In the lives of the early Fathers, where there is much goodly matter, we are told this tale.

A certain minstrel came and went for so long in divers places that at last, weary of the world, he withdrew into a holy order. Now, though the youth was of much worship and fair and well-made and goodly, he yet knew no craft of which the folk there stood in any need. For he had lived only by juggling and leaping and dancing for no other lesson had he ever learned; nor knew he either Pater Noster or chant or Credo.

"Alas," said he, "shall I serve neither by word nor by deed? By the Mother of God, I will serve by my own trade; the others serve by singing and praying and I will serve by juggling."

Therefore turning to the statue of the Lady, he laid aside his habit and donned the motley. Then he began to leap and to spring; to dance and to juggle. And then he went down on his knees before the image and bowed before it saying: "Most Sweet Queen, of your grace and of your mercy, despise not my service. Farewell, most Sweet Friend, I will serve you the best I can."

And he continued long in this way of life, returning again and again to offer his service and his homage.

But at length he was thrown into much trouble. For a monk took note of him and blamed him much in his heart in that he came not to matins. He went to the abbot and told the whole story as you have heard it and the abbot arose and said to the monk: "We shall follow this brother and see what he does." Then they went to the crypt and hid themselves in a nook in such wise that the juggler saw them not. And the abbot and the monk watched all his divers tricks and his leaping and dancing.

So worn and spent was he that the sweat ran out of his body down upon the floor of the crypt. But presently and in a little space his Most Sweet Lady came to succor him.

And the abbot watched and straightway saw the Lady come down to him from the vault and tenderly she wiped his forehead with her mantle and most gently she placed the Child in his arms.

And many years later the juggler fell grievously ill and at his deathbed those who were there saw a wondrous miracle. For even as the soul left the body and before it had time to fall, it was received by the Mother of God.

The holy Fathers tell us that thus it befell this minstrel. And now, let us pray to God, Who is above all, that He grant us to serve Him so well that we may deserve His love.

DEDICATION

We dedicate our Yearbook, the record of our Collegiate years, to Mary, our Mother. Humble though the offering be, we say with the Juggler: "Most Sweet Queen, of your grace and of your mercy, despise not our service."

The background of the cover features a series of concentric, slightly offset pentagonal shapes in shades of gray and black, creating a sense of depth and movement. In the lower right corner, a hand is visible, with the index finger pointing towards the center of the design.

JUNIOR CLASS

Three years have passed and the class of 1955 is entering its final stage before the great exodus. The year 1954, however, will go down in the college history as a most active one for the Junior class.

Leo Keegan, Elliot Press, Frank Dentico and Jack Fitzgerald were mainstays on the best Varsity five the College has produced since the sport was initiated. Pat Esemplare, Leo Keegan, James Driscoll and Dan Walsh were elected to the Duns Scotus Honor Society. The Business Club, under the direction of Joe McGloin, had a prosperous first year. The Voice staff was well stocked with members of the Junior class—John DeRiso did a creditable job as News Editor; Dan Walsh covered the Sport's scene with a professional touch.

For the Juniors only one year lies ahead, but 1954 will remain in our memories as a most enjoyable and prosperous experience.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

With the close of the academic year of 1953-1954 we, the sophomore class, have completed two years of our stay at St. Francis College. Since our first year indoctrination, we have branched out in our chosen fields. Some of us have chosen Science although a majority of us found our main interest in the Arts and Business Administration.

We have found that the sophomore year demanded more study and in the same proportion, more social activity. We have been well represented in the numerous educational and social functions at the College. Our classmen are members of the Student Council, International Relations Club, Humanities Club, Troupers, and the newly formed Business Club. We also had an editorial hand in the publication of the VOICE and FRANCISCAN. Pi Alpha and Phi Rho Pi fraternities offered social advantages to the group chosen as "dogs" last year.

We also had the good fortune to have several members of the class make the varsity squads in both basketball and baseball. As in past years the sophomore class was behind each activity that took place in the school.

FRESHMAN CLASS

During the first few weeks of the school year the Freshman Class underwent a program of orientation. In addition to becoming acquainted with the location of classrooms, library, labs, Terrier Hall, and the Chapel, we were introduced to our instructors and made familiar with the traditions at St. Francis.

The friendly rivalry with our big brothers, the Sophs, culminated in the traditional hazing ceremonies. Meanwhile, we Freshmen became aware of the formation of new friendships within our group. As students from many high schools in the Metropolitan area, or as ex-service men, we soon learned that we were expected to develop a spirit of loyalty and devotion to Alma Mater.

In addition to winning the Intramural Track Meet, the Freshman Class showed early aptitude for Franciscan Spirit by active participation in all the college functions.

The following class officers were elected shortly after the opening of the school year: President, John Whiffen; Vice President, Theodore Cooke; Secretary, John Dunleavy; Treasurer, George Kehm.

Activities

Student Council

"To act as a coordinating agency, to foster a closer relationship between faculty and students in the sense that such is necessary, to regulate and supervise such activities as are placed within its scope and to foster student action in the best interest and ideals of the College . . ."

PREAMBLE

Operating within this framework, the Student Council has labored with varying degrees of success; in some aspects the results have been gratifying; in others, negligible.

The Armory schedule was the toughest and largest any "Terrier" team has had to encounter; in line with this, the Student Council instituted a class and club "sponsorship" program resulting in the best armory financial success in our Basketball history.

It was a year that saw the institution of a Senior lounge and recreation room; in making up the social calendar the Council supervised a "Franciscan Dance" for the financial benefit of the Yearbook; further, it conducted a highly successful Japanese War Relief drive.

The crowning achievement of this year's Council was the establishment of a scholarship fund to aid deserving students in attaining a Franciscan education. In furtherance of this theme, a Student Counseling Service was also administered, aiding those underclassmen who found difficulty in adjusting to particular courses in the curriculum.

In all, the Student Council has faithfully represented the student body and made known its wishes to the Administration; and the results of our sharing of trust have been evident. We are genuinely indebted to our Moderator, to the College Administration and the Faculty for their interest and concern and especially to those students who contributed their active support. Whatever small degree of success we have achieved is due, in no small part, to them. It is our fervent hope that such support will increase in volume and intensity, thus assuring the next Council a greater degree of success.

Duns Scotus

The Duns Scotus Honor Society was established at the college in 1935 with a two-fold aim. The first aim is the encouragement, among the students, of a love and desire for excellence in scholarship and service to all the undergraduate activities of the college. The second aim is to give honor and recognition to those worthy students, who have won the esteem of their fellow-students, the members of the faculty, and the administration.

A student is eligible to seek membership only after completion of his sophomore year. Membership does not cease with graduation, Alumni or other distinguished persons, who have rendered outstanding service to the college, may be elected as honorary members.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club under the guidance of our moderator, Rev. Brother Finbarr, consists of History, Sociology and Economics majors. The varied activities of the club are religious, social intellectual and athletic. Each year, the I.R.C. sponsors a Communion Breakfast, a dance, and forums on contemporary events and the role of the Church in our socio-economic world. The members of this club are found engaged in all phases of extra-curricular life in and around the College. It has been our policy to promote the pre-eminence of St. Francis College by our interest in civil and national affairs and by participating fully in collegiate life.

ALPHA

In the year 1906 two important events occurred on the American scene, Theodore 'Teddy' Roosevelt received the Nobel Peace Prize, and Pi Alpha Fraternity of St. Francis College was formed.

In that year, Father Owen J. Smith and eight students formed Pi Alpha. Since then, it has gained a reputation for loyalty and friendship, has become the traditional mainstay of college spirit and the bulwark of Franciscanism.

Some anonymous historian once wrote, concerning his frat brothers "... the Pi Alpha man is a good student, a faithful Catholic, and 'one of the boys,' ... he drinks beer, goes out with working girls, spends his days in class, his nights out, and his money on weekends ... he is proud of his fraternity and prouder of St. Francis College."

Metaphysical basis for fraternal existence.

A drink from the wishing well???

Phi Rho Pi

At the invitation of the Alpha Chapter of Phi Rho Pi at Manhattan College, a group of St. Francis College men pledged themselves to this society and received the charter for its Beta Chapter.

Immediately after its inception, Phi Rho Pi began to stimulate school spirit and social activity at Saint Francis College. Within a year the frat had begun a newspaper which was intended to be strictly fraternal; but then perceiving the demand for a student newspaper, it relinquished title to The Voice, and turned it over to the student body in general.

In the selection of their members the men of Phi Rho Pi have looked for qualities of fellowship, sportsmanship, and cooperation in a candidate rather than high scholastic rating or athletic prowess; but Phi Rho Pi is proud of the fact that it numbers among its members many outstanding scholars and athletes.

Humanities Club

In September, 1952, the Humanities Club was founded for the purpose of "developing and stimulating an appreciation and evaluation of the literary and cultural contributions of the civilized nations of the world."

The club offered the individual student the opportunity to develop, through informal gatherings at the College and visits to the cinema, opera and museums of the city, his knowledge of the arts and sciences which have engrossed and inspired the lives of men.

The activities of the Club are designed to meet the tastes of all the members. Last year's program included lectures on French and Grecian Architecture, Modern Art, Spanish Painting, and Shakespearean England, each presentation being illustrated by excellent color slides.

In a somewhat lighter vein was the French-German-Italian musical soiree, which featured group singing of the national folk songs. The Humanities Club is currently offering a program which promises its members even more in the way of enlightenment and entertainment.

Business Club

The past year saw the organization of a new club to foster the interest and aims of students enrolled in the School of Business Administration. Owing to the enthusiasm of Mr. Riley, the club moderator, and several conscientious students, the club enjoyed an active year. Visits by influential business men and government agents provided a needed supplement to classroom activity.

Joe McGloin, who worked diligently with the Army-bound Gene Alphonsin to found the club, was elected president, Bob Burns, secretary; Dan Walsh, treasurer; Leo Keegan, Student Council representative; and newcomer Ralph Infantino, historian. The members of themselves initiated a sound policy and tradition which will be the basis for the continual prosperity of the club.

Mendel Club

The Mendel Club, the oldest extra-curricular organization of the college, has as its primary aim the stimulation of interest in the biological field. By its program of lectures, tours, and demonstrations, the club hopes to inspire biology majors with a constructive interest in the field. We feel that the club can render the best service to its members by encouraging the formation of contracts with industry and familiarizing them with the practical methods of prominent organizations.

Indicator Club

The Indicator Club consists of all science majors in the field of Chemistry. The club has participated in field trips to local chemical plants where lecture room matter became industrial reality. Aside from the field trips, the Indicator Club holds bi-monthly meetings during which a lecture is given or a documentary film shown. The Club is a member of the National American Chemical Society.

The Third Order

The Third Order is a laymen's order founded by St. Francis of Assisi in order that people in the world may lead a more spiritual life. The members do not take vows, but participate in the numerous graces and benefits accorded by the Church to the Franciscans.

Vocation Club

The Vocation Club at St. Francis College has a two-fold function: one, to serve as a medium of religious activities for the members; and two, to supervise all religious activities of the college with the approval of the Spiritual Director.

National Students Association

The National Students Association is composed of delegates from over 250 colleges throughout the nation. Working through campus committees, regional assemblies and commissions, the organization provides an authoritative voice for responsible student opinion. It offers services in social, economic and cultural endeavors as well as educational opportunities and international study programs.

National Federation of Catholic College Students

The Troupers

After a one year lapse, The Troupers, the oldest organization at the college returned in fine style with a humorous presentation of "Good Housekeeping" under the direction of Henry Magliato. The play was written by William McCleary.

Pulled together by Moderator Brother Celestine and President Anthony Puglisi, and with the aid of several personable young ladies from various colleges, this year's production was one of the finest in the long line of plays presented by the College.

NINE NAMED TO WHO'S WHO

The Voice, the official Student Newspaper of St. Francis College since 1936, continued in its tradition of stimulating student activities, presenting straight news accurately, and creating a balance between humor and scholarly feature in a manner proper to a Catholic college journal.

For the second straight year, The Voice was edited by Edward Quigley who restored the paper to a bi-weekly basis. Associate Editor Bernard Veney, besides contributing many controversial and timely columns, gathered the flock of reporters and in general assured and reassured the editor that "It's allright Ed, take it easy!"

In Thomas McCarthy and John DeRiso, Managing Editor and News Editor respectively, The Voice had two excellent men. Tom worked exceedingly hard to integrate all departments and handled the newer staff members. John cracked a professional whip that would do justice to the best "City-Editor" fashion. Both were invaluable assistants.

The Feature Department, was again under the capable supervision of Anthony Puglisi. Tony provided columns brimming with satire, humor and insight. The Sports Department, headed by peppy Dan Walsh gave professional coverage to the successes and occasional failures of the various St. Francis intercollegiate teams, as well as to the intramural program.

Pat Esemplare was very successful as Business Manager, keeping the liabilities and assets well balanced.

ALUMNI

The Terriers opened the season with a convincing 60-55 victory over the Alumni. Minus big Hank Daubenschmidt, they fast-broke the ex-stars to win going away. Jim Murphy was high man for St. Francis with 11 points. Marty Donohue dunked 20 markers for the Alumni.

FORT MONMOUTH

Hank Daubenschmidt led the way with 18 big points to dump the soldiers from Fort Monmouth, 83-60. With an assortment of hooks, tap-ins and push shots he came into his own as top Terrier point getter. Leo Keegan hit for 14 points to take second honors.

EQUITABLE LIFE

Being pressed hard for three periods, the Terriers finally dumped the Assurance men from Equitable Life, 68-57. Hank again took scoring honors, netting 21 points. Dan Smith was runner up with 19. Mark Solomon was high for Equitable with 15 markers.

PACE

The Terriers rolled over a small Pace College club by the score of 81-61. Hank Daubenschmidt again proved the difference as he added 22 points to his climbing point total. Frank Dentico hit for 12 points. Bob Crowley scored 13 for the Setters.

LOYOLA (BALTIMORE)

The Red and Blue opened the Armory slate with a dazzling shooting display to defeat our southern neighbors 74-58. Daubenschmidt, Walsh, Smith and Dentico all reached double figures as the tight Terrier defense and potent offense proved too much for the Greyhounds from Loyola.

Mt. ST. MARY

The Mounties of Mt. St. Mary rode into the Armory and were promptly unhorsed by the score of 74-54. Big Hank again led the attack with 17 points. Smith, Adamushko and Murphy hit the double figures. John Sullivan was the only man to reach double figures for the Mounties with 17.

PROVIDENCE GAME

Hank Daubenschmidt poured in 38 points as the Terriers overcame the Friars of Providence College of Rhode Island, 85-63. Hank hit for 13 field goals and 12 fouls to better the mark set by Vern Stokes last year against Brooklyn College. Bob Moran scored 19 points to lead the Friar's losing cause.

WESTERN KENTUCKY

The Terriers returned to the Garden after a five year absence and lost to the Hilltoppers of Western Kentucky. The top ranking southerners led throughout and had an easy time piling up a lead over the jittery Red and Blue. the final score was 78-55. Jim Murphy replaced Hank Daubenschmidt in the pivot and scored 8 points to lead a 28 point fourth period by the Terriers. Tom Marshall dunked 22 points for the Hilltoppers.

SETON HALL

The Terriers went down to their second defeat as they failed to lose the Garden jitters against the Jersey Pirates. They led 15-14 at the initial buzzer but failed to hold the lead at the half, trailing 34-24. The final score was 86-65. Hank Daubenschmidt led the Terriers with 21 points. Harry Brooks hit for 31 points to carry Seton Hall to the victory.

ALL-AMERICAN CITY TOURNAMENT OWENSBORO, KENTUCKY

The Terriers travelled to the Southlands to capture third place in the All-American Tournament held at Owensboro. In first round competition they defeated South Carolina, 58-55. Hank Daubenschmidt and Jim Murphy led the Terriers in scoring with 16 and 13 points, respectively. In the semi-finals they lost a thriller to the host club, Kentucky Wesleyan, 71-69. Hank again took scoring honors with 22 points. In the consolation game the Terriers defeated Evansville of Indiana, 84-67 to take third place. Jim Murphy poured in 26 points to pace the Red and Blue attack. Elliot Press had 18.

FORDHAM

In one of the biggest upsets in recent years the Terriers nipped a surprised Fordham team, 53-49. Jack Walsh played a great game and limited Ed Conlin to 14 points. Hank Daubenschmidt led the Terrier attack with 20 points. Conlin was high for the Rams. Frank Dentico enabled the Terriers to hold their lead as he successfully froze the ball in the final three minutes. This was the Red and Blue's 11th win against 3 defeats. Hank proved he was one of the top players in the East as he played a great game at center for St. Francis.

PANZER

After the surprise win over Fordham, the Terriers ran over a small but fighting Panzer team, 89-76. They led at the half 51-31. The Panthers, however, with Jack McDonough netting 27 points, close in the final period. Daubenschmidt, Frank Dentico, and Elliot Press hit for 13 points each.

ST. PETER'S

The Terriers copped their fourth game in a row, as they topped St. Peter's College, 85-66. The zone used by the Peacocks cooled the Terriers in the second period, but flashy Frank Dentico finally broke the Jersey Jam with timely passes. Hank Daubenschmidt had his usual good evening as he hit for 27 points to lead the Terriers to number 13.

VILLANOVA

The Terriers traveled to the not-so city of Brotherly Love and defeated a scrappy Wildcat crew, 72-62. The Red and Blue trailed throughout the game, 14-10, 37-34 and 54-49. Then the Terriers, with Dan Mannix leading the way, passed the Mainliners with Frank Dentico hitting for 22 points. Hank Daubenschmidt was second highest for St. Francis with 19 points. Bob Schafer was high man in the game with 25 markers.

GEORGETOWN

The Hoyas of Georgetown, rated one of the tops in the nation, flat before the Terrier on-slaught, 77-52. Led by Hank Daubenschmidt, who scored 30 big points, the Terriers showed the Washington five how to use the fast break. Hank, playing a little more than three quarters, hit on a variety of jumps, hooks and one-handers. The Hoyas couldn't solve the Terrier attack and made an easy target for the shot-hot Red and Blue.

ST. JOHN'S

The Terriers, taking a big step on the road to an NIT bid, defeated arch rival St. John's in DeGray gym. The Terriers opened up with a quick basket and were never headed. They led 30-26 at the half and 41-35 and the end of three quarters. Then the Red and Blue opened up, led by trophy-winner Elliot Press, as they ran up 10 fast points, winning 67-48. Hank Daubenschmidt took scoring honors with 19 points, followed by Dentico, 14, and hero Press, 13.

SIENA

In one of their toughest games of the year, St. Francis edged the Siena Indians, 51-47. The Terriers were hard pressed throughout the game as they suffered a let down after the St. John's battle. Hank Daubenschmidt led the Red and Blue with 14 markers. It was the Terriers 15th win in 18 games to date. Jack Walsh took runner-up honors with 11 as Leo Keegan dumped 10 points.

ADELPHI

The Terriers had an easy time defeating Adelphi for their ninth straight win of the campaign at the Armory. Hank Daubenschmidt led the Terriers with 24 points and Don Payne registered 22 for Adelphi. The Red and Blue led 58-28 early in the third period but 15 points by Adelphi put the Garden City five back in the game. Some steady plugging by Walsh, Daubenschmidt and Murphy iced it for St. Francis. The final score was 70-59 as NIT fever took another leap upward.

TEMPLE

St. Francis continued to roll by defeating a strong Temple team, 71-62, at the Armory. Big Hank was again high scorer as he led the Terriers with 26 points. At the half the Red and Blue had a 34-29 lead but Temple narrowed the gap to 4 points in the third quarter. At this point Frank Dentico reinjured his knee and left the contest on a stretcher. Jim Murphy came off the bench and threw in 9 points to assure the Terrier's 10th straight. Jack Walsh tallied 10 points for St. Francis.

QUEENS

Still seeking a bid to the NIT, the Terriers rolled over Queens College, 75-54. Hank Daubenschmidt, by scoring 18 points, became the third man in Terrier court history to score 1000 points in a season. The Queens five took the lead in the initial period but the Red and Blue started to click in the second period and led 34-25 at halftime.

CITY COLLEGE

St. Francis, out to prove its merit to the post-season selection committee, did just that as they trounced City College, 71-51. It was the Terriers 12th straight win of the campaign. Soph Jim Murphy stole the show as he led the Terriers with 18 points. Hank Daubenschmidt was high man for the Red and Blue as he registered 20 points. Merv Schorr led the Beavers with 16 markers. Murphy turned in an amazing performance and helped stop Domershick, the Beaver's only hope.

BROOKLYN

NIT bound St. Francis had an easy time with the Kingsmen as they scored at will to win, 82-49.
Jim Murphy paved the way with 17 points as big Hank failed to hit in the pivot. After a slow first half, which saw St. Francis lead 27-23, the game started to move at a torrid pace.

IONA

St. Francis returned to the Garden and defeated highly rated Iona of New Rochelle, 69-61. Dan Mannix was the main reason the Terriers pulled it out as he stopped Richie Guerin with 2 baskets in the second half. Hank Dauben-schmidt hit 25 points as he scored almost at will. The terriers held a 21-19 lead at the first buzzer and moved ahead, 39-34 at the half.

MANHATTAN

The Terriers won their first Subway Conference title in history as they defeated a scrappy Manhattan club at the Armory, 84-72. The Jaspers hung close for three periods as Gerry Cahill led the way with 23 markers. The Terriers just did tie it up at the end of three, 57-57.
Then Murphy, Mannix, Walsh, Press and Dauby finally solved the Jasper defense and threw in 27 points to stop the dazed Manhattan team. Mannix played the best game of his short career as he scored 16 points and stopped the hard running Cahill.

SIENA

With more than half the college making the trip to Albany, the Terriers disappointed by losing to Siena, 67-60. They pulled ahead by 11 points at one time in the second quarter but the Indians kept plugging away and trailed by only two, 32-30, at halftime. Then Siena took charge and the Terriers never again saw daylight. Hank Daubenschmidt led the way for the losers with a big 22 points. Tim Hill of Yonkers led the Indian scoring with 24 markers. Frank Dentico and Hank Daubenschmidt were selected by the New York scribes to represent St. Francis on the All-Met five.

National Invitation Tournament

After a month of constant editorial pounding, the scrappy Terriers finally received a long awaited bid to the NIT. It was the first time St. Francis had entered the post season Garden tourney. Finishing the regular schedule with a 23-4 over-all record, the Red and Blue were confident they could hold their own against the top fives in the country.

The opening round paired the Terriers against Louisville, a fast quintet from the deep south. Entering the game, St. Francis was given little or no chance to upset the high scoring Colonels. To the surprise of 15,000 roaring fans, the Terriers calmly ousted Louisville, 60-55. Behind the scoring and rebounding of All-Met Hank Daubenschmidt, The Terriers took the lead early in the second period and were never headed, although the southerners tied the count several times. Hank paved the way with 26 points and 19 rebounds. Jim Murphy and Elliot Press threw in 14 and 13 points respectively, for the victorious Red and Blue.

In the quarter-finals, the Terriers couldn't move the ball or stop the Crusaders offense as they fell before Holy Cross, 93-69. Hank Daubenschmidt only scored 13 points from the pivot as Togo Palazzi with 25 markers proved too much for the tired Terriers.

The fine showing in the tourney and the over-all season record are lasting memories of the best Terrier basketball team in the history of St. Francis.

Daubenschmidt Bags 26 Points In NIT Bombshell

By BEN GOULD

The team the public believed wasn't wanted, St. Francis, of Brooklyn, gave the National Invitation Tournament an upsetting start with a very surprising 60-55 over Louisville in the first game of last night's triple-header before 16,259 at the Garden. Immediately afterward, Manhattan led Dayton for most of three periods, eventually lost out by a 90-70 score when a seemingly good break developed in the fourth.

*Denotes Knickerbocker Intercollegiate Baseball Conference game

BASEBALL

For the second straight year, the Terrier Baseball squad entered the new Knickerbocker Baseball Conference. The nucleus of the squad was comprised of hard-hitting centerfielder Gerry Lenze, and his dependable brother Jack on the first base sack. Pitching was dependent on Tom Loughery, a sophomore who proved his metal as a varsity man last year, and on veteran Jack Lenze.

Many underclassmen reported to tryouts and the prospects were for a 'green' team with pitching, as usual, the questionable factor.

Two sophs, Ralph D'Amato and Tom Powers, were also on the starting team occupying the left field and catching posts respectively.

Out at the plate.

Loughery sure gets around.

Tom Powers, sophomore catching star, awaits the delivery.

1953 saw the green keglers of St. Francis, led by veteran captain Ray Boehm, meet some stiff competition in collegiate circles. Manned mainly by Freshmen and Sophomores, they gave a good account of themselves. Next year, with the added experience, Ray and his charges should do all right as Terrier keglers.

INTRAMURALS

The biggest intramural program in many a year saw the IRC dumped from the unbeaten ranks as the Freshman and Business Club entries captured the laurels. The Frosh won the annual track meet at Red Hook Stadium with Pi Alpha Fraternity a close second. The new entry, the Business Club, took first and second honors in Boxball and first place in the Volleyball tournament, beating out Pi Alpha in a thriller, 21-19.
