It is our effort to portray the influence of the Franciscan Brothers to draw us closer to the Greatest of All Artists — Jesus Christ.

A black and white illustration of a Franciscan friar standing in a stone-walled room. The friar is on the left, wearing a simple habit with a wide, light-colored collar and a dark belt. He has a beard and is pointing his right hand towards a window on the right. The window is arched and shows a religious scene with several figures, possibly the Virgin Mary and the Christ Child, surrounded by other figures. The room is constructed of large, rectangular stone blocks. In the lower right foreground, a dark, curved banner contains the word "Dedication" in a white, gothic-style font.

Dedication

Reverend Brother Pascal, O.S.F.

The appointment of Brother Pascal as Dean of the College represents the recognition of a personality and talent deeply cherished by the students of Saint Francis for many years.

The Deanship offers a wider stage for the exercise of the erudition and kindness of a man who happily combines intellectual attainment with the simplicity of the patron of his Order.

Class of 1954

BERNIE VENNEY
President

As Brother Pascal has said so often this semester, college life is not purely curricular, but by necessity also extra-curricular. The junior class has not only done noteworthy curricular work, but has also participated largely in extra-curricular activities. We realize that these programs are as important a part of college life as are texts, tests, and courses, and therefore we look upon active participation in extra-curricular activities as a vital element in the education of the whole man. As sophomores we were able to hold our heads up as true Franciscans, and now in our junior year we feel we have gone on in the same spirit.

Our administrative hub is comprised of Bernard Veney, president; Bob Minion, vice president; and Ed Quigley, class treasurer. Quigley is the editor of the school newspaper, and his staff is rich in juniors: Bob Minion, associate editor; Bernard Veney, news editor; Tom Vroman, business manager; Tony Puglisi, feature editor; John Dunn, art editor; and Dom Firriolo, news staff. An annual job, that of securing the class rings, is in the capable hands of Bernard Veney and Ed Quigley. Tom Vroman is the treasurer of the Student Council and Ed Quigley is the secretary, while our class representatives, Joe Lategano, Bob Minion, Tom Vroman, Tom Lynch, and Guy Brooks, worked to make the Pi Alpha dance the success that it was. Carl Papaleo and Dom Firriolo did the same to make the Science Dance a success. Jack Walsh, Hank Daubenschmidt, George Searing and Jerry McMurrer, in the Basketball Department, Bob Furey and Jack Dunn of the Yearbook staff, and the men who are members of Phi Rho Pi and Pi Alpha, all serve to illustrate how we are working to leave the Class of '54 well impressed in the memory of St. Francis College. We thank God for His help in the past, and pray for His guidance in our future endeavors.

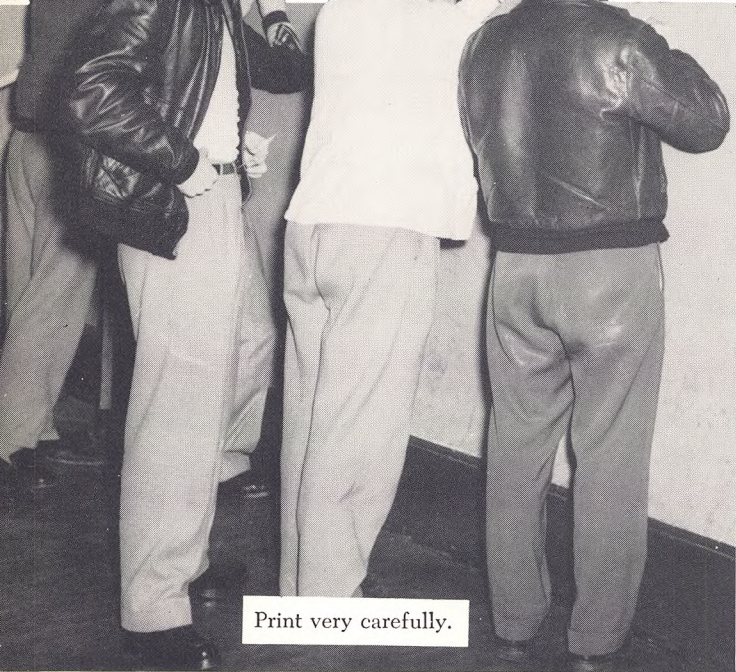

... So that's the way it is, fellas.

Class of 1955

It was a different group of men that returned to Saint Francis in September as the Sophomore Class of 1952-53. True, the same familiar faces were to be found, but it was apparent that these were no longer freshmen. The look of bewilderment that was theirs a short year ago had been replaced by one of confidence and belonging. Yes, we knew we belonged at Saint Francis, and it was here that we were to spend another fruitful year.

We realized, as we settled down to the usual routine of college life, that this was not to be just another year. Brother Pascal called upon the students for co-operation in his program of building from within. With the aid of many Sophomores, Terrier Hall took shape, and the dream of a student lounge was realized. Here many a "Hero" was downed during philosophical and esthetical discussions.

Hazing week once again came up. But this time it was not with apprehension that we looked to it, but rather with a certain amount of relish. Under Don Morrissey's leadership, we initiated the Frosh to the Terrier mode of college living. However, on the final day it was somewhat difficult to discern just who was being hazed. At the Soph-Frosh Hop, a real success, all enmity was dissolved, and toleration gave way to genuine acceptance.

When the Voice called for new members, there was a large turnout from our class, including Ray Cellure, Arthur Maddaloni, Pete Ferrar and Guy de Pascale. The Third Order was reorganized, with Marty Boyle assuming a leading role. John Bals became Senior Delegate to the N.F.C.C.S. We had a large group in the Vocation Club, including John Brennen, Tom Maloney, Frank and Joe Collins, and Bill Roos. Gerry Baxter was elected Class President; Bob Minter and Ed O'Connell accepted Student Council positions. Bob Blauvelt lent his talents to the newly-organized Poster Club. In addition, there were many who lent their efforts to the programs of the Mendel and Humanities clubs, the I.R.C., and the two fraternities.

The above list of Sophomore contributions, by no means complete, shows that we possessed a well-balanced class; there was no aspect of college activities that was not entered by some members from our group. From September to June it was realized that we were true Terriers, with an obligation to sustain the Franciscan spirit inherent in the institution. Now at the half-way mark of our college careers, we have an opportunity to look back over the achievements of the first two years. We can look back with a sense of satisfaction, for our class was always a dynamic part of the college.

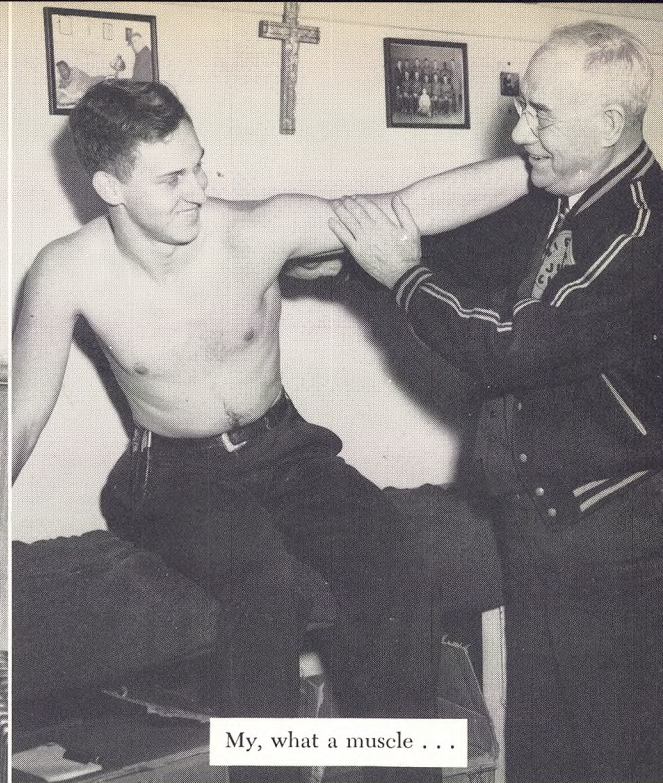

Of the past in retrospect, we can be proud; for the future before us, we can indeed be hopeful.

Now, let's see!! . . .

PETER IMPERATOR
President

We are no longer freshmen. Our apprenticeship is over. It was a good one. We were hazed. In beanies red and blue, rolled up pants legs, and stringy scarlet cravats, we scraped, mopped and painted a certain unmentionable building for a week. The initiation culminated in the first college dance, the Soph-Frosh Hop.

We adapted ourselves. Though it took a while, we eventually came to realize that the clicking in the library was not caused by the radiators, that delicate stomachs and fetal pigs are incompatible, and that basketball is the true "national pastime."

We joined the activities. After casting ballots and electing as class President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, Messrs. Imperator, McLeer, Marino, and Letteri respectively, we proceeded individually to cast about and select the team or club with the most personal appeal. And in the intramurals we did great, especially at track where we just missed top honors by two points.

Oh, yes! We also learned a few things.

The Student Council

THOMAS SMITH
President

The Student Council for the 1952-1953 year has been the most progressive in the twelve year history of the Council at St. Francis College. Action and results have been the criteria.

Working closely with the New Administration, the Council established the new Student Lounge and Recreation Room in Terrier Hall. It also aided in securing volunteers from the student body to carry out the reconstruction necessary in Terrier Hall. Undoubtedly, the establishment of the cafeteria, and all the other facilities in the Hall will go on record as the greatest achievement of any Council.

Once again the Council selected the men whom it regarded as deserving of membership in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," "Franciscan Spirit Awards," and the new "American Student Leaders." These awards are given on the basis of scholastic achievement, participation in extracurricular activities, leadership, and future service and credit to the College.

This year's Council also extended the influence and reputation of the College in such student intercollegiate organizations as "National Federation of Catholic College Students," and "National Student Association." Representatives of St. Francis once again participated in the Student Conference on Public Affairs held in Albany. Again, as has become the tradition, our delegates assumed a prominent position and garnered many honors.

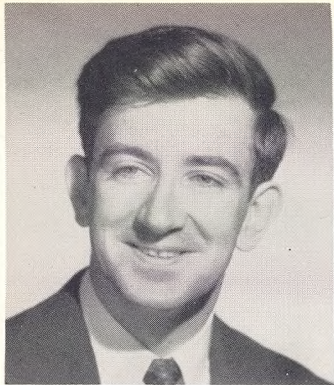

Working under adverse conditions caused by the diminished enrollment, the Social Calendar was successfully administered. The Council supervised the Soph-Frosh Hop and conducted a Smoker. Proceeds from these helped furnish the Lounge.

This year's Armory schedule was the toughest and largest any Terrier team has had to encounter. The Student Council devoted itself to encouraging the success of this program. Baseball and the large intramural program were also fostered by the Council; and great attempts were made to "pep up" student support. All activities such as these depend on a large and enthusiastic response from the students. In view of the existing circumstances, the response had to border on universal cooperation.

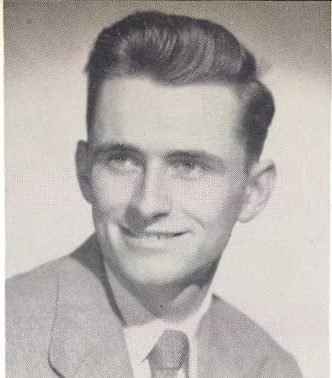

In all, the Council has faithfully represented the student body and made known its wishes to the Administration; and the results of our sharing of trust have been evident. We are indebted to our moderator, the College Administration, and to the students for their interest, concern and cooperation.

It has been a 'good' year.

VINCENT CLEMENTE

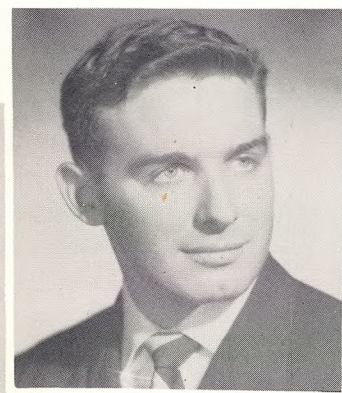

MICHAEL A. FITZPATRICK

The Society has as its primary aim the encouragement among the students of a love and desire for excellence in scholarship and service to all the undergraduate activities of the College. The secondary aim is to give honor and recognition to those deserving students who, by outstanding attainment, have won the respect and esteem of their fellow-students and the members of the administration and the faculty. Only after completion of his sophomore year may a student seek membership, membership that does not cease at graduation. At Commencement each member will have the privilege of wearing a distinctive tassel on his cap as an emblem of his membership.

Phi Rho Pi

Phi Rho Pi National Fraternity, Beta Chapter, of St. Francis College was founded thirty-one years ago.

The primary aim of the Fraternity is to assist the member in his spiritual, moral, and social growth—for God, Country, and St. Francis College.

Since 1951, Mr. Edward Byrne, faculty member and head of the Biology Department, has served as Moderator.

Pledges are accepted into the Catholic brotherhood every semester after successfully completing a period of vigorous observance. At present thirty-five brothers proudly wear the Fraternity pin, a symbol of membership, membership that is life-time.

Pi Alpha

Since its founding in 1906, Pi Alpha Fraternity has become an integral part of the social life here at the College. It offers to the student that sense of brotherhood so important to a well rounded education. After graduation it becomes the source of those nostalgic feelings which come with memories—of the dances, beer parties, smokers and hazings—of “good times” at St. Francis.

Some may still be wondering what happened to Ciezlewicz after he won the basket of cheer at the annual Pi Alpha Dance. Or how Marty Donahue ever got home from the Bronx last December. George Smith saying “Now listen you guys” will remain with us for many years. How “Big” Dan Walsh ever broke a table by sitting on it will always be a puzzler.

These are only some of the incidents that we will think back upon in later years. But they take their place among those moments of laughter and friendship which go to make up Pi Alpha Fraternity.

The show must go on . . . Here at St. Francis, the Troupers, the school's dramatic society, have been giving high caliber performances since the College was founded. Last year's presentation of "Dear Ruth," under the directorship of Arthur Hanson, was certainly in accordance with the professional level of the productions of the past. It will be up to Bill O'berg, this year's president, to select a play, get together a cast, and give us another hit.

The pictures seen in this section take you behind the scenes and show you pictorially just how a production is put together.

A dramatic society is a vital part of College life. The Troupers have served proudly and nobly in carrying on a rich tradition and bringing St. Francis College to the people.

The 1953 Franciscan represents the time, talents, and work of a comparatively small staff, but a staff that never lost faith in its publication. At the very beginning we realized that there existed here at St. Francis a strong tradition of yearbooks. There was a great deal of work to be done, more than was ever anticipated, but the help was always there and the book went to press.

The art work (some of the finest to appear in a publication of this nature) was handled by John Dunn, the faculty cartooning by Gene Tkachenko, a Junior. Bob Furey, also a Junior and one of the most active men at Butler Street, served as business manager and raised the needed money for the many, many bills. Tom Firriolo, John Bals, and Tom McCarthy represented the Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes respectively. Bill Travers, Tom Pellegrino, and Ben Gould's number one son, Frank Silvestri, took care of all the sports copy. Charlie Bovè was Senior Editor and Joe Rooney was always there with his camera. Joe Caccavo and Vince "Clayton" Clemente were Co-Editors-in-Chief, but the man behind the men, the man who gave that push when it was needed, was the moderator, Brother Roger.

The '53 Franciscan is a good book, but is not unsurpassable. Our one hope is that it can serve as a challenge to future Franciscan staffs to produce better yearbooks, yearbooks that can help to enhance the reputation of our fine institution.

The Voice

Editor Quigley conferring with Assistant Editor Minion.

The aim of this year's Voice was to stimulate student support of activities, present straight news accurately, and to create a balance between humor and scholarly feature in a manner proper to a college journal.

The successful "professional look and tone" throughout the paper was achieved by Editor Edward Quigley. His editorial policy uncovered many poignant items as he ripped the fancy covers from the various intercollegiate organizations and exposed them for judgment. His insight into the position of secular education as opposed to parochial brought home the value of our educational system.

Bernie Veney cracked the whip in his capacity of News Editor. He assigned the stories, helped with the proofreading and layout. If ever there were a place when the term 'indispensable' can be applied, Bernie stands first on line.

The feature work was capably directed by Tony Puglisi. Tony arranged that the 'Viewpoint' represent the various major fields here at the College. His music column and the ever popular 'Digit' were equally successful.

The sports department, under the direction of Tom Pellegrino and Bob Chambers, worked hard to bring renewed interest in the intramural program, as well as report the successes and occasional failures of our teams in intercollegiate competition. The "Terrier Growls" gave the student insight into the sport situation in other colleges, as Tom Pellegrino, with his numerous contacts, scooped the scoops.

Assistant Editor Bob Minion is deserving of many laurels. He worked exceedingly hard to integrate all the departments, soothe the editor, and dispel the many fears of our Moderator, Mr. Anthony Mottola.

Tom Vroman was very successful as Business Manager. Besides balancing the books and securing the ads, he also contributed his time and talents to the News Staff. Pat Esemplare arranged a workable 'morgue' and 'cut' file while he also sent the editions to the other colleges.

News Staff: Joseph D'Addario, John DeRiso, Thomas McCarthy, Ray Cellure, Guy Brooks, Dom Firriola, Robert Rethore.

Sports Staff: Dan Walsh, Bob Gabelnam, George Searing, Joe Lategano, Ray Boehm.

Feature Staff: Vince Clemente, John McDermott, Christopher O'Toole, Peter Imperatore, Arthur Maddaloni, Al Abbate.

Copy: Peter Ferrara; Art by Dunn; Photos: Mikkelson, Caccavo, Boyle.

It was these men who combined their efforts in news, sports, feature, art and photography that enabled the Voice to continue the traditions first established in 1936.

Intramurals

This year initiated a vast program of intramural sports unequalled in the history of St. Francis College. Under the excellent supervision of Brother Roger, Director of Athletics, the improved schedule was put into effect on October 10.

By scoring nineteen points the freshman harriers almost obtained an upset in the annual track and field events. The I. R. C., doing its usual best, scored twenty-one points and won the meet. Pi Alpha was third with eighteen. Vern Stokes was big man in the I. R. C. attack, scoring ten points. He won the broad jump, sailing 19 feet, with McMurrer and Crofton right behind him. He also won the 880 yard run in 2 min. 32 seconds. Charles Bachi of the I. R. C. galloped to a 11.1 second finish in the 100 yard dash. Don Jones was leader for the Frosh, scoring five points in the 440 yard run and runing anchor man in the relay to blaze home in victory.

The I. R. C. came through again and captured the swimming laurels at the K. of C. pool on October 25. Paced by Vern Stokes, Jack Prenderville and Jerry Baxter they romped over the Frosh and Phi Rho Pi teams. Stokes did 21.9 seconds in the 50 yard freestyle event and Jerry Baxter won the 50 yard backstroke in 30 seconds. The Frosh captured the breaststroke with Norman Oakes first in 31.2 seconds. Dave Campbell was only one second behind Ed Weis to finish third. The medley relay was won by the I. R. C. in 1.25. The winning I. R. C. rolled up 20 points to gain an easy victory over their outclassed opponents.

At the halfway mark, the Franciscans held down seventh place in the fifteen team circuit. From this squad, Wengler and Paul "Splits" Krupa will graduate and Bill Travers will leave for military service.

Returning for next season will be two yearlings and one soph. Of the three, Ray "Sperando" Boehm is the best prospect and may blossom into one of the best in the league. Harry McLeer possesses the best strike ball on the team. Joe McGloin, intramural champ, rounds out the squad. With this trio and some fair replacements, the Terriers should do well in the future.

St. Francis Romps Over Pace Cagers

It looked like the entire Pace Institute student body turned out last night to watch its basketball team perform against St. Francis in the Terriers' cozy gym. Armed by a powerful rooting section, led by seven coed jitterbugs, the Setters whooped it up, even in defeat, as St. Francis romped to an easy triumph, 68-53.

This was the "big game" for the Setters and they certainly gave it the old college try. Their cagers, unable to cope with the superior Franciscan height, hustled from start to finish.

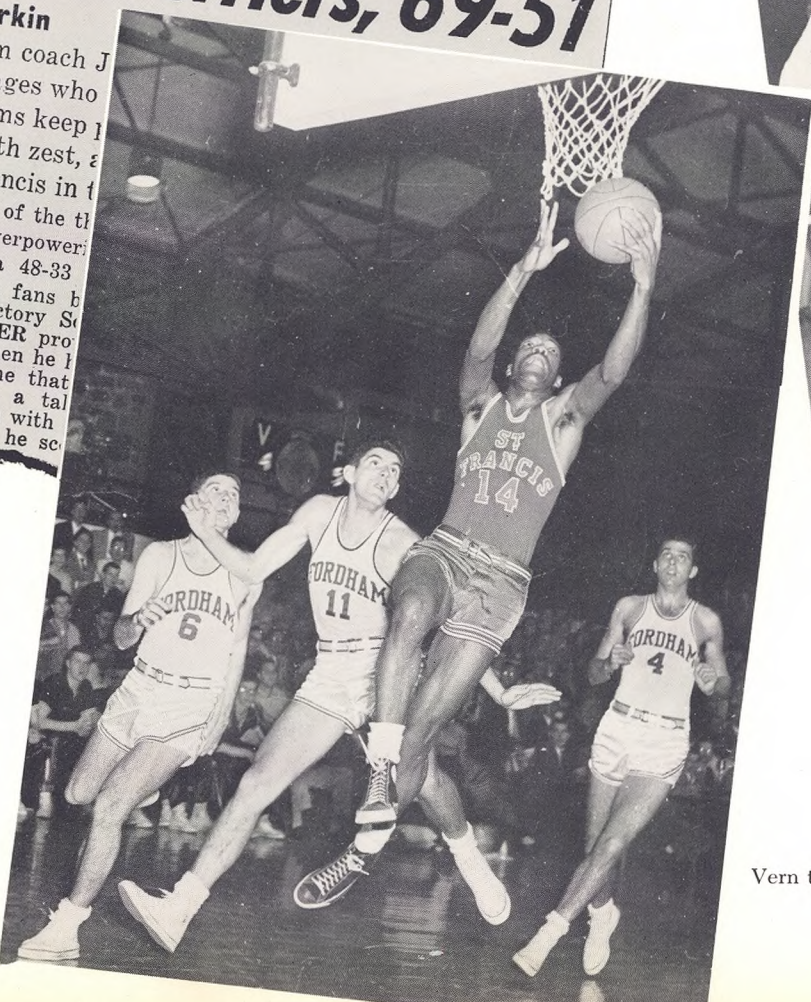

Pace entered the game under a handicap since their leading scorer, Iggy Dubinsson, had been declared ineligible for the afternoon.

Conlin Sinks 24 as Rams Trample Terriers, 69-51

Fordham coach J. J. Conlin, with court sages whooping and his rapid Rams keep in opposition with zest, routs St. Francis in the first half.

By the middle of the first half, when the overpowered Setters had romped to a 48-33 lead, the 2,000 zealous fans bawled for the "Fordham Victory Show." BACH FURTHER prophesied a false prophet when he predicted before the game that St. Francis was vulnerable to a tall, lanky player who came in with a name like Schmidt but he scored 24.

Strong Bench Saves Day for St. Francis Five

By BEN GOULD

That strong bench belonging to St. Francis College helped pull a tough game out of the fire for the Terriers last night in the 2d Corps Armory.

George Searing, blond-haired outside shooter, and Elliott Press, speedy driver, were the reserves who came off the side-

St. Francis 85 Adelphi 64

Led by "Lanky Hank" Daubenschmidt, the tall Terriers proved too much for the Garden City five. Playing without their high scorer, Grant, the Panthers were no match for the fast breaking Franciscans from Brooklyn. Daubenschmidt led the attack with 24 points, both Walsh and Denticio hit for 21, while Connelly was high with 22 for Adelphi.

ponent, John Wallisa, collected 19 to pace the leaders.

Terrier foul shooting left much to be desired. They missed the amazing total of 23 in 45 attempts. In contrast, Memphis State recorded 25 while flubbing only five.
