I'M SORRY

*I'm sorry I never got to know you, never got to see your face,
never met you on the street,
on my way to some generic place.*

*I am sorry that you are gone.
So sorry that I cry...
Because you won't be here to wonder at how fast the years go by.*

*I know your loved ones mourn you, and remember your smiling face.
But I can't remember what I never saw,
and to me it's such a waste.*

*Today the world seems grayer, and the night sky is missing stars.
As the remaining ones huddle together, asking each other where you are.*

*I know someday I'll get to meet you, as you clasp your hand to mine,
and you say 'thank you for the poem...
I knew we'd meet in time.'*

*And until then I will live this life, keeping you alive in my own way
as I look onto tomorrow, and don't forget of yesterday.*

*So I guess they may be right when they say you did not die in vain.
For out of your demise,
a nation rose united... despite all its pain.*

*So farewell my unknown friend,
I won't forget what I never knew.
Because even if the world is sadder
It is more loving... because of you.*

We all learned that life had to go on, nature had to follow it's course, and so did we...Spring 2002, Montague Street

IN 1962, MINORU YAMASAKI WAS GIVEN THE COMMISSION to design a World Trade Center on the lower west side of Manhattan. Construction of the One and Two World Trade Center began in 1966 and cost an estimated $1.5 billion. When completed in 1973, the Center received mixed reviews, but at 1,368 and 1,362 feet and 110 stories each, the Twin Towers were the world's tallest, and largest, buildings until the Sears Tower surpassed them both in 1974.

If any of us ever thought the towers were only two immense steel, concrete, and glass modern buildings, after September 11, 2001 we realized how much we would miss the incomparable sight of the skyline, best seen on our Brooklyn Heights promenade.

The SFC, like the entire country, united and helped those affected by the disaster. We learned not to take anything for granted, to enjoy and appreciate every single day of our life in what everybody agrees to be the greatest city in the world - New York City. Ever since, UNITED WE STAND!

SGA gathered donations that were given to the families of lost firefighters and policemen.

EDITOR'S NOTE

In the wake of the 9/11/01 events, The Franciscan 2002 celebrates the architecture of New York City. Throughout the yearbook, we sprinkled pictures of Brooklyn and Manhattan, to acknowledge the greatness of this city and its world-renowned sights. The St. Francis College students are an intricate part of the city life: while studying to complete their degree, they often work in these buildings, or they often go for a walk or have lunch in the places we viewed as representative of New York City.

We hope you enjoy the Tour!

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE

Office of the President

Dear Graduates:

When we open a college yearbook, memories abound. Our college days are filled with friends, professors, classes, exams, papers, clubs and sports. Each of these recollections carry happy and sometimes painful moments. Each year as I write this message I recognize how proud we, as a College community, are of our graduating class. You are now beginning a new phase of your lives, closing a chapter and beginning another brilliant and beautiful one. What a thrill it is to see the apprehensive faces that I looked at during Freshman Orientation, now filled with excitement, pride and an incredible sense of accomplishment.

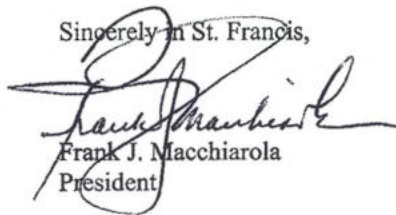

This academic year was especially challenging, as it has touched us like no other. We all worried what the future held for us after the tragedy of September 11, 2001. I worried how the year would progress for our St. Francis community. It has been repeatedly said that our lives changed forever on that day, and they have. Yet what I have seen since then is the spirit of St. Francis emerge and bloom in each and every one of you. We came together as a community and supported those who lost loved ones killed in the World Trade Center. We continue to mourn for our lost students and alumni, many of whom sacrificed their lives to save others. We have witnessed incredible heroism in those alumni who dedicated themselves to the recovery efforts. What I would encourage you to dwell on, are the joyful moments that you spent here at St. Francis. I am not suggesting that you push aside the sadness and forget about the pain, but out of that pain, recall the incredible growth, renewal and hope to which all of you have contributed and achieved. I have witnessed in our student body, faculty, administration and staff a deep faith and resilience to persevere. Each and every one of you carries this same grace within. St. Francis College has a tradition of dedication and service that resonates like no other and all of our graduates are a testament to this. This selfless spirit was evident to me in the Class of 2002 and their generous senior gift. At the writing of this letter the class participation rate for the gift takes precedent over others and exhibits a remarkable Franciscan energy.

Remember that St. Francis College has been graced by your presence and I hope in turn, we have given you something to take with you on this next step of your journey. This year was one that was incredibly challenging for you all in many ways and on many different levels. Yet you have all achieved, mastered and even excelled at what you sought to do when you began your work here at the College.

St. Francis College is very proud of the graduating class of 2002. Please know that the doors are always open for you, now as proud alumni. We wish all of you the very best in your future endeavors.

Congratulations.

Sincerely in St. Francis,

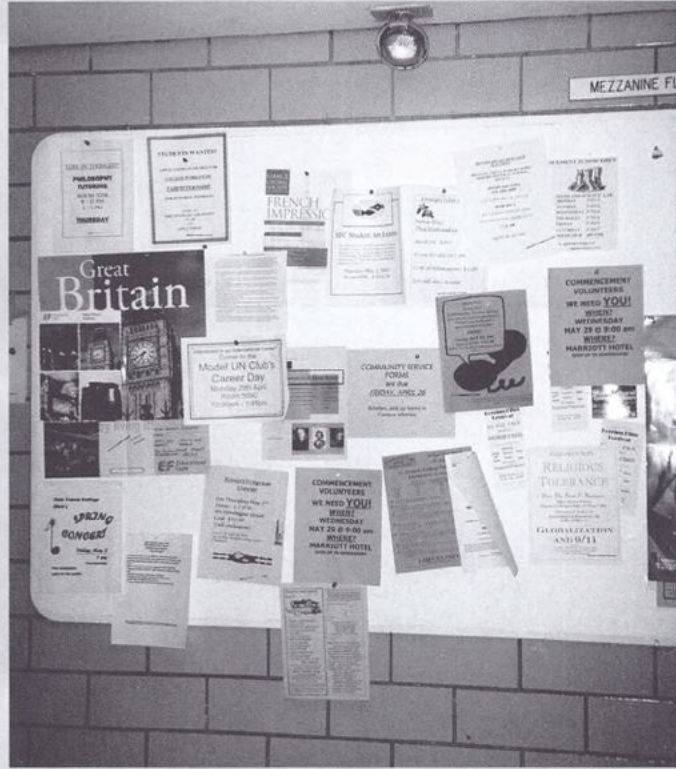

Frank J. Macchiarola
President

Terrier Tuesday

The Society of Claudel: pictures say a thousand words

A beautiful smile from Michele (r), member of the Cheerleading Squad

Terrier Tuesday marks the beginning of a new academic year. Every Fall semester SGA sponsors this event so that each member of the incoming freshman class can choose a club or an organization that is in tone with his/her interests. The day starts with the address of President Frank Macchiarola and several of the deans in Founders Hall, and it continues with the club/organization fair which ritually takes place in the Gorman Dining Hall. Here, the college clubs, organizations and publications present their purpose, as well as their activity, and invite the new St. Francis students to join by signing an enrollment sheet. This event is organized to welcome and encourage freshmen to become an active part of the college, and also to start channeling their interests and put their potential creativity to work. This event is key to discovering the future leaders of the years to follow.

Open House

Once again the "Open House God" blessed us with a "beautiful day in the neighborhood". The visitors were the largest ever. As usual, you, our students, faculty and administrators were there in great numbers and did a wonderful job showing our guests who and what we are about.

It was a day of compliments from the visitors about all of you. Your enthusiasm made them feel at home. If your feet hurt at the end of the day it was because you worked so hard to impress our guests. And you did just that. They couldn't say enough good things about you as they left, thanking you by name. If you missed it, you missed something special.

Thanks to all who "came, saw and conquered" See you next year!

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving has become one of the most flavorful holidays at St. Francis College. The ceremony of the turkey carving is officiated by President Macchiarola, while Dean Adams and Hakim Williams (SGA President) share their opinions on how the tasty turkey can be sliced.

Everyone's favorite part is actually eating the delicious stuffing, corn and vegetables and of course the turkey itself, while socializing and listening to some good music.

This event marks the debut of our Thanksgiving break.

Christmas at St. Francis

Bring in the kids!...

Every year, St. Francis College organizes a Christmas get-together for the administration and faculty members and their families.

This year, to the delight of the students who volunteered to help dress the Gorman Dining Hall in icicles and red and gold bows, and to the delight of our Santa Claus and Misses Claus (2002 Miss and Mr. St. Francis), many children joined the party. They received many Christmas gifts and filled the hall with their joyful giggles.

The evening was another success of the organizers - Christeen Edwards and Chris Gibbons, College Relations and Special Events.

PMHP Symposium

ON FEBRUARY 15, 2002, the Pre-Medical & Health Professions Club sponsored and organized an event that answered many of the students' questions about future jobs they could have graduating with a BS in Pre-Health.

The event was called "Opportunities in the Biomedical Science for Pre-Health Profession Students" and took place in the Callahan Center during the club hours.

Miss and Mister St. Francis College

Antonevia Ocho-Coultes

Organized by CSA, the Pageant was divided into four segments: the talent, swim wear, eveningwear, and the interview.

Unlike the traditional past shows, presented by two hosts, this year we had a variety of presenters for different segments. The 2002 Miss and Mister St. Francis are Antonevia Ocho-Coultes and Vincent Hoffman.

Vincent Hoffman

THE TROUPERS

The Troupers staged two productions during the 2001-2002 school year. On November 16, 2001, under the moderation of Brother Austin Gill and direction of Joseph Mingrone, the Troupers performed in Neil Simon's Broadway Bound. The cast included Matthew Pepitone, Andrew Fisher, Elizabeth Eames, Dave Peters, Rachel Kaminsky, and Liam McCabe. The actors showed maturity and deep understanding of the difficult family drama, and the performance was one of the best.

The spring production, Harvey, also under the moderation of Br. Austin Gill and direction of Joseph Mingrone, had a large cast: Andrew Fisher, Nancy Marano, Jennifer Frame, Antonevia Ocho-Coultes, Wayne Keith Williams, Stephen Ryan, Matthew Pepitone, Jill Kenny, Maegan Prout, Diane Llanos, and Steven Harris. Many of the Troupers who did not act on stage helped backstage.

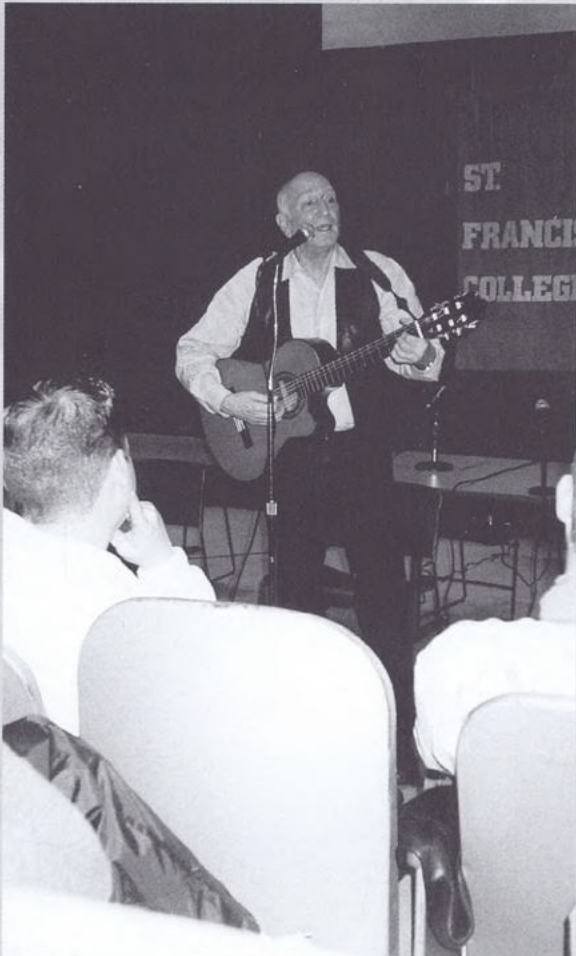

This is the twentieth year of Joe Mingrone's directing the Troupers. We hope to many more! Congrats to senior and veteran Trouper, Elizabeth Eames!

Joseph Mingrone, Troupers director

Sopranos' Dominic Chianese at SFC

EARLY IN THE SPRING SEMESTER, the college community welcomed Dominic "Uncle Junior" Chianese. Dr. Edward Setrakian, who often invites known actors to speak to his acting classes, together with Chris Gibbons, Director of Special Events, brought the Sopranos star to the college.

Chianese spoke of his life as an actor and the roles he has had, including his present role on The Sopranos. Chianese's audience included not only students in Dr. Setrakian's acting classes, but also staff of the college and people from the Brooklyn Heights community.

At the end of his presentation, Chianese serenaded the audience with Italian songs and later signed autographs and posed for photos with those who attended.

On the celebrity guests list is also Vincent D'Onofrio (Law and Order, Full Metal Jacket), who comes back to St. Francis College to teach a few acting classes during each Fall semester.

This year the Delaney Speech contest had most contestants than ever, and the topics ranged from philosophy to training pigeons!

Community Day 2002

Community Day is a celebration of our diverse community at St. Francis College. This was our fifth annual event that is traditionally held in the Spring semester. The day began with a Mass in Founders Hall followed by members of our international student body dancing, singing and performing written works that reflect our rich multicultural heritage. The day ended with an international food buffet.

Monica and Hakim welcome us to the Community Day

First performance: Croatian Song Noc je Prekrasna (The Night is Beautiful)

Gina and Sandra representing Romania

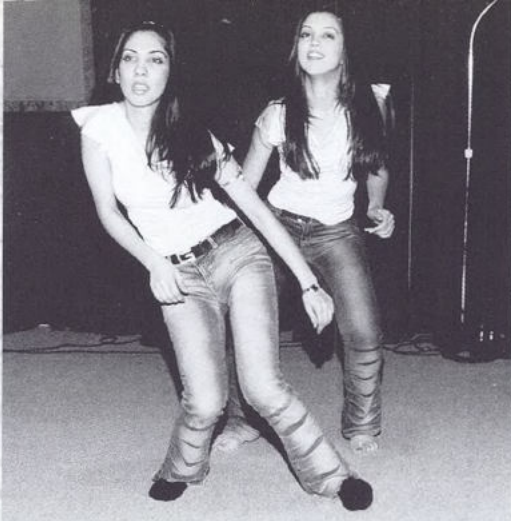

Monica: "Time is up Dr. Macchiarola"

Dr. Goodstein thanking for the flowers

Indian dance: The Mystery of Love

Caribbean Steel Pan: Jahaji Bhai (Brotherhood of the Boat)

Latin Dance: Vivir lo nuestro (Live Our Lives)...

Here is what the Community Day organizers had to say:

Dr. M. Hirsch, Psychology Department - Community Day is a time for our College community to come together and appreciate our ethno-cultural differences. I think we accomplish this by the multi-lingual mass; the diversity in language, dance, and song during the performances; and the different ethnic foods served for lunch.

Dr. R. Goodstein, Psychology - Our Community Day! We come together to celebrate who are: St. Francis as a multicultural community, rich in diversity, talent, and spirit.

Mr. W. Mallett, Student Activities - Community Day has always held a special place in my heart. Although it is a relatively new tradition at St. Francis College, it certainly celebrates the diversity in Brooklyn. It also gives the College community the opportunity to share our unique cultures with one another.

Musical Events

Every semester music companies send reps to search for new talents. Students can make their own CD or video.

The SFC Choir, conducted by John Motley, gives several presentations in the holidays season, and during the spring semester.

The Choir also performs at most of the SFC social events (such as Community Day, Baccalaureate Mass etc.). Members of faculty and administration (such as Br. Thomas Grady) join the choir enchanting and surprising us with their talent.

Dr. Frank Macchiarola - "Thank you for all of the advice and support you have given me over the past 4 years. You will never know how honored I was to be named the Rita and Michael Collins Scholar. You have been a constant source of inspiration for me with the way you infuse your Catholic faith and Franciscan Spirit into all that you say and do. Thank you for all that you and your wonderful family has done for me"

Dr. Frank Sorrentino - "Thank you for being my mentor and advisor since the first day I went to you for advice. Without your constant support and constructive criticism, "The Effect of Scandal on the Modern Presidency" would have never been finished. Your enthusiasm and love of the discipline has expanded my own knowledge and love of Political Science, for this I will be eternally grateful."

Dr. Francis Greene - "Dr. Greene, since my Orientation in Art Class with you my freshman year, you have been a guiding light in my pursuit of a liberal education. The standards that you set in the class quickly became my own as I accepted only perfection out of myself in all of my academic endeavors. It is your love of art and architecture that has ignited a fire within myself that will never be extinguished."

Br. Owen Sadlier, O.S.F. - "Br. Owen, from the time I took your Basic Problems course until the final exam of Metaphysics, you were the guiding force that inspired me to pursue a minor in philosophy. The quiet and humble way that you exemplify the life of St. Francis will be an inspiration to me for the rest of my life. Thank you for beginning in my own life the love of knowledge, and a true understanding of leisure, the basis of culture"

Bro. Thomas Grady: "Humility in action... it is very rare in life that one meets a person who is so selfless and willing to go beyond his job description to ensure he offers help and advice wherever it is needed, without seeking recognition or reward. The epitome of Franciscanism".

Dr. Francis Greene: "One of the few teachers who naturally have the ability to have students wanting to learn more".

Dr. Paddy Quick: "My first class here at SFC was taught on September 9th, 1998 and my last final was in ECO305 on May 9th 2002, both taught by Dr. Quick. The way in which Dr. Quick is able to translate otherwise boring economic analysis into understandable present day scenarios and is committed to ensuring her students understand the material, make Dr. Quick one of my favorite professors... not only did her style make me switch majors after one semester, but she is one of the few who returned every assignment the following class! Then again my favorite class here was ICS 240 taught by Dr. Quick."

Prof. Paul Clement: "An adjunct professor who goes without any recognition. A professor who believes that nothing is taught, until everyone understands. A professor who displays genuine belief that each student can succeed."

Baccalaureate Mass

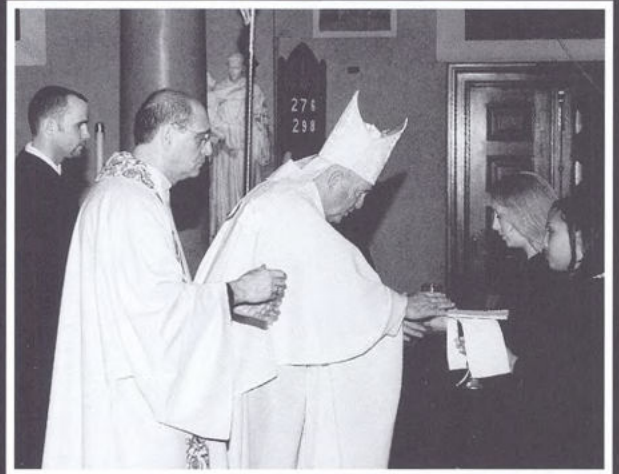

Campus Ministry and the Student Government Association invited graduating seniors and their families to Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church for the Colleges annual Baccalaureate Mass on May 28th. Bishop Joseph Sullivan celebrated the Mass.

There was a reception, which followed, in the church hall. Over 350 people attended this year's event.

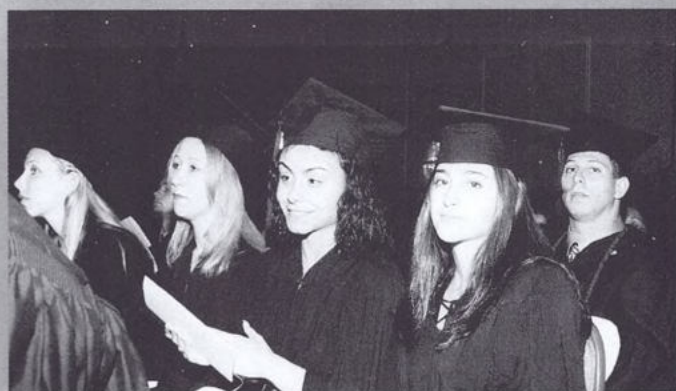

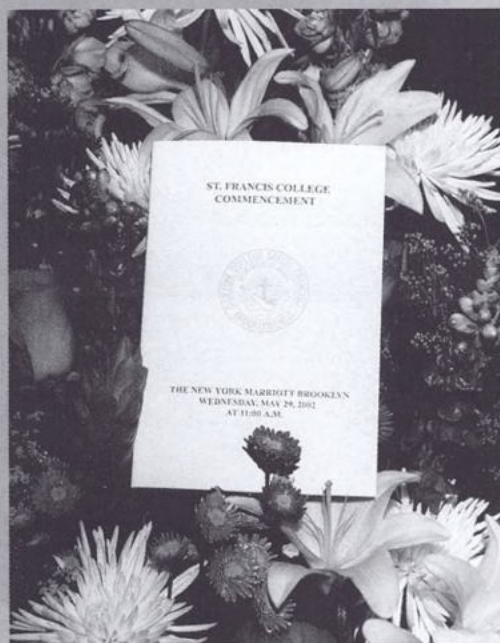

Baccalaureate Mass

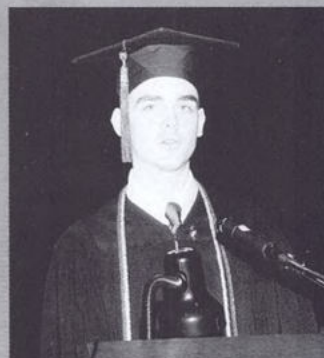

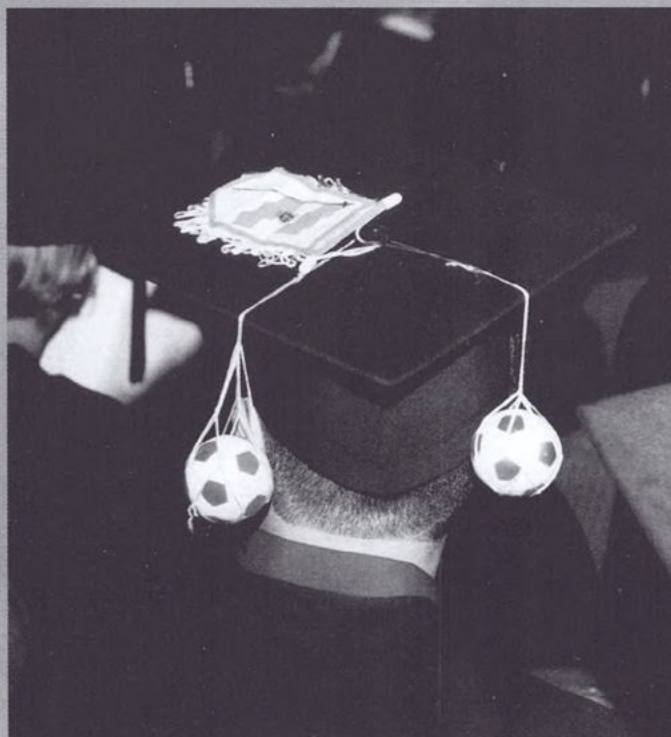

Commencement

Commencement exercises for the Class of 2002 reflected the double nature of a college education: preparation of the individual student for his/her personal life, but also to serve as a contributing member of the larger world around one, that is to say, to serve, in some meaningful way, society as a whole. There were three parts to the ceremonies. First, in awarding three honorary doctorates, including one to the current Mayor of New York City, the College recognized individuals whose lives have clearly been oriented towards the service of others, in education and the arts, in prison ministry, and in both the world of business and civic affairs. Each of the three honorees stands as a model for the graduating seniors.

Mayor Michael Bloomberg receives the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws

Honorary degrees: John Motley and Sister Elizabeth Gnam

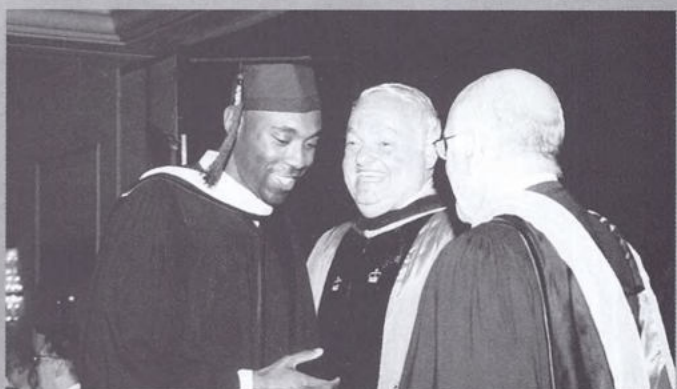

The second part of the day focused upon three students who perished at the World Trade Center. This reminds us that St. Francis College is not merely located in New York City; it plays a vibrant role of the city's life. The College's graduates and undergraduates work in almost every dimension of city life, and thus members of our community and of the Class of 2002 were there, working, on the fateful day. We were reminded too that a significant number of the top-level officials responsible for rescue that day were graduates of St. Francis College.

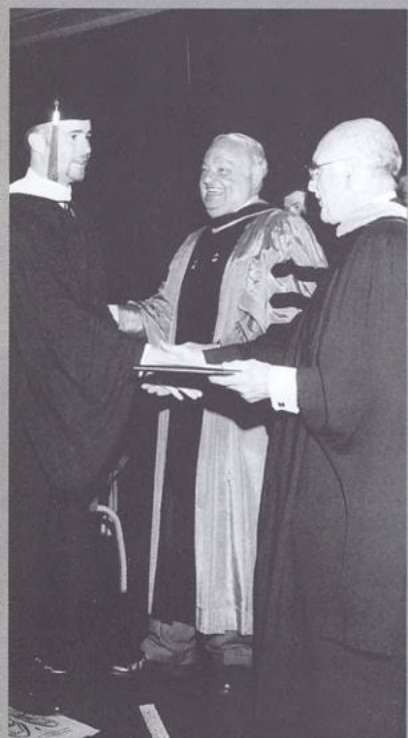

Philosophical "cogent formulations" exchanged by Br. Owen and Dr. Udoff

Commencement

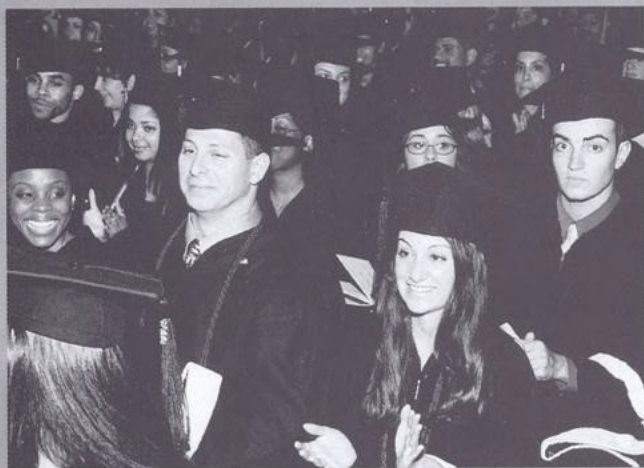

Finally, in the third part of the ceremonies, attention turned to the other graduates of the Class of 2002, as each came forward individually to receive the long-awaited diploma. Unlike most colleges today, where students graduate en masse, St. Francis College's attention to each graduate, called to center stage by name, reflects our Franciscan tradition and belief in the importance of the individual.

Ceremonies are an important part of communal life since they often express, through external acts and rituals, deeply held values and beliefs. This was certainly the case at Commencement 2002 for St. Francis College.

Men's Basketball

The St. Francis College men's basketball team continued its tradition of superb play by reaching the Northeast Conference semifinals for the fourth consecutive year, the longest current streak of any team in the league. The Terriers finished the season at 18-11 after a close loss in the conference semifinal game at the hands of eventual champion Central Connecticut State.

The Terriers played an entertaining brand of basketball with a high-powered offense.

As always, the Terriers played an entertaining brand of basketball with a high-powered offense. St. Francis was led by senior Jason Morgan, who averaged over 17 points per game while tying the school record with 100 three-point field goals. Senior Clifford Strong and junior Chris Sockwell controlled the inside game, and junior Bronski Dokery showed the ability to drive the lane and knock down the three-pointer. The Terriers also received contributions from every player, although they only suited up 10 players during the season. During the season, the Terriers played competitive games against Big East Conference foes St. John's and Pittsburgh.

Team Roster: Jason Morgan, Rob Wiatre, Karl Sanders, Paul Kowalczyk, Clifford Strong, Damien Herard, Patrice Thevenot, Omar Hatcher, Eric Thompson, Christopher Sackwell
Head Coach: Ron Ganulin; Assistant Coaches: Glenn Braica, Ed Custodio, Larry Wingate; Administrative Assistant: Neal Biscaldi

Head Coach: Christine Cunningham; Assistant Coaches: Brenda Milano Keilyn Wilson

The St. Francis College women's basketball team finished the season with a 5-22 record and a 3-15 mark in the Northeast Conference, a slight increase in the win total over previous years. Sophomore Colleen Carbone and junior Antoinette Saitta led a balanced offense by averaging over 11 points per game, along with freshman Kim Weir.

...the future appears to be very bright for St. Francis women's basketball in the years to come.

Weir was a three-time Northeast Conference Rookie of the Week selection, and was named to the NEC All-Rookie Team at the conclusion of the season. With no seniors on the Terrier roster this past season, the future appears to be very bright for St. Francis women's basketball in the years to come.

Men's Water Polo

SF.C. men's water polo team wrapped up its season with a 25-11 final record, and a fourth place finish at the Collegiate Water Polo Association Championships, which were contested at Princeton University on November 17-18. For the third consecutive year, the Terriers lost to the eventual conference champions (this year it was the Univ. of Massachusetts in the semifinal round) at the CWPA Championship.

The Terriers have ranked as the top academic team in the nation for four years.

Head Coach: Carl Quigley; Assistant Coach: Gerard Gillia

The Terriers posted an 8-2 record in CWPA Northern Division action, with the only setbacks coming in one-goal losses to Queens College (in overtime) and Massachusetts. The post-season was a series of close finishes, as the Terriers finished second at both the Eastern College Athletic Conference Championships and the CWPA Northern Division Playoffs.

Senior captain Peter Felvegi and senior Ali Gozluk, as well as junior Attila Kiss, provided consistent offensive play throughout the season. Whenever the Terriers needed a big goal this year, these three players were often able to provide it. Senior Ognjen Mustur was also a standout performer for the Terriers in all facets of the game.

While the Terriers have built a winning tradition through tremendous efforts by veteran players, they have also maintained their high level of play through consistent recruiting and player development. This year was no exception, as St. Francis boasted a very strong freshman class which consisted of goalkeeper Nicholas Gaffey, as well as Petar Zelenovic, Luka Kostic, and Stoil Kostov.

The Terrier roster is once again comprised of strong students as well as strong athletes. The Terriers have ranked as the top academic team in the nation each of the four years.

Men's & Women's Cross-Country/ Track & Field

Under first-year head coach Anthony Kurtin, a St. Francis alumnus, the Terrier cross-country team commenced the rebuilding process that will bring them back among the stronger programs in the Northeast Conference. The results were not immediately evident, as both the men's and women's teams finished 12th at the NEC Championships, but this year was best seen as a step in the right direction. The men's team was led by senior Thomas Rivera, sophomore Valentin Benitez, and junior Edward Long.

*Head Coach: Anthony Kurtin

The women's team was led by the duo of seniors Nefatari Ellis and Athinoula Papadopoulos. At the Northeast Conference Championships, the men's team has been led on the track by soph. Kasi Pierre and Dwayne Pierre, and senior Ron Azinge, as well as soph. Anthony Liriano and Johnny Loaiza. The women have received strong performances from seniors Watasha Glasgow and Margaret Von der Osten, as well as freshman Malgorzata Szyszka in the javelin throw.

Shport was sixth in the 100-yard backstroke and in the 200-yard backstroke. The Terriers also scored in the 400-yard and 200-yard medley relays, as well as the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Men's Baseball

SFC baseball team stands at 15-16 overall and 11-7 in the Northeast Conference. The key to the Terriers' success has been the team's balance. Eight players are currently batting above .300 mark, despite the fact that five of them started in only half of the team's games, showing that they can maintain a top level and contribute when called upon.

Senior Jason Iorio has been a consistent performer at the top of the Terrier batting order this season, and currently is hitting .382 with 19 runs scored, nine extra-base hits, and 16 runs batted in. He also leads the Terriers with 11 stolen bases.

Senior Matt Bailey has anchored the Terrier pitching staff, and sports a 6-1 record on the year so far. He, along with juniors Anthony Esposito and Christian Malave, carry the bulk of the pitching load for the Terriers and have kept the Terriers in playoff contention.

Women's Softball

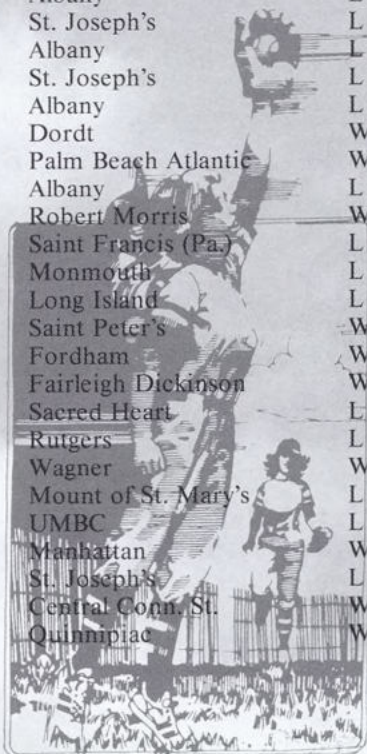

The St. Francis College softball team sports a 15-25 record and has already won more games in a season than any Terrier softball team in the last decade. The Terriers finished their Northeast Conference season with a 9-13 record, a marked improvement over last season's performance.

During the first weekend of conference play, the Terriers defeated both Robert Morris University and Saint Francis University of Pennsylvania, teams they had not defeated in the last ten years. The Terriers also swept a non-conference doubleheader from Fordham University for the first time in school history.

Junior Alex Richardson has been a standout player all season. She has broken her own school record with nine home runs thus far, and is batting .390 with 30 runs batted in. She is also the owner of a 5-10 record as a pitcher, and has struck out 72 batters.

Senior Samantha Griffin has risen to the level of the elite pitchers in the Northeast Conference. Griffin is currently 8-8 with a 1.73 earned run average, which is the lowest ERA for a Terrier pitcher since 1993. Four of her eight victories have come via the shutout, a pair of 1-0 wins.

Men's Soccer

The St. Francis College men's soccer team finished the 2001 season with a 5-10-1 overall record and a 4-6 mark in the Northeast Conference. Three of the Terriers' six conference losses came by one goal, including one overtime loss.

Despite what was a substandard record, several members of the team turned in outstanding seasons. Sophomore forward Ricardo Ordain moved to the forefront of the team, and tallied nine goals on the season. Four of his scores were match-winners, and he registered the only three-goal "hat-trick" by a Terrier this season as he helped St. Francis to a 4-2 win over Quinnipiac University on October 31. Ordain was named the Northeast Conference and Eastern College Athletic Conference "Rookie of the Week" for the final week of the season, based on his play against Quinnipiac.

Several members of the team turned in outstanding seasons...

Junior Joseph Afful was a standout player at both ends of the field. A natural defender, Afful became an imposing offensive force for St. Francis, registering six goals and adding three assists. Afful was named to the All-Northeast Conference First Team at the end of the season, while Ordain and senior midfielder Ron Azinge were honored as Second Team All-Northeast Conference selections.

Women's Volleyball

For the second straight season, the St. Francis College volleyball team entered the final match of the season with a chance to gain a berth into the Northeast Conference playoffs, but came up short of their goal with a loss on the season finale. The Terriers finished the season at 11-15 overall and 3-6 in the Northeast Conference. Highlights of the season included St. Francis' first win over Iona College in the last nine years, and winning the championship of the Long Island University Invitational in October.

After losing their first seven matches, the Terriers' season saw a ten-day break due to the events of September 11, which caused the postponement of a match at Lehigh and the cancellation of the Columbia University Invitational. St. Francis came out of the layoff with a three-match winning streak, and won eleven of their final nineteen matches.

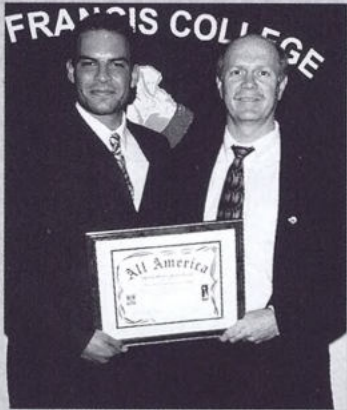

... finished the season at 11-15 overall and 3-6 in the Northeast Conference.

The Terriers were led by junior Sylwia Parzych's .256 hitting percentage. She finished the season with totals of 248 kills, 31 aces, 151 digs, and 66 blocks. Junior Julie Acuff added 211 kills, a .219 hitting percentage, 20 aces, 228 digs, and 54 blocks. The setting duties were handled by junior Sylwia Turek, who surpassed the 950-assist plateau for the second straight year and finished with 955 assists, while adding team highs of 35 aces and 329 digs. Senior Erica Predergast was a force at the net and ended the year with 73 blocks. Sophomore Brittany Daniel paced the Terriers with 293 kills and added 254 digs and 24 aces.

Joseph Marvel

The measure of a man is not the number of his servants, but the number of people he serves!

MR. JOSEPH MARVEL HAS RETIRED during the Spring semester of 2002 after approximately 30 years of service as a registrar. He has been a registrar at SFC since 1993. During these nine years, Joe, as all of us like to call him, has not stopped to amaze us with his energy, attention to detail, and most of all, with his tremendous desire to help and guide us, his students. As yearbook editor-in-chief, I always counted on his help to obtain information on the graduating class, not an easy thing to do considering the hundreds of students who graduate from St. Francis every year.

As a sign of gratitude and appreciation, the Student Government Association awarded him this year with one of the most precious awards, a once-in-a-lifetime achievement, the Franciscan Spirit Award. On Charter Day, Joe was awarded the Honorary Degree, for his service, scholarship and individual character.

Talking to Joe on numerous occasions, I learned so many beautiful things about him, his life outside the college, his family and his passions. Before mentioning his achievements, I would like to write about what impressed me most: he told me once that "instead of just conducting business with the students, I try to give a life-changing experience." He tried to help his students understand the dimensions of their actions, making a profession out of his job as a registrar.

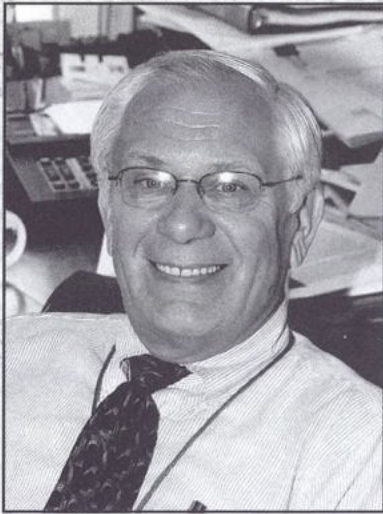

Joe Marvel has never taken the decision to become a registrar. He started working in the Registrar office while a student, and just "fell into it," as he explained. Since 1973 until 1993 he was registrar at SUNY Educational Opportunity Center in Brooklyn. Before becoming a registrar, he served as grant coordinator at SUNY for one year; as assistant director of student affairs (1969-1971) and head resident for men (1966-1969). Joe Marvel joined the United States Army from 1963 until 1966, and he was an Intelligence Corps officer in Des Moines, Iowa. His love for discipline and his excellent organizational skills led him to hold positions such as assistant supervisor of fraternities and sororities, intake counselor and resident fellow from 1961 until 1963.

In 1961, Joe received his A.B. in American Studies, an interdepartmental program of English, history, social sciences and fine arts at the University of Delaware. In 1966, he completed his M.S. in Higher Education with the Southern Illinois University, and in 1978 he received a Certificate in Psychotherapy at the Alfred Adler Institute in New York. Joe stressed the importance of being able to listen and to understand people. Throughout his life, he embraced the influence of the two Adlers as model for both his family life and his professional one. He stressed the importance of respect for other people, and also the importance of looking at one's actions, and not at one's words.

Married to Carolyn (uncoincidentally at the United Nations Chapel), Joe has two children who have chosen very diverse professions, son Owen graduating from the Culinary Institute of America, while daughter Kimberlin choosing the computers and marketing information systems.

Among his hobbies, Joe loves poetry, and collects art and photography. Since he can't bring another picture in the house, "because my wife is going to kill me:)", he gives them to her as presents.

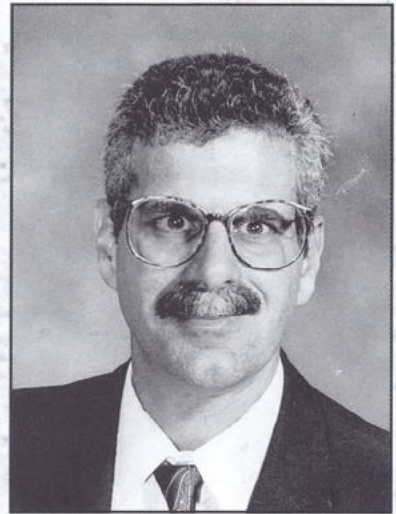

This is but a small attempt to present such a complex and beautiful life. There is so much more to say... What a great man was chosen to wear such a great name: indeed he is a marvelous person!

"For three decades this sculpture stood in the plaza of the World Trade Center. Entitled "The Sphere," it was conceived by artist Fritz Koenig as a symbol of world peace. It was damaged during the tragic events of Sept. 11, 2001, but endures as an icon of hope and indistructible spirit of Americans.

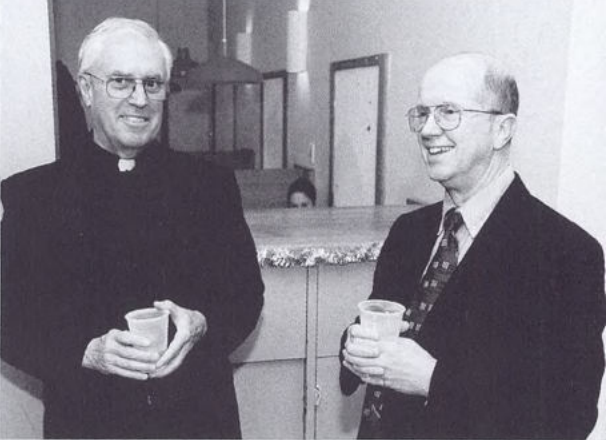

The Sphere was placed by the see port on March 11, 2002 in memory of all who lost their lives to terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center."

Clubs

Albanian Alliance

The Albanian Alliance Club is dedicated to fostering a wide range of diversity within the SFC community. The Club's mission is to enhance the student experience with ethnic-cultural activities. All students are welcome to participate in these activities.

Second Row: Donald Beqollari, Gjergj Beribashi, Blirion Baxhija, Arbi Abeshi; First Row: Albana Zegullaj, Ornela Rehova, Endri Nikolla, Mirela Krasniqi.

Asian Club

The Asian Club's primary focus is to unite the growing population of SFC students of Asian decent while not excluding those non-Asian students who are interested in learning more about our Asian heritage.

Caribbean Students' Association

CSA has grown over the years and established itself as one of the most dominant and consistent organizations within the SFC community. It is committed to maintaining school spirit while creating a lasting bond of friendship among the Caribbean and other interested students.

Cheerleaders

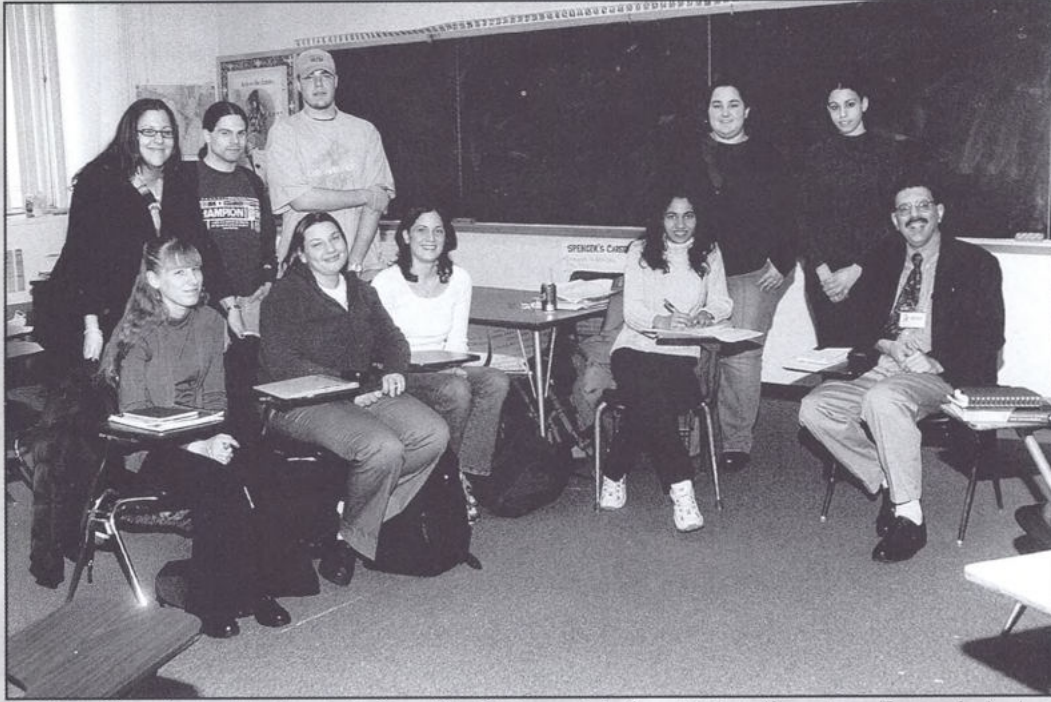

The Cheerleading Squad's purpose is to support and encourage the St. Francis College teams and to increase the students' participation in athletic events.

The Cheerleading Squad was revived after many years of absence in Fall 2001.

Clubs Education Society

The Education Society is primarily composed of students who plan careers in the field of education. The club provides education majors with the opportunity to interact with their colleagues and discuss current topics in education. The group also sponsors various community related events for underprivileged children.

Finance Club

Dollars meet Sense! The Finance Club is the meeting place for students who are interested in the world of finance. Among the activities conducted throughout the school year, the club organized a workshop geared toward those students interested in pursuing graduate studies in the field of finance.

Haitian Alliance

The main goal of Haitian Alliance is to motivate students of Haitian provenience to understand and explore their unique culture. In doing so, the alliance educates its members in subjects such as Haitian history, music and dance. The alliance promotes unity, leadership, and service.

Second Row: Patricia Frederic, Gilberto Pierre, Dina Gelin; First Row: Erin Toussaint, Roosevelt Bourisquot (President), Marie Christine Verret

Kapa Delta Pi

The characters of Kappa Delta Pi represent Knowledge, Duty & Power. Individuals are nominated on their scholarship, high academic standards and their promise as professionals. Associates remain members for life with their names recorded permanently in the Society Headquarters' files. Members receive a subscription to an educational periodical and other publications to enhance their professional careers.

Kapa Gama Kapa

Kappa Gamma Kappa is a social sorority. During the course of our existence we have held many functions. These include social gatherings, parties, and participation in volunteer work to serve our community and its people. We have taken part in the Breast Cancer Charity walk, and this year we volunteered and raised money for the March of Dimes.

Latin American Society

The Latin-American Society at St. Francis College attracts many students of Latin-American background. Among various activities, the club took part in the artistic events of Community Day. Free salsa lessons were offered by the members to those in attendance.

The Montage is a student-run magazine that functions primarily as a creative outlet for any member of the SFC community that has a desire to contribute. These contributions come in the form of poetry, short fiction, reflections, drawings and photography.

Clubs

Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Club gathers to listen to talks given by student and faculty presenters. The subject is of course philosophical and questions are asked of the speaker afterwards. One of the major goals of the talk is to generate discussion amongst the group. The club exists so that students and faculty can come together to discuss philosophical ideas.

Pre-Med & Health Professions Club

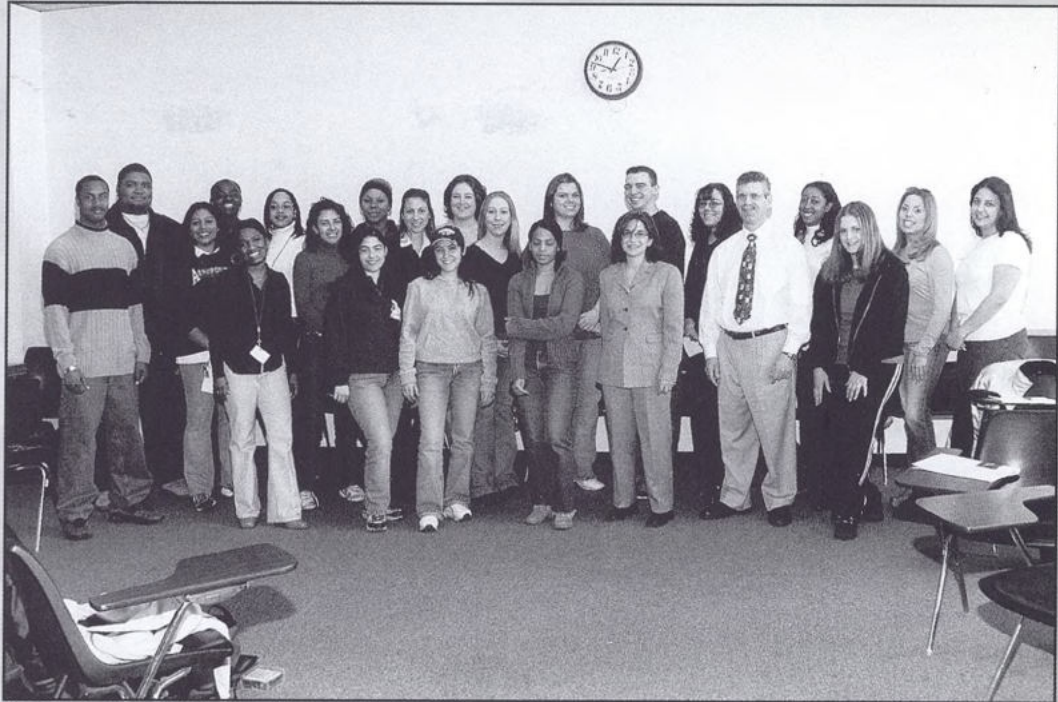

The purpose of this club is to support the academic efforts of SFC students planning to enter medical school or a health professional program. Through friendship, we guide, encourage and assist each other through the extensive process of medical or professional school application and promote achievement in the classroom.

Psychology Club / Psy Chi

The Psychology Club participates in several fund raising efforts during the school year, usually in the form of bake sales and raffles. Proceeds gained from fundraisers go to the club, psychology department, and are donated to charities. Members of the Psychology Club also take part in various field trips, including foster care trips throughout the year.

Science Society

Our purpose, as the Science Society, is to promote all aspects of the sciences. In addition, we are a united social organization. The society, to the best of its ability, makes an effort to fulfill the Franciscan tradition of this college through charitable works for scientific research and development.

SFC Flyers

The Flyers Club welcomes all SFC Aviation students as well as anyone interested in Aviation. We have become very united over the past year and have joined forces to carry out a few activities such as the trip to Rhinebeck Airshow, Careers in Aviation night, and the St. Valentine's Day balloon sale. This was just the beginning, because the plans for next year promise a lot of fun.

The Franciscan editors, staff and moderator wish you good luck in all your future endeavors. Although we lived through one of the hardest years of the past half of century, you have respected your commitment to school, and done your best, and for this we dedicate this book to you and we say:

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2002!

We would like to say a special Thank You to all those who helped and supported us to complete another Franciscan yearbook.
