Bridges are both beautiful and magnificent sights. Their architectural form allows for varying degrees of grace and of style. But bridges, as much as they have become works of art, are first and foremost purposeful instruments. Bridges help us to reach destination that would otherwise be difficult or impossible. Although we picture bridges to have certain forms, shapes, or characteristics we must not overlook the symbolic significance they can provide.

Here at S.F.C. the education one strives for will be the personal bridge one builds in order to achieve their goals and future. It is also this bridge what will help cross those obstacles that all of us have to meet. It is this reason, besides the beauty and strength somewhat traditional in scope, that the 1982 Franciscan has chosen the bridge as its symbolic theme. Hopefully the years spent and the people met here at Saint Francis will give each of our own bridges the sturdy foundations it needs.

We, the Franciscan staff, want you to enjoy this year's book and hope that someday it will serve as a bridge to the time spent here in college.

Good Luck and Enjoy.

SENIORS

Before one turns around the years spent in college seems to have already past by. It is at this point where a senior sits down and ponders over what he has done. Did I do all I wanted, did I accomplish my goals and what I set out to achieve. Thinking back on these things can make us anxious, sometimes confused. Being a senior can so many times be hard. But when one looks back those hard times seem worthwhile. Now we begin with a fresh start, a chance to make all the futures we strive for possible. Hopefully we will use the experiences of our past here at St. Francis with others, and with what we have learned to make all these hopes our realities.

To reach senior year and then to complete it gives a great feeling of accomplishment. Many have good reason to be proud of their achievement. Too many times we allow ourselves to make little of the good things we do and concentrate on those we don't perform well. But for now those of us who are graduating have completed the hard work of building our own bridges. Yet for all this work, the greatest tests lie ahead. But it is exactly this challenge which we feel will be the inspiration for us all. Good Luck Class of '82.

BROOKLYN BRIDGE

How many dawns, chill from his rippling rest
The seagull's wings shall dip and pivot him,
Shedding white rings of tumult, building high
Over the chained bay waters Liberty ---

Then, with inviolate curve, forsake our eyes
As apparitional as sails that cross
Some page of figures to be filed away;
--- Till elevators drop us from our day ...

I think of cinemas, panoramic sleights
With multitudes bent toward some flashing scene
Never disclosed, but hastened to again,
Foretold to other eyes on the same screen;

And Thee, across the harbor, silver-paced
As though the sun took step of thee, yet left
Some motion ever unspent in thy stride, ---
Implicitly thy freedom staying thee!

Out of some subway scuttle, cell or loft
A bedlamite speeds to thy parapets,
Tilting there momentarily, shrill shirt ballooning,
A jest from the speechless caravan.

Down Wall, from girder into street noon leaks,
A rip-tooth of the sky's acetylene;
All afternoon the cloud-flown derricks turn ...
Thy cables breathe the North Atlantic still.

And obscure as that heaven of the Jews,
Thy guerdon ... Accolade thou dost bestow
Of anonymity time cannot raise:
Vibrant reprieve and pardon thou dost show.

O harp and alter, of the fury fused,
(How could mere toil align thy choiring strings!)
Terrific threshold of the prophet's pledge,
Prayer of pariah, and the lover's cry, ---

Again the traffic lights that skim thy swift
Unfractioned idiom, immaculate sigh of stars,
Beading thy path --- condense eternity:
And we have seen night lifted in thine arms.

Under thy shadow by the piers I waited:
Only in darkness is thy shadow clear.
The City's fiery parcels all undone,
Already snow submerges an iron year ...

O Sleepless as the river under thee,
Vaulting the sea, the prairies' dreaming sod,
Unto us lowliest sometime sweep, descend
And of the curvship lend a myth to God.

HART CRANE-1929

A large, intricate, black decorative flourish or scrollwork design. It features multiple overlapping loops and elegant curves, framing the year '1982' in the center. The design is symmetrical and has a classic, ornate feel.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA is a national drama honor fraternity founded in 1925 at Fairmont State University, West Virginia, by seven members of the local drama society. In 1964, Brother Lawrence Drowne, O.S.F., moderator of the Troupers Drama Society, founded the Pi Zeta Cast of Alpha Psi Omega at SFC. The Fraternity is open to people who have worked in some way on at least two collegiate drama productions, must be invited by the Fraternity, and pass a vote of the active members of the local Cast of the Fraternity. If the candidate is accepted, he must undergo a secret ceremonial of Initiation, which tests the candidate on the various aspects of dramatic activity.

Alpha Psi Omega Fraternity's members contain the finest and most talented members of the Troupers Drama Society, along with members of the faculty involved in the fine art of drama. To bear the Pin and Key of Alpha Psi Omega is an honor shared by the 65,000 members of the Fraternity in the almost 500 Casts throughout the colleges of the U.S.A.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government of St. Francis College is an organization of many dedicated students whose main task is to coordinate the student body of the college. This does not only concern the students in relation to the college, but also their relation to the surrounding communities. One of the main purposes of the Student Government is to act as a sounding board for any desires-interests the students might express. Along with the responsibility of hearing the needs of the student body, the Student Government of St. Francis College is trying to make a better St. Francis to all concerned. Their services are for the benefit of the students as individuals and as part of the college.

The elections for the Student Government positions occur every Spring semester of every academic year. These elections are very important because the people elected play a very important role at the college as student representatives. They are elected by a majority of the student body; and for that reason they are expected to act as the legitimate representatives of the student body and are to act in the best interests of the students.

Troupers

The St. Francis College TROUPERS DRAMA SOCIETY was officially organized in 1925. The Troupers developed from a local drama club, the St. Francis Literary Union, which had been formed in the late 1800's at S.F.C.. The Troupers have performed in a variety of dramatic productions, most recently: The Good Doctor, California Suite, The Skin of Our Teeth, The Real Inspector Hound, Four-in-One, the Bawdy Adventures of Scapin, and Arsenic and Old Lace.

The Troupers membership includes a tremendous cross-section of the student body, with members in all fraternities, sororities, and clubs on campus, and participate or attend as many activities at school as possible. A very close-knit group. The Troupers learn and practice many branches of theatrical activity, from stage craft like carpentry, set construction, electrical work, to make-up techniques, lighting effects, sound effects, and so on. Producing one full-length play each semester, with trained, fully-qualified professional director, and one production consisting of four one-act plays each directed by a Trouper in their senior year at the start of the Spring semester, rehearsed over the intersession vacation.

The FRANCISCAN is one of the oldest continuing clubs at St. Francis College. The Franciscan staff produces the schools annual yearbook which is delivered at the end of every spring semester. The main purpose of the yearbook is in its service to the student body with an emphasis on the Seniors. The yearbook is a pictorial and literary essay providing an opportunity for students to reminisce their years at S.F.C. In addition to producing the yearbook, the staff provides a multitude of services to other parts of the school. These services include reference work and photography among others.

The VOICE, the student press of St. Francis College was founded in 1885 (then known as the Spectator) and continued publication as such until 1934. In 1934 after a brief suspension of publication the student press returned---it was now called the VOICE. The VOICE has continued publishing successfully since then. In 1963 the VOICE created an active Editorial Board format which has served since then as the governing body of the Voice. The Voice is the students mouthpiece to air and be known of school problems, and that is the purpose of our student press. Founded in 1885, The Voice is the oldest organization on campus---this year we celebrate the 96th anniversary of our founding.

BLACK STUDENT ASSOCIATION FASHION SHOW SPRING 1981

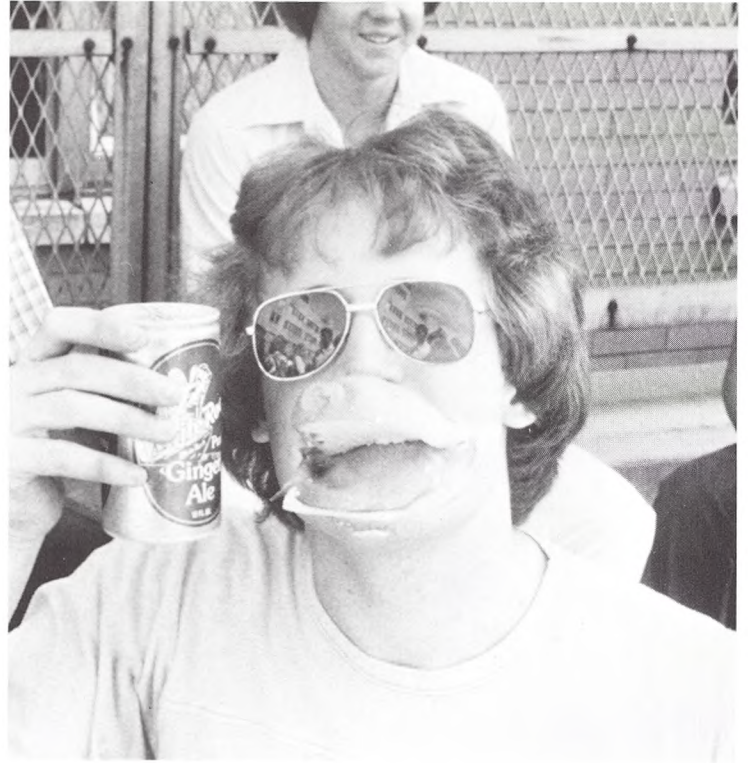

On charter day, Spring of '81, the Black Student Association welcomed groups of friends and relatives to its First Annual Fashion Show. As a result from much preparation from students and support from the fashion community the endeavor was enjoyed by all.

Janice Scott, President of the Association, was ably assisted by Barbara Walker and Joanne Dickson in the organization of the event. Kiki Ifill and James Bullock served as fashion and model coordinators. Donald Levy acted as artistic director. Lighting was supplied by Nelson Gomez of the Troupers. The Backstage area "filled with models and behind-the-scene volunteers" was very carefully managed by Marie-Alice Leger; Patricia Paez was commentator. Ms. Yvonne Dash, a professional Cosmetologist and representative of Mary K. Cosmetics, skillfully applied the make-up. The evening's climax of course, was the parading of lovely fashions down the runway.

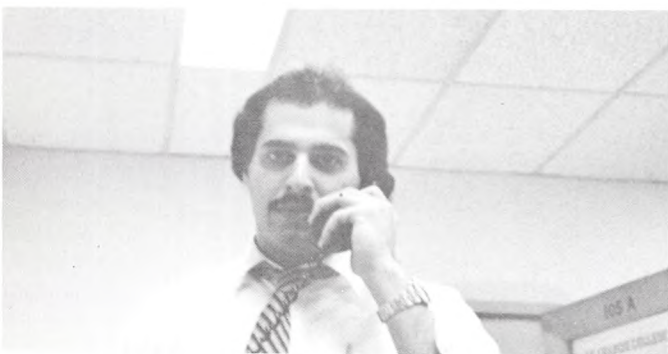

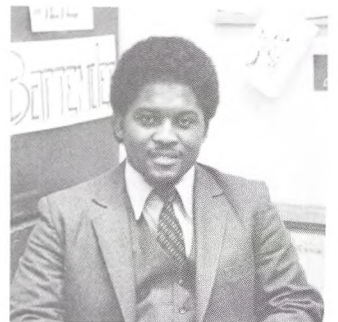

Fashion houses such as Jordache and Yve Saint Laurent supplied the clothes.

Long, long ago
roads stretched out before us.
Paths criss-crossed and intersected.
None of which we knew
a great deal about.
Nevertheless,
we attempted we chose and selected.
And an avenue
was elected.
One we traveled similarly.
One which led us here.
But it looks as if the track
is not as straight
as we once thought.
It looks like it
will up and twist again.
Soon new routes
will call us and carry us
into new worlds,
new journeys.
And we will take to the road
again.

DANIEL J. LYNCH

Daniel J. Lynch, Sr., 65, former Associate Professor of Physical Education and Basketball Coach at St. Francis College, Brooklyn Heights, died October 30, 1981 of cancer at Memorial Sloane-Kettering Cancer Center, after a short hospitalization.

Daniel Lynch was a 1938 graduate of St. Francis College. As a student basketball player at St. Francis he was the leading scorer on the team for each of his four seasons between 1934 and 1938. During these years the team amassed a record of 58 wins and 28 losses. He was twice named to the All-Met squad.

During his 22-year tenure as coach, the St. Francis Basketball Terriers won more than 300 games between 1948 and 1969 and ranked in the top 10 nationally during the 1956 season with 18 consecutive winning games.

Mr. Lynch coached the basketball Terriers into 11 post-season tournaments. Under his guidance and encouragement, the Terriers captured the crown of National Catholic Invitational Tournament play with a second place finish in 1949; third place in 1950, and the championship in 1951. The Terriers also participated in three National Invitational Tournaments (NIT) and finished fourth in 1956. In addition to playing and coaching, Mr. Lynch was SFC Athletic Director from 1964 to 1975. He received an M.A. degree in education from Columbia University. Mr. Lynch retired as basketball coach in 1969. He retired from the SFC faculty in June, 1981. He was admired and loved by all who knew him. He will never be forgotten.

LORSTAN-THOMAS STUDIOS

FOREMOST SCHOOL PHOTOGRAPHERS IN THE EAST

It is now about three hours before the last page of this yearbook will be completed and mailed to the publisher. We wanted to wait to the very last minute before writing this letter, so that it would reflect both the feeling of exhaustion and accomplishment that we felt in producing this book. These feelings are much the same as the seniors will experience upon graduating from St. Francis. Our only wish is that this yearbook bring to the reader's mind fond memories of the hard work and good times he had here.

Our sincerest thanks are extended to Ann Amore and Pat Lonergan who helped us at a time when we were desperate. In addition we would like to thank those people on the Franciscan staff that helped when they could. Maria Albanese (yes she's related to one of the editors), Tony Imbruglia, Glen Huzinec, Denise Arico, Joli Yuknek and Paul Mercado (he's last year's editor who has stepped up to bigger and better things).

There's one person on the staff we saved for last. We had to do this because, quite frankly, the book would never have been finished or at least it would have been months late if it wasn't for this person. That person is Claudia Kern. With all our love, Claudia, thank you.

Finally, we would like to thank Dudley Davis and Ann Pecora from Lorstans Studios and Andy Murro of Josten's Yearbook.

Very truly yours,

Joe & Donna
1982 Franciscan Editors
