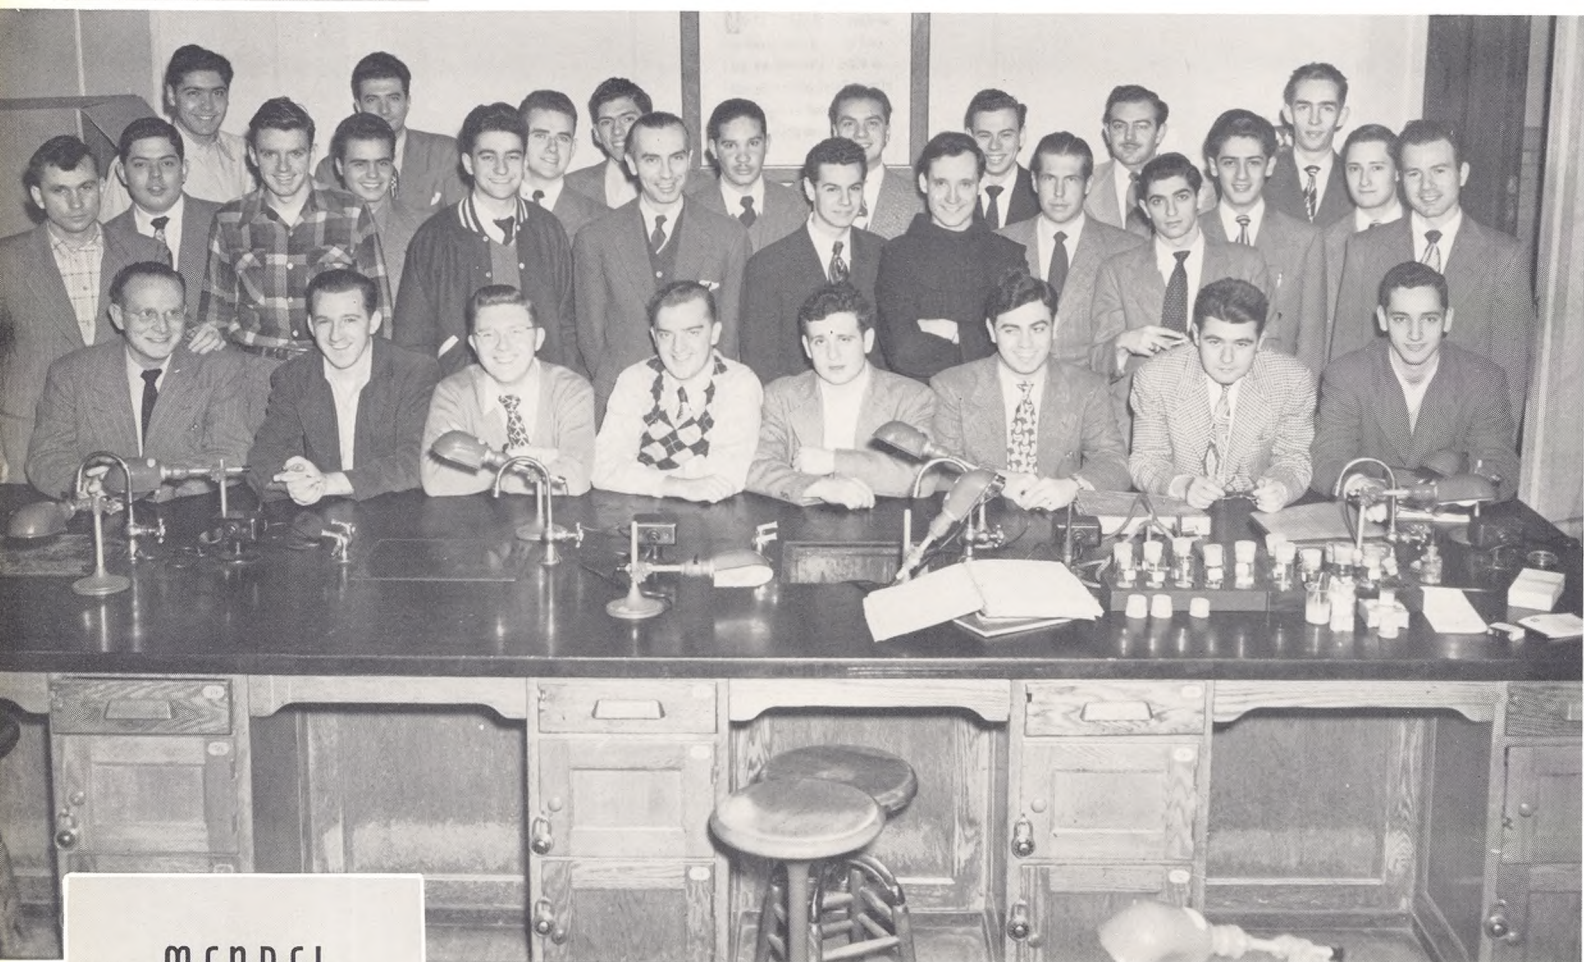

INDICATOR CLUB

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club is the largest organization at St. Francis College. All History, Social Science, and Economics majors are members of this popular club.

Under the guidance of Rev. Brother Finbarr, chairman of the Social Studies Department, the club has gone a long way in helping to put St. Francis College on the map.

MENDEL SOCIETY

This Society was founded in 1936 and was one of the first to come into existence in the United States. Its purpose is to acquaint students in the different fields of Biology with the latest discoveries made and to give them an opportunity to experiment and do research in the fields of Biology that interest them.

This club was formed many years ago for the purpose of bringing together all students interested in the science of mathematics. At their meetings the members discuss current mathematical problems and formulas that are of interest to them.

The Vocation Club, fostering and guarding vocations to the priesthood and Religious state, aids its members in their decisions for life's work through prayer and spiritual direction.

Under the direction of Father Hassett, its spiritual director, the Club sponsors a monthly Day of Recollection. The retreat attempts to keep the high aim of the members in proper focus, to strengthen the vocations, and to aid those members who are undecided.

VOCATION CLUB

ST. BONAVENTURE

Under the energetic guidance of Andy Castigliola, the Philosophical society throughout the year invited learned guest speakers to their meetings who lectured on the leading philosophical thinkers and their contribution to civilization. An active society, the Philosophy Club concerns itself with the ethical and moral problems of the day.

THIRD ORDER OF ST. FRANCIS

Like all approved religious orders of the Church, the Third Order of St. Francis is a specific way of life, a Rule based upon the Gospel life of Christ. Flowing from the essence of the Gospel translated into terms of every day life for the lay person, the spirit of this society functions as a hidden agent influencing its members to lead a thoroughly Catholic life. Inspiring all in its fold to Catholic Action in every other society to which they belong, the Third Order affords to all a model of true Franciscan activity.

SPANISH CLUB

In carrying out its aims, the Spanish Club embarked upon a busy and eventful year. The high light of the club's activities was the Spanish Dance, an annual affair held in the college gym. The club's participation in inter-collegiate activities has helped to further the name of St. Francis College.

PI ALPHA FRATERNITY

This school year has been well marked with Pi Alpha activities. While sponsoring such undertakings as dogging sessions, dances, and smokers, Pi Alpha displayed a spirit of brotherhood which identified each member as a standout collegian and regular fellow.

As some anonymous historian wrote concerning his frat brothers" . . . the Pi Alpha man is a good student, faithful Catholic, and still one of the boys . . . drinks beer, goes out with a working girl, spends his days in class, his nights out and his money on weekends . . . is proud of his frat and prouder of St. Francis."

BETA CHAPTER

While celebrating its twenty-sixth year here at St. Francis, the Beta Chapter of Phi Rho Pi added much to its already overflowing storehouse of pleasant memories and outstanding traditions. The Spring Dance, dogging with its "hell and paddle night", the frequent meetings at which the bonds of friendship were renewed and strengthened—all these and more have made this year a memorable one.

Although it has established and encouraged an active fraternal social life among its members, Phi Rho Pi also has fostered in its brothers a keen pride in their frat and a spirit of love and loyalty to their school.

STUDENT COUNCIL

GEORGE HEARN
Vice President

RICHARD J. DRISCOLL
Treasurer

The Student Council is the organ of student opinion at Saint Francis College. Since its inception here in the College after the War, the Council's path to real expression and to real student power has been a long and difficult one, beset with many perilous obstacles namely: student apathy, and administrative caution.

But during the past year, under the leadership of Mike Petito, the Council has finally come into its own. The Council can be proud of itself. It has conducted itself with a view to the student needs and desires. The members of the Council were often placed in a position that entailed great personal loss in time, energy, and the respect of their fellow students.

The President of the Council faced many problems. The main problem had to do with the Athletic Office. Although the latter won the victories, they were but phryic ones. For out of the discussions about the Athletic fee and the distribution of tickets for the Saint John's game, the Council gained the unanimous support and approval of the student body of the College.

Another accomplishment of the Council was the successful planning of the Saint Patrick's Day Parade by George Hearn, Vice President of the Council.

The Council gave active support to the various endeavors of the College. Expensive ads, trips to forums and conventions are but part of the Council's activities.

Brother Celestine in discussion with council members at intermission.

All eyes are on the speaker.

The Student Council of Saint Francis College has served well the interests of the College. It has been the exemplar of true Franciscan spirit. It has labored for the political, social, intellectual, and cultural advancement of the College.

This year marks the high point in Student Government here at the College. The Council must go forward. Catholic Colleges have the obligation to support the Student Government Movement. For it is the Catholic citadels of higher education that the leaders of tomorrow are moulded and are given their rightful opportunity to try their wings.

The Student Council is indebted to the interest of the faculty and especially to the active support of the student body for the past successful year.

Being fully cognizant of the heavy responsibility and obligation placed upon its shoulders, the Council, as in the past, will continue to represent the thought of the students; it will attempt in the future a reconsolidation of the forces of the students in order to bring about a revival in this college and in others the true spirit of Christian democracy.

The Council believes most firmly that it is the right of the students to have free self-government. It is their birthright. They will not give it up without a fight.

THE TROUPERS

STANDING: Dick Driscoll, Don Regan, Harry Sheehan, Father Murray, Ed Gallagher, John Peterman. KNEELING: Jack Finan, Joe Kennedy, George Jackson, Steve Rusnak.

The show you see every year—The presentation of the Troupers here at the college—is not just a throwtogether job of a group of people that rather like the theater. It is the spawn of many weeks of arduous rehearsal—two nights a week and Sunday afternoon, roughly twelve hours of rehearsal per week, for about two and one half months.

The show was put together by Rev. Gerard M. Murray, teacher, playwright, priest. Father's show, Career Angel ran on Broadway in 1941, and was favorably received by the critics.

Last year's show, The Late George Apley, was put on at the Barbizon Plaza Theatre in New York, and only one of the comments was "almost professional." The show seemed to get on despite the obstacles of, to mention a few, arranging schedules for ticket selling, finding and transporting turn of the century furniture, costuming some fifteen actors, building the set for the show. The finished show that looks so smooth is the result of the cooperation of actor and director, theatre and group, carpenters and designers, in short, the result of work and plenty of it, albeit pleasant.

The Troupers have been in existence as long as the college, and have been giving performances every year, with the exception of World War I and II periods, since the late 1800's. Reactivated in 1946 through the combined efforts of some faculty members and a few interested students, they gave their first post-war performance, The Skin of Our Teeth, in 1946. Since then they have done, Shadow and Substance, The Second Shepherd's Play, The Late George Apley, and at this writing, are in rehearsal for Philip Barry's Holiday, to be presented at Carnegie Hall.

THE VOICE

On September 23rd of last year a new VOICE appeared at various spots throughout the College. It was the culmination of a summer's work by Bill Brooks and his staff. The VOICE was longer, wider, better printed and on better quality paper than the previous years. As the term progressed it became apparent that this was a different paper in other respects. Once more the VOICE returned to being the most powerful organ of the student body. Favorable remarks were received from other College publications and circulation expanded tremendously over past years. The VOICE had come into its own.

With the aid of the administration, student body, and various organizations connected with the College news coverage, feature and sports articles were enlarged and better informed. On the whole, the students were pleased with the paper.

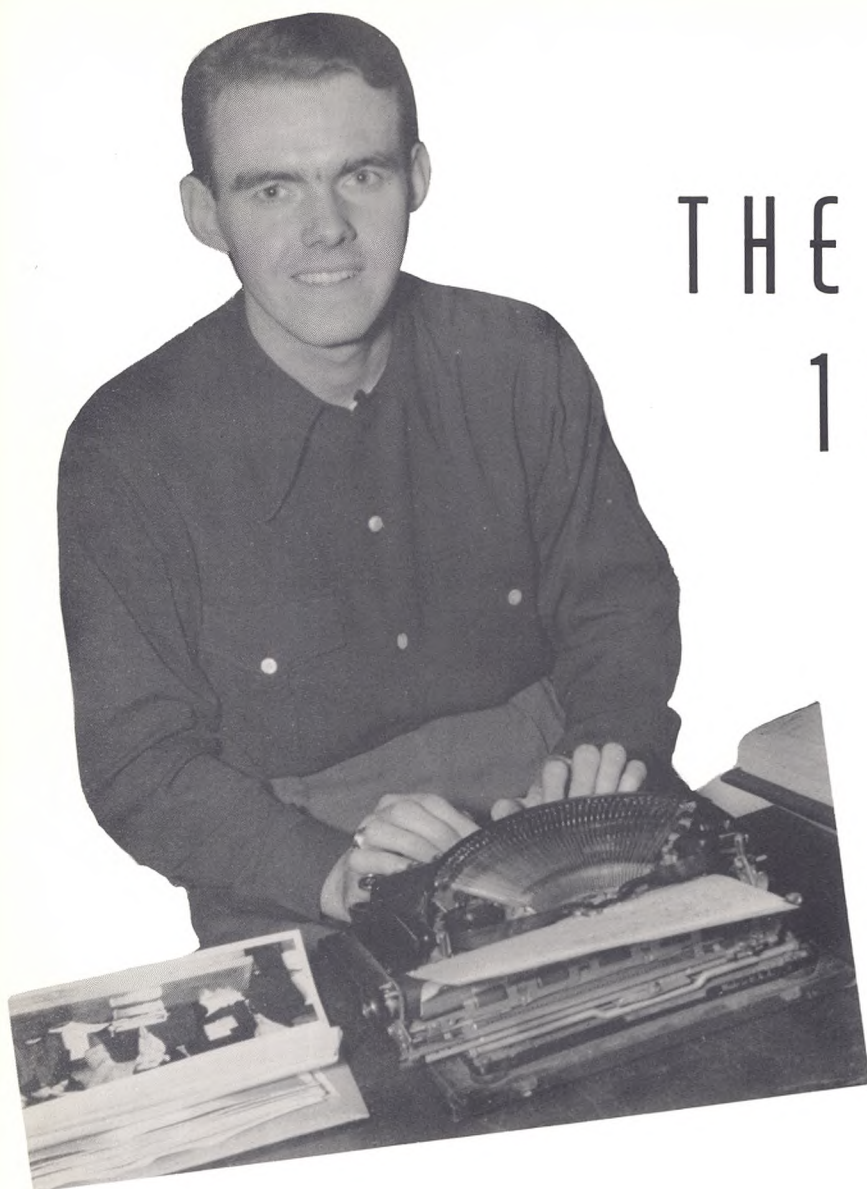

Many innovations were apparent. New feature columns became more popular with each issue and Mother Mooney received a sizable amount of correspondence from disappointed lovers. Each issue bettered the last as the staff and editors learned more about what the student body wanted in their paper. At the end of the year it seems natural to look back on the results and give Bill Brooks, the editors, and the staff our heartiest congratulations.

THE 1950 FRANCISCAN

DICK DRISCOLL
Editor-in-Chief

The 1950 FRANCISCAN was a cooperative yearbook. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors gave freely of their time, talents, and money so as to make the book a success.

It was rough going from start to finish, what with planning the layout, gathering the necessary photographs, making drawings, securing copy, and raising enough money to pay for the book.

Among the new precedents set by the yearbook staff for 1950 was the sale of photos taken at the college dances, getting the underclasses to take half-page ads in the yearbook, and new techniques in photography as developed by our worthy photographic editor, John Ryan.

Our staff was comprised of versatile men like Ed. Freeh, who not only played the role of business-manager but also that of adviser, and critic. The "Big Man," Matt Dooner did a swell job on the art work of the book as did his assistants John Connell, and Gerry Clebanoff. Photographers Jack Ryan, Ray Issacson, John Peterman, and Joe Caccavo get out vote of thanks for a job well done. To the many others who helped us in one way or another we give our heartfelt thanks.

The FRANCISCAN will serve as a reminder to us of the good times we had while in college. We will remember the dances, assemblies, smokers, council meetings, student elections, the Fraternity dogging periods, rallies, the basketball games, and the numerous other activities that we took part in. Most of all, we will remember our four years at St. Francis as time well spent because we became Franciscans in mind and spirit.

CROSS COUNTRY

While the recent Terrier hill and dale squad did not have a winning season, it did post some good individual performances. Captain Bill Welsh won the Junior Metropolitan Championship and also the Junior National 15 kilometer road race. Welsh ran his best five mile grind against St. John's when he won in the time of 27:47. Other leading times were: Ed Kennedy's 28:17.3 against Fordham and his second place in the Junior Mets. Bill Weir put in a 28:42 against St. John's, Jack McCarthy and John Munnelly posted 27:43 against NYU, George Rouillard a 29:50 against NYU, and Les Clark's 31:02 against NYU.

The frosh Cross-Country squad had a 3-2 record in dual and triangular competition and placed second in the Met Championships. Good three mile performances were turned in by Jack Donovan against Manhattan 16:42, Frank Dunn against St. John's 17:26, Pat Fennell against Fordham 17:59, Joe Hehn against NYU 17:00, Carl Olson against Fordham 17:05 and Cyril Tyson against NYU 16:59.

INDOOR SEASON

Competing in most of the big indoor meets during the '49-'50 season, the Franciscan trackmen turned in some fine efforts. The mile relay teams won in the Philadelphia Inquirer Meet, were second in the New York K. of C. and took a third in the New York A. C. Sprinter Bill Casey was second in the 60 yard handicap at the NYAC Games and shows great promise. Big Steve Dillon was brilliant in the 35 lb. weight throw and the 16 lb. shot. At the Metropolitan Championships he heaved the weight for a distance of 59' 8½" to post the second longest recorded toss in world history. He also broke the Junior National Championship meet record. Experts agree that Steve has unlimited possibilities and won't reach his peak for several years.

The Medley relay team took third place in the Met. Assoc. A. A. U. meet, Carl Olson was second in a NYAC 1000 yard handicap. These were but a few of the good jobs turned in by Coach Jack Browns men. His squad of 35 was a spirited, fighting group. Almost always they had to contend with larger, more powerful teams. In the sprints, middle distances, and relays, they were battling all the way.

OUTDOOR SEASON

The outdoor season saw the Terriers whip Brooklyn College in both the Varsity and Frosh meets, participate in the Seton Hall Relays, take a third place in a Penn Relays classified mile relay and fifth in the 880 yard relay. Supplied with some capable field event men and with performers who could "double up" in events, the Red and Blue looked for a successful cinder season.

The 1949-50 bowling season had Iona and Hofstra Colleges added to the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Bowling Conference. The 49-50 season also had St. Francis enter the bowling wars with four returning letter-men, in Joe Dunn, Captain; Tom Demny, Andy Bisso and Ed Weinberg. Added to the squad were Joe Wengler who was to lead the team to many a victory. Walt Muller one of the most outstanding during the latter part of the season, and Stan Fisher and Bill Glander both who added to the strength of the team.

The first match of the season had St. Francis pitted against Pace College, last years champions. The Terriers led by Joe Wengler emerged on top by a count of 2 games won, 1 game lost. Facing Fordham University the Terriers encountered their first taste of defeat of the young season by dropping 3 games to the men from Rose Hill. Snarling from the previous week's defeat the Franciscans turned on the St. John's Redmen and inflicted a 3 to 0 defeat upon them. It was Wengler again who led the way in the defeat of the Redmen with a 540 series for the day. In the weeks that followed the Franciscan Keglers went on to beat L. I. U. and Hunter College by counts of 2 to 1 and 3 to 0. Queens College and Hofstra College both handed the Terriers 2 to 1 defeats. The defeat of Cooper Union by a 3 to 0 count was a short lived winning streak, for Iona College defeated the Terriers by a 2 to 1 count which put them in fifth place at the half-way mark in the Conference standings.

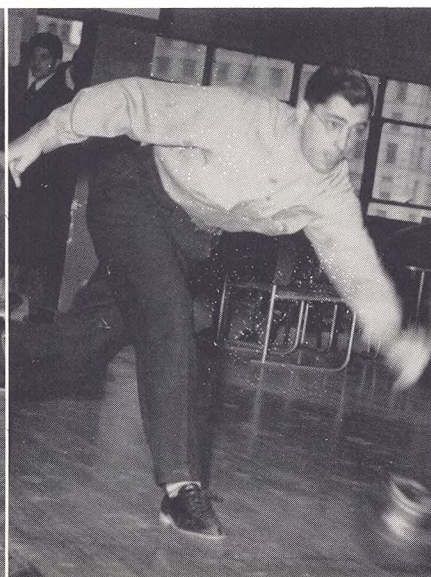

The second half of the season had the Franciscan Keglers fall to Pace College by a count of 2 to 1; but acting as a spoiler the Terriers knocked St. John's out of First place in the Conference standings by winning one of the three games played between them. It was Captain Joe Dunn with a 192 game and Joe Wengler with a 203 game who helped to knock St. John's out of the lead.

It was after this game that the Terriers put on their most impressive drive by rolling over L. I. U., Hunter, and Queens Colleges all by 3 to 0 counts. It was in the first game of the Queens match that Joe Wengler putting his know-how on the line came off with the pin to defeat the Queens-men by a count of St. Francis 805—Queens 804.

The season's closing matches found St. Francis losing to Hofstra College by a 3 to 0 count; winning from Cooper Union by a 2 to 1 count and falling before the up and coming Iona College Keglers by a 3 to 0 to end the season.

KNEELING: Ed Wienberg (if.), Joe Wengler (ss.), Tony Costantino (c.), Frank Sainato (2b), Carmine Giordano (ut.). STANDING: Bill Paterno (1b.), Bob Webb (p.), Jack Dougherty (p.), Frank Ahern (cf.), Bob Conover (3b.), Joe Congedo (c.), Herb Wood (of.), Frank Kaiven (p.), Capt. Leo Walsh (lf.), Frank Ghiorso (p.), Frank Sidoti (ut.), Chris Mega (c.), Adolf Gobel (ut.), Sam D'Agostino (rf.).

When the call went out for baseball practice this Spring, coach Dan Lynch had seven hold-overs from last year's team which had compiled a 7-8 record. Pitchers Jack Dougherty, Frank Kaiven, and Bob Webb, together with first baseman Bill Paterno, and outfielders Sam D'Agostino, Leo Walsh, and Herb Wood were the returning veterans.

Southpaw Frank Kaiven who had a 2-2 record and ERA of 3.24 in '49 was the leading moundsman. He was to receive help from soph Frank Ghiorso. Pitcher Bob Johnson who had a 3-0 record and a ERA of 0.81 in 1949 would be sorely missed by the team. Webb and Dougherty were used as spot pitchers.

Hard hitting Paterno was a fixture at first base and the rest of the infield posts were held down by sophomores. Joe Wengler at short covered plenty of ground and was always hustling. In the outfield, Capt. Leo Walsh played a fine, steady game, always alert and coming through with the right play and hit when it counted most. Frank Ahern won the center field position over defensive player Herb Wood. Rightfielder Sam D'Agostino was a heavy hitter but a old shoulder injury hampered his throwing. Sam's extra base blows helped the team push across those runs.

Able Tony Costantino won the catching job and received support from promising Chris Mega. It was felt that if the three soph's in the infield could hold up, the team would be worthy of respect. The pitching was considered fair, the outfield with a veteran trio was set; if the infield could make the double-play and back up the pitching, then it was believed that the Terriers could field a balanced team.

CAGE SEASON

St. Francis 67—Loyola 60

Opening their 1949-50 campaign the Terriers took the Loyola Greyhounds into camp 67-60. It was a hotly contested game that found the Terriers behind at the half. After intermission the Terriers quickly caught the visitors and through the fine scoring of Jim Luisi won by 7 markers. Mike Zedalis took game honors with 24 tallies.

Villanova 80—St. Francis 57

The Red and Blue played their first road contest of the season at the Penn Palestra in Philadelphia against Villanova and really took it on the chin in the last few minutes. Three of the visitors fouled out and All-American Paul Arizin found the hoop for 32 points to lead the Wildcats to victory in a bruising contest. Jim Luisi and Tom O'Connor were high with 16 and 14 tallies, respectively.

Manhattan 71—St. Francis 57

Returning to the Armory the Terriers lost to a tall Manhattan Jaspers quintet by 14 points as the Kelly Green used its height advantage to the utmost. It was a ragged contest with the Terriers blowing many easy chances in the beginning. The Jaspers led 36-34 at the half and poured it on in the last few minutes. Ray Rudzinski scored 22 for the Franciscans while Joe Cullen garnered 13 for the visitors.

St. Francis 90—Adelphi 62

The Terriers put on a dazzling display of marksmanship and won going away. Roy Reardon began hitting from the opening whistle and didn't stop until he wound up with 28 points. Roy also set Ray Rudzinski up for many of his 21 markers. Joe Spollen led the Panther attack with 19 points.

St. Francis 78—Le Moyne 68

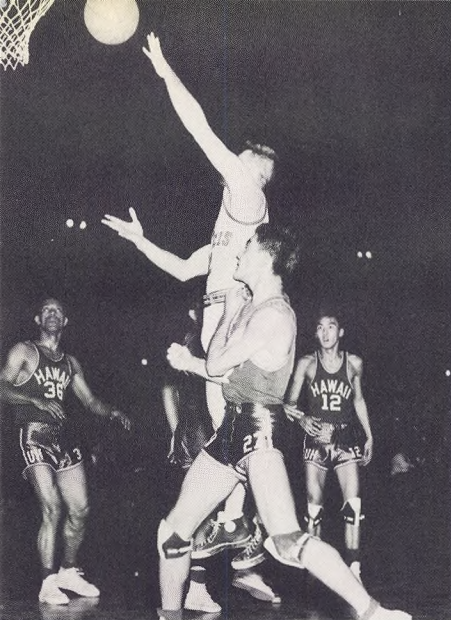

Opening a three game tour of upper New York State, the Terriers trounced the Dolphins to bring their record up to 3-2. The visitors led at the half 37-34 and were again paced by Roy Reardon with 25 points. Tom O'Connor followed with 19 while Don Savage took game honors with 40 tallies.

Siena 62—St. Francis 45

The Siena Indians went on the warpath when the Terriers came into town and won their first contest from the Butler Street crew after ten tries. St. Francis started well but couldn't hold an early lead. The Indians led 27-22 at intermission and soon removed all doubt concerning the outcome of the fray. Roy Reardon hit 18 for St. Francis and Charlie Northrup 14 for Siena.

Niagara 65—St. Francis 58

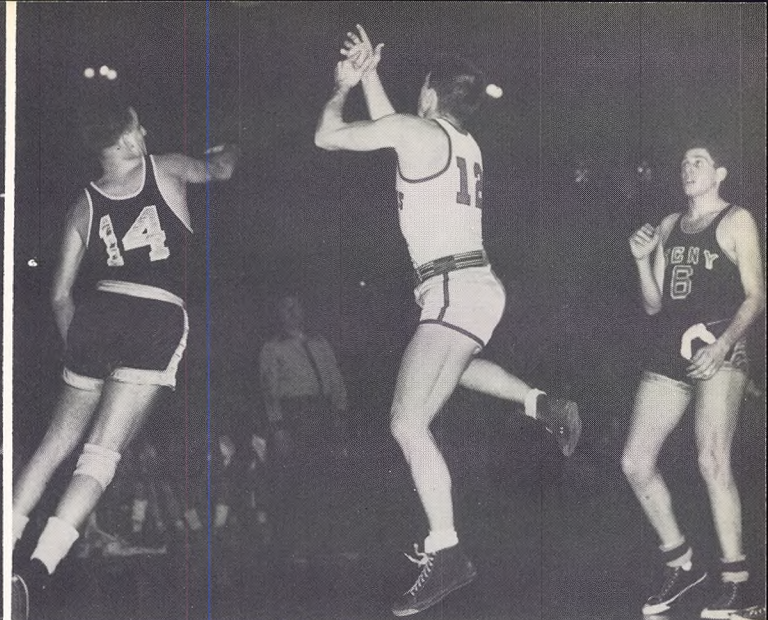

Closing out their upstate jaunt, the Terriers dropped a close game to the Purple Eagles of Niagara. The Franciscans got off in front but lagged toward the end of the opening session and left the floor trailing 33-21. The Red and Blue fought back gamely but the 12 point deficit was too much to overcome. Roy the boy was back again, this time with 17 while Tom Birch and Billy Symth paced the Vincenians with 19 and 15 points, respectively.

Tom O'Connor with a one-hand jump against Hawaii.

Roy Reardon goes up with a twisting one-hander.

Tom O'Connor gets off a fast shot.

Fordham 56—St. Francis 51

The Terriers opened the 1950 part of the season and lost to the Fordham Rams in a thrill packed contest in the Armory. The Lynchmen led at the half 26-24 but could not fight off the superior Fordham height. Bill Carlson got 16 for the Rams while Luisi and Reardon hit 14 and 13 for the Terriers.

Seton Hall 66—St. Francis 64

Playing one of their best games the Terriers lost a heart-breaker to the Seton Hall Pirates in their South Orange gym. The Franciscans were in it all the way and lost just five seconds before the end on a hook shot by big Dave Putnam. Roy and Jim poured 21 and 18 through the hoop and Putnam garnered 14 for the Pirates.

St. Francis 94—Mexico 59

The Franciscans really cut loose against the Mexicans and sharpened their shooting eyes. Roy Reardon led the scoring with 20 points while Jim Luisi had 17 and Tom Quinn 16 for the Lynchmen. The entire squad broke into the scoring column in the easiest game of the year for the Franciscans. Carlos Villarreal hooped 15 points for the visitors.

St. John's 65—St. Francis 46

The Terriers were strengthened by the addition of Marty Conway and Jack O'Connor to their squad for the big game with the Redmen. Conway showed his worth by taking scoring honors for the Terriers with 12 points followed closely by Jim Luisi with 11. Bob Zawoluk ran wild and threw in 26 points to lead his team to a crushing victory over the Terriers.

Boston College 81—St. Francis 77

In a high scoring battle the Eagles nipped the Terriers in a thriller all the way. The score at intermission was 41-37 in favor of the Eagles and they kept that margin throughout the second half. Tom Deegan had 22 for Boston while Jim Luisi hit his individual high for the year with 26 points. Roy Reardon knocked in 21 for the Terriers.

Kent State 78—St. Francis 70

Hitting the road again the Terriers lost a tough contest to Kent State which saw Roy Reardon and Jim Luisi leaving the game on fouls. Tom O'Connor had a fine night and scored 22 points for the visitors while Leroy Thompson had 23 markers for the home forces.

Akron 58—St. Francis 50

Completing their invasion of the Midwest, the Terriers were defeated by the Akron Zippers in another rough contest. It was in this game that high scoring Roy Reardon and Jim Luisi came up with ankle injuries and both left early, scoring only 3 points between them. Frank Sainato and Bill Paterno took up the slack with 13 markers apiece but this duo could not do the trick alone. Joe Staudt chalked up 14 for the Zippers.

St. Francis 59—T. C. of Conn. 54

The slumping Terriers finally picked up a win over the Teachers College of Connecticut. The Red and Blue had the contest pretty well in hand all the way and were only in trouble midway through the final half until Marty Conway broke the game open with several hangers. Tom O'Connor came up with an ankle injury and had to leave after scoring 11 points. Jim Luisi was high with 14 for the Terriers while Burr Carlson was good for 19 for the Blue Devils.

C. C. N. Y. 68—St. Francis 46

With Roy Reardon in a sick-bed and Tom O'Connor practically useless with a sprained ankle, the Terriers took the floor a decided under-dog against highly regarded City College. For 18 minutes the Franciscans put up a sensational fight but the superior Beaver attack began to tell and they pulled away to a 9 point lead at the half. The Beavers really went to town in the final session and soon ran the Terriers into the floor. Jim Luisi got 17 markers while Ed Roman hit 21 and Ed Warner 20 for the Beavers.

Scranton 57—St. Francis 52

Hitting the road on a cross-country trip the Terriers stopped in Scranton to do battle with the Royals and were surprised by a poor Scranton squad. The Royals had two good scorers in Jack Leighton with 24 and Pete Medvecky with 16 but had little else while the Terriers, except for Jim Luisi's 20 points, could not hit consistently against a club that should have been taken in a breeze.

Nevada 70—St. Francis 62

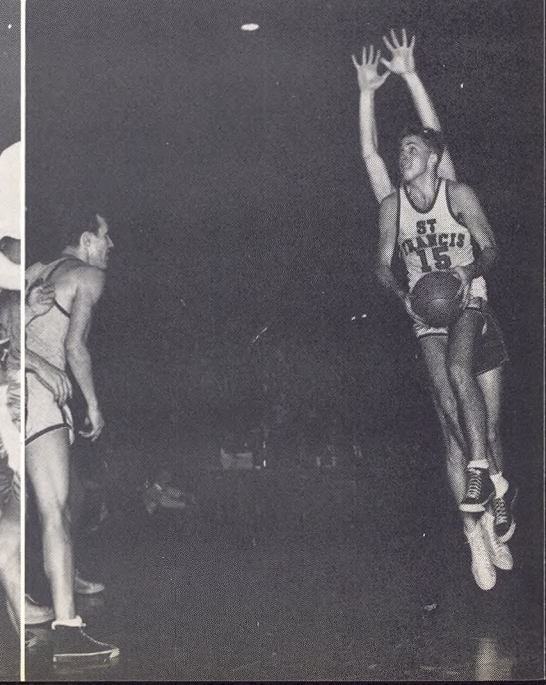

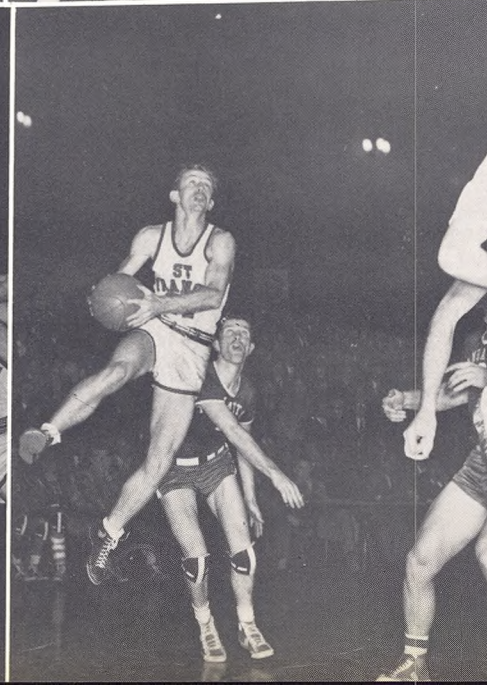

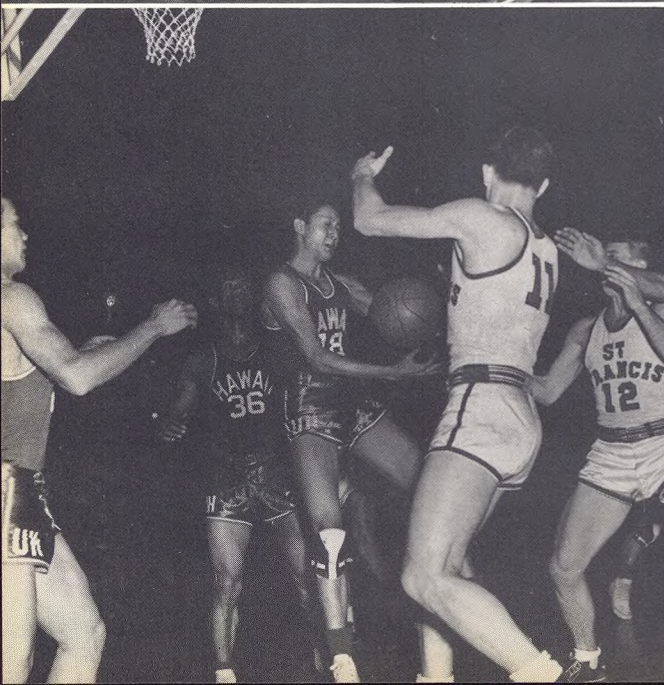

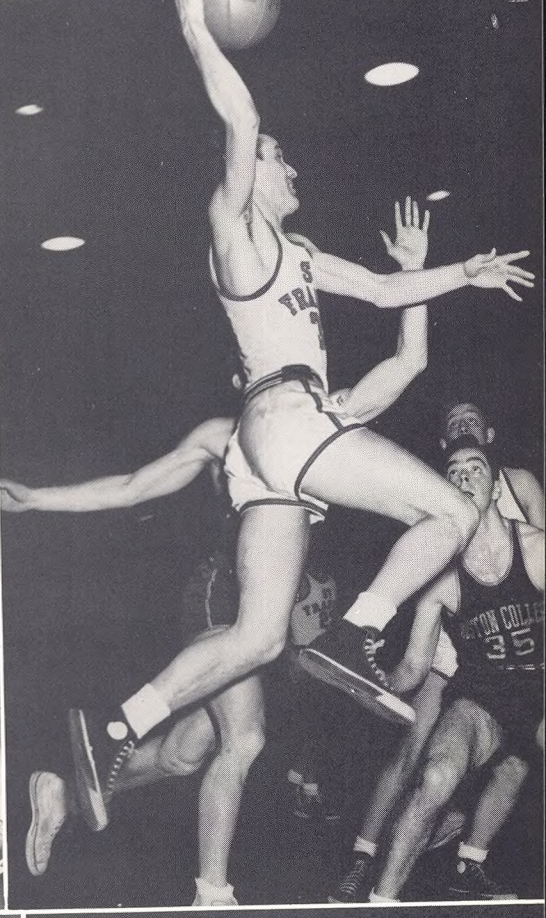

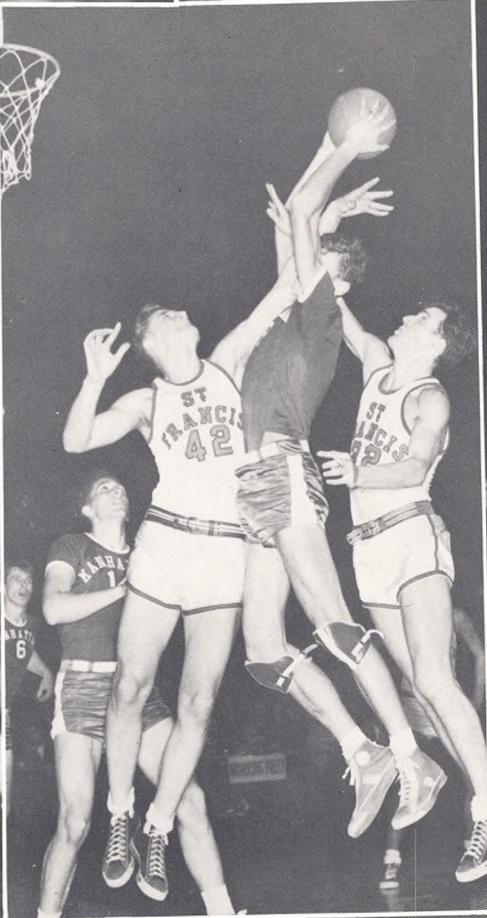

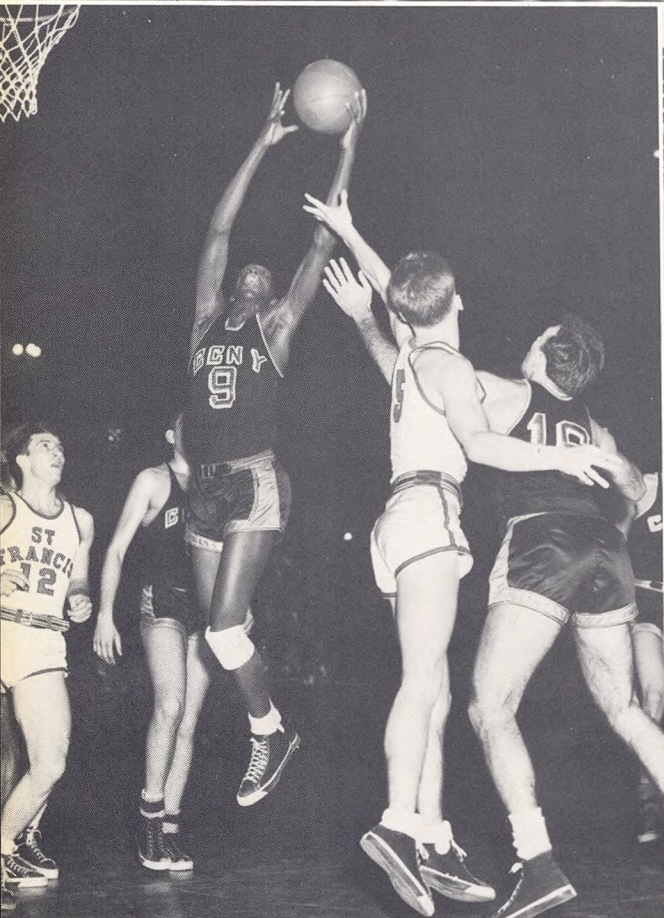

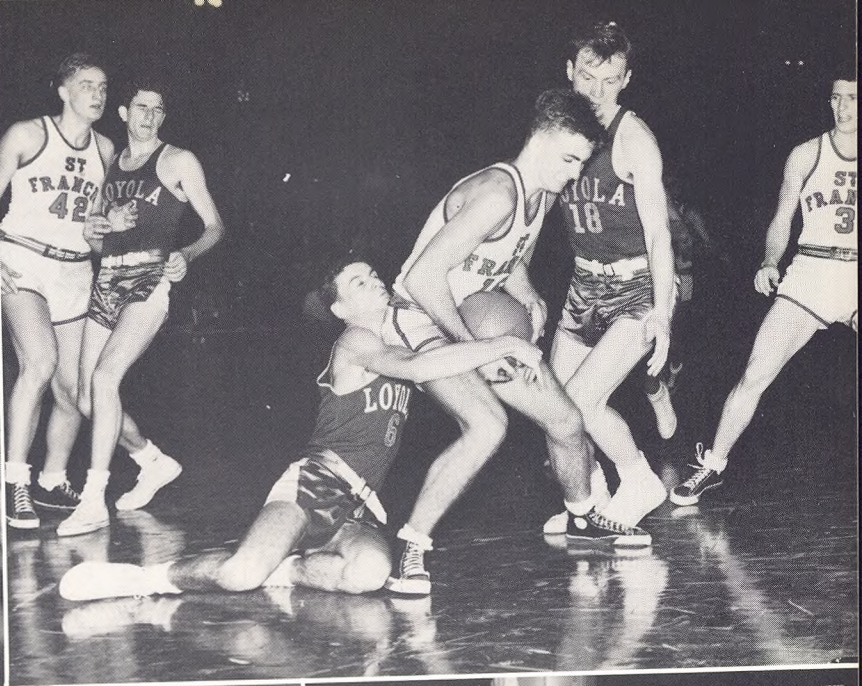

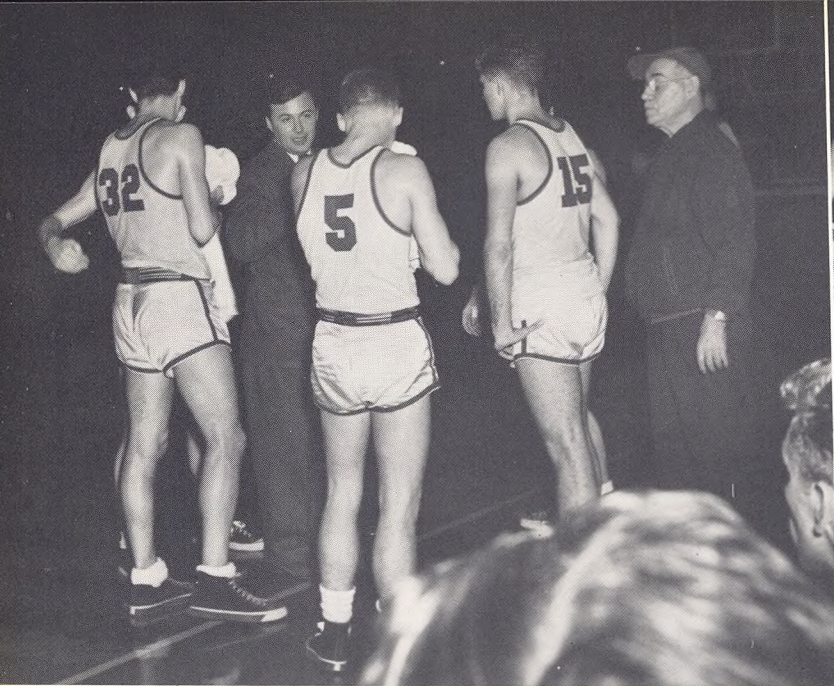

The next stop for the Lynchmen was in Reno, Nevada where they met a fine seven man team—five players and two refs. The Franciscans were continually on the bad end of some equally bad calls and could do nothing right against the Wolfpack. It was a close contest until a few minutes were left when Nevada pulled away for keeps. Jim Luisi with 16 and Marty Conway with 14 led the Terrier offensive. Joe Libke and Mert Baxter scored 18 and 16 for the Wolfpack.

George Pepperdine 81—St. Francis 50

The Terriers were never in this game after the opening whistle as the Waves put on a brilliant display of shooting and rebounding. In the opinion of many observers Pepperdine was the best club the Terriers faced all season. They could do nothing wrong and had fine reserves, to boot. Jim Luisi again topped the point-markers with 16 while Roy Reardon had 14 as did both John Furlong and Bill Mitsch for the Waves.

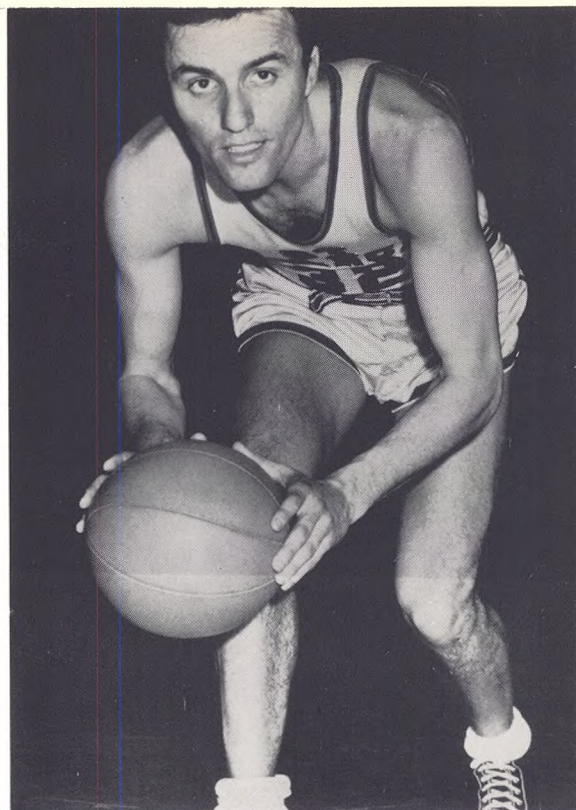

Santa Clara 76—St. Francis 64

The Broncos had a fair team and did not show much in beating Manhattan earlier in the season in the Garden. The Terriers should have wrapped this one up early but just let it slip away. Santa Clara did not have too much height but outside of Luisi and Reardon, the Terriers could not score. Roy hit

Bill Paterno

Jim Luisi, high scorer.

24 and Jim 17. Jack Nalty and George Stein both got 14 for the Broncos.

San Francisco 73—St. Francis 42

This was another rout right from the outset and the Terriers could not get started. The Dons looked much better than they did earlier in the Garden. They started off quickly and built a 35-14 lead at intermission. The Terriers scored more often in the second half but not nearly enough to make it close. Jim Luisi threw in 17 tallies and Don Lofrgan led the Frisco offensive with 12 followed by Rene Herrerias' 10 points.

St. Francis 76—Hawaii 54

Returning to the Armory after their miserable Western trip, the Terriers took it out on the Hawaii Rainbows. They led from the beginning and had hardly any difficulty as the game progressed. They were hitting on a fine percentage of their shots as they shook Marty Conway and Jim Luisi loose many times under the basket for easy lay-ups. Conway got 19 and Luisi 15 for the Lynchmen and Ed Loui hit 26 for the visitors.

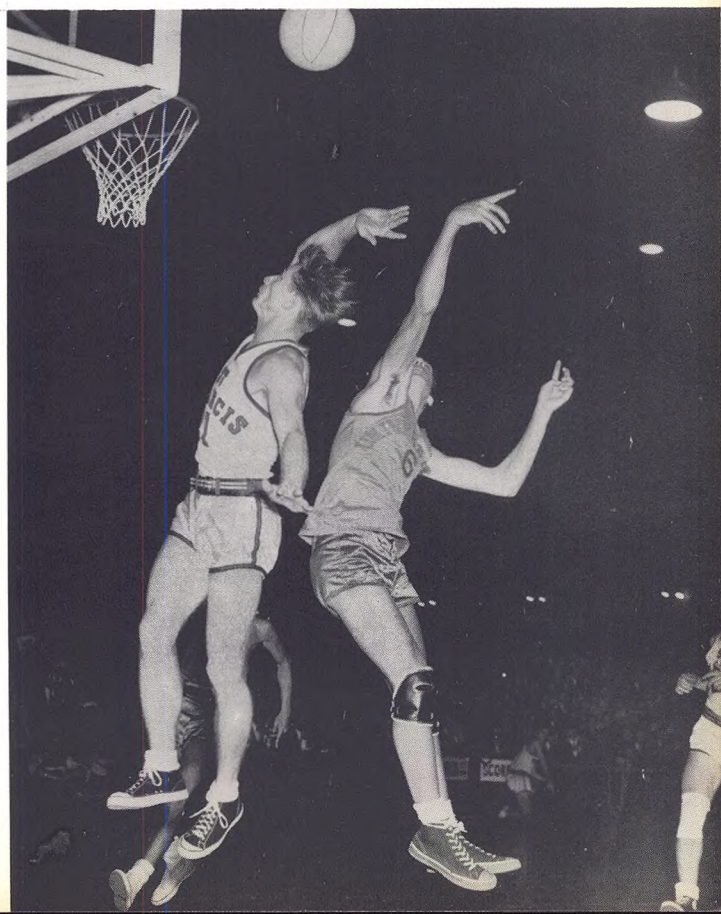

Iona 74—St. Francis 55

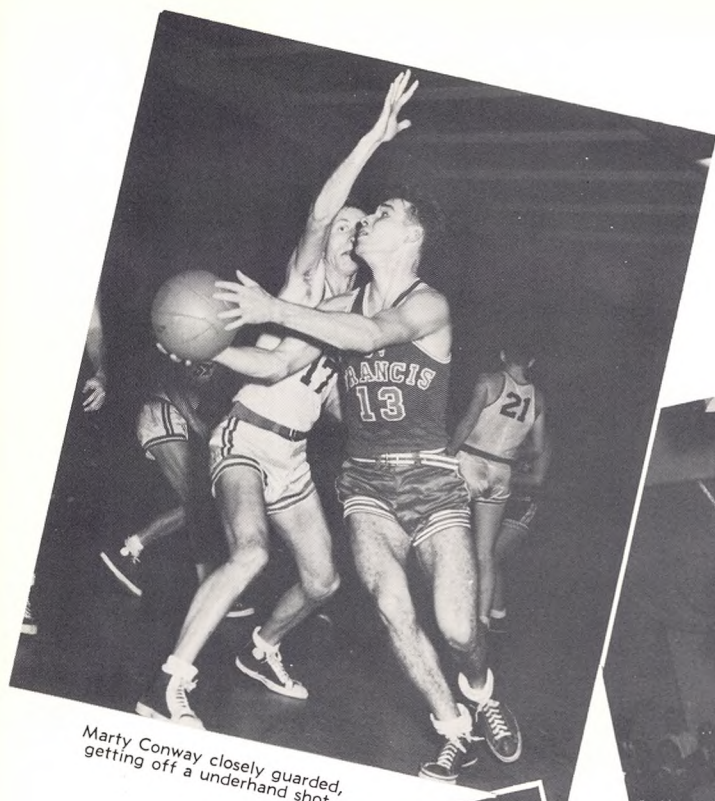

The Terriers took off for White Plains and except for the first 15 minutes were never in the contest with the Gaels. Roy Reardon really opened up and dropped in his first 5 shots but the other Terriers could not hit consistently enough to pull it out. The Gaels led by 12 at intermission and increased it to win going away. Reardon garnered 19 while Joe DiStanislao and Frank O'Shea were both good for 17 points for Iona.

Toledo 85—St. Francis 73

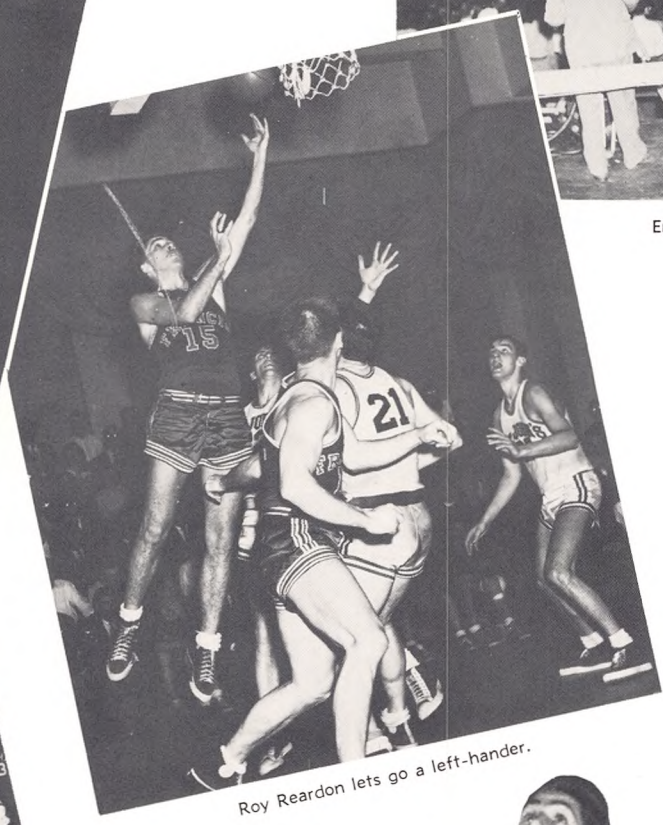

Closing out the worst season in their history, the Terriers played well against the Toledo Rockets but did not have quite enough rebound strength to top the highly regarded visitors. Toledo had several local boys on their squad and they all played a prominent role in the Rocket victory. Bob McDonald from Jamaica had 21 points and Bill Walker from St. Albans had 15. Ray Rudzinski played his best game of the season and threw in 25 tallies for the Lynchmen.

SOUND OF THE WIND

Out of the evergreens of hope,
High winding heights of thought,
Memory blooms on husky leaves.
Clean ideas spring fountainlike,
And gushing streams rush steadily
Beneath veiled Cypresses,
And groves of persevering Oak,
Moulded from a rich amazing soil.
Thick spines rise, arching high,
Reaching for remote augustan skies.

Here no potent windfall turns
The slender branch or purpose shakes.
Here no wild stammerings no noise
Dims the calm complacent memory.
Blooms fresh the crescent bough
With blazing energy and life,
And clean freshfallen rain
Awakens fire latent in the soil.

Morning breaks; Night congeals;
Days seemingly so rigid, fixed, and set,
Crushed repose in shadow of the stars;
Light that seemed to burn, full and free,
Soon melts within respective dark.
And memories curl themselves in buds,
Sleeping in the shades of evergreen,
Where evening hides the Willow's tears,
Where the Cypress stands erect and still.

Only the rivers of the night
Persist, unceasing, feeling free;
Rushing through the crowded scent,
Through the bare reposing choirs,
Beaten by the wind's retreat,
Toward the river's source, and dawn.

Sentiments, like leaves, curl and blow,

Dropping soon beneath the silent branch,
Dipping to the flowing stream;
Gliding on, laden with a memory,
Across the silence of the night,
Running by the trees and lakes.

The forest fills with gloom,
And burning stars uncover all,
Until again the new day breaks;
When filled with morning promise,
Skies emerge as clean and bright,
And the Cypress stands revealed
In all its greenleaved glory.
And the Spruce holds high its promise
As once again day succeeds the night,
As once more departure brings new joy.

And up among the topmost spire,
Where sticks and skies converse,
Runs a reminiscent vein;
And the song stately Elders sing
Is a familiar air, fresh as May.
Which carries far across the hills,
Across the corridors of Time:

"These roots shall be replaced,
These branches folded and reposed,
And Tomorrow springs new seeds.
Still, one melody runs free,
The song that shall remain,
Shall fill the air with sweet
Sound and echo shall enjoin
All hopeful hearts to hear,
Eager ears to strain:
Farewell, Farewell, pleasant sky,
No loud echo, just a soft reply."

JOSEPH A. FIORAVANTI

The old grey and brown man remembers the smiles and music of dead sand the quiet song of youth quickly sung and smiles sardonically recalling the whisper touch of love the sickle of death.

The gay young and glad boy beguiled by rich dreams of witchery runs through the maze of applause swallowing a shallow day asleep anticipating brighter suns unaware of their scantiness and joining sorrows.

But today is the miracle
the gloom and the sun.
The old fool remembers
the young fool dreams
but the wise man chews and sucks the moment.

CORNERSTONE OF PROGRESS

THE GROWTH OF ANY COMMUNITY BEGINS WITH SOUND, COOPERATIVE AND ADEQUATE BANKING FACILITIES. ON THAT PREMISE THE CORNERSTONE OF BROOKLYN'S PROGRESS WAS LAID IN THE LATE NINETEENTH CENTURY. KINGS COUNTY TRUST COMPANY WAS ESTABLISHED THEN, IN 1889, AND ALONG WITH OTHER BROOKLYN BANKS SPRINGING UP IN THOSE YEARS HAS BEEN A VITAL SPARK, FINANCIALLY, IN BUILDING THIS GREAT BOROUGH, THE LARGEST OF NEW YORK'S FIVE COMPONENT PARTS.
