ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE

Office of the President

Dear Graduates:

I am very pleased to congratulate the members of the St. Francis College Class of 2003.

The successful end of your undergraduate career marks not only the beginning of your very bright and promising futures, but also your membership in our alumni family. The contributions you made to the College's reputation as undergraduates will continue in your day to day lives once you leave here. As graduates of St. Francis, you will uphold the values and precepts of the College as you make your way in the world. You will always have a home here in the St. Francis College community.

All of us wish you the very best and look forward to seeing you on many return visits to Alma Mater.

Congratulations.

Sincerely In St. Francis,

Frank J. Macchiarola
President

A New Trial for Our Generation

The Spring 2003 semester began with great concerns on the campus and around the world over the failure of Iraq to verify compliance with U.N. resolutions and divisions among Western allies about how to respond to that situation. Most European countries argued for the continuation of inspections by the U.N. to assure that there were no weapons of mass destruction in Iraq. The U.S. with Britain, Spain and a few other allies prepared for armed intervention, arguing that the inspections had not worked. St. Francis students joined in the debate in various classroom discussions, in articles in The Voice, and through special lectures presented by various student clubs and organizations. Many important issues arose during these months, including the meaning of a just war, its criteria and how these did or did not apply to the Iraqi situation. At St. Francis and across the globe thoughtful people questioned the long-term implications of a pre-emptive first strike policy. In the end, former allies distanced themselves from the U.S. and Britain. Eventually, on March 19, American and coalition forces invaded Iraq and "Operation Iraqi Freedom" began.

Once again the events were discussed in classrooms and in The Voice. One student and eight family members of the college community were brought into active service. Their names were posted by Campus Ministry and they were remembered in prayers, as were the innocent Iraqi families caught in the conflict. The Political Science Club placed boxes around the campus to collect needed supplies and show support for the troops. The Arab-American Society hosted a film and lecture on the Palestinian problem and the effects of the war on the Iraqi people. Students, faculty and staff were all sensitive and respectful of the different perspectives from which various groups and people viewed the conflict, its underlying causes and potential effects. The college community, in the spirit of its namesake, St. Francis, shared in common a hope that peace would prevail.

The hostilities subsided around Easter, shortly after the Hussein government was toppled. The college community continues to study the war, its causes, effects and related problems in the mid-East. In doing so, we commit ourselves to denouncing terrorism and violence in the quest for peace. At St. Francis we experience a community of brotherhood and sisterhood created with love, faith and care among culturally diverse people. We look and work toward the construction of such a community globally, built on truth and justice in the cause of an enduring peace.

In Memoriam Brother Austin Gill, O.S.F.

Shortly after the 2003 Commencement, the St. Francis College community was shocked by the sad news of the sudden death of Brother Austin Gill on June 25. At that time, Brother Austin was serving as Chairman of the English Department, in which he had taught for thirty-seven years.

An alumnus of St. Francis, Class of '62, Brother Austin was born in New York on July 23, 1935 of parents who had immigrated to the United States from Ireland. He graduated from St. Francis Preparatory School in Brooklyn, and entered the Franciscan Brothers in 1954. For forty-nine years Brother Austin lived as a prayerful, humble, dedicated follower of St. Francis of Assisi. He loved teaching and was personally interested in helping his students succeed. He is known as a quiet man with a gentle Irish wit and a generous heart.

Brother Austin completed his Master of Arts degree at St. John's University and also did graduate study at New York University and Post-Masters work at the University of Ireland in Dublin. His special interest was Irish Literature, particularly the works of James Joyce.

For many years Brother Austin was Moderator of the Troupers, the college's drama club. He enjoyed working with the directors and student-actors on the production of scores of memorable plays during his tenure with the Troupers. The St. Francis students recognized his contributions by presenting him with the SGA Teacher of the Year Award in 1976, the Outstanding Faculty Member Award in 1985 and again in 1998, honorary membership in the Duns Scotus Honor Society in 1985 and the Distinguished Faculty Award in 1987.

Services were held for Brother Austin in the college on June 26 and 27, followed by a Funeral Mass in St. Charles' Church in Brooklyn Heights on June 27. He is survived by two brothers and a sister: Rev. William Gill, Brother Edwin Gill, O.S.F. and Sister Elizabeth Gill, O.P.

St. Francis College is thankful for the many years we had Brother Austin as part of our community. May he rest in peace!

Mr. & Mrs. SFC Pageant

Mr. & Mrs. SFC Pageant was once again organized by the Caribbean Student Organization, in the SFC Founders Hall. Seven men and seven women took part in the pageant, dancing, singing, and even reciting poetry. The event attracted a good crowd of SFC students, family and friends, supporters of the talented and ingenuous contestants.

TROUPERS

On April 11 and 12, the SFC Troupers performed Ben Hecht's and Charles MacArthur's The Front Page, a dramatic comedy set in a 1920's Chicago newspaper room.

TROUPERS

The play, which featured a large ensemble of actors and actresses, directed by Greg Johnson, former director of Career Development at the college, was a tribute to Troupers director Joe Mongrone who due to medical necessity was unable to direct the organization's performance this year.

The last play constituted the last play for some of the SFC's best veteran actors and actresses. The senior members of the organization, Andrew Fisher, Rachel Kaminsky, and Nancy Marano began their SFC acting careers in the 1999 winter production of The Desperate Hours. Fisher is the current Troupers president. Dave Peters, who served as president of the Troupers last year, and debuted in the Spring 2000 production of Charlie's Aunt, also graduated in May 2003.

Senior members Michelle Susino and Steve Ryan made debuts in the 2001 Spring production of You Can't Take It With You. Among the five graduating seniors, many have received awards for their performances on the SFC stage. Fisher, who won Best Supporting Actor for his role as Hank in The Desperate Hours as well as Best Actor for his role as Hal in Picnic, and the amusing Elwood P. Dowd in last spring's production of Harvey, leads the group with three awards.

The graduating seniors, though sorry they could not work with director Joe Mongrone for their last performance, were glad to have worked with Johnson.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

The Baccalaureate Mass for the Class of 2003 took place at the Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary. SFC had the honor of having as celebrant the Most Reverend Ignatius Catanello '62.

Under the masterful direction of Dr. John Motley, the St. Francis College Choir filled the church once again with harmony and music. Members of the choir are Tricia Edmund, Brian Edwards, Canadace Jarrette, Krisson Joseph, Jose Marengo, Kellyann Massiah, Antonevia Ocho-Coultes, Chanardai Ramjattan, Jaime Romany, Godwill Vortia, and Martina Weber.

Duns Scotus SPRING 2003

The St. Francis Charter Day Convocation celebrated its one hundred and nineteenth anniversary on May 2, 2003. After the Processional and the National Anthem, interpreted by the St. Francis College Choir, Brother Kevin Smith, O.S.F. delivered the invocation. Dr. Frank Macchiarola, president of SFC, gave the address of welcome. Then followed the moment students and their parents and friends waited for: the introduction and induction of Duns Scotus Scholars. This year's inductees (pictured above) were:

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The Psychology Club participates in several fund raising efforts during the school year, usually in the form of bake sales and raffles. Proceeds gained from fundraisers go to the club, psychology department, and are donated to charities. Members of the Psychology Club also take part in various field trips, including foster care trips throughout the year.

Caribbean Sstudents' Association has grown over the years and has established itself as one of the most dominant and consistent organizations within the SFC community. It is committed to maintaining school spirit while creating a lasting bond of friendship among the Caribbean and other interested students.

The main goal of Haitian Alliance is to motivate students of Haitian provenience to understand and explore their unique culture. In doing so, the alliance educates its members in subjects such as Haitian history, music, and dance. The alliance promotes unity, leadership, and service.

S F C F L Y E R S

The Flyers Club welcomes all SFC Aviation students as well as anyone interested in Aviation. We are a very united community and have joined forces to carry out a few activities such as the trip to Farmingdale Museum, Careers in Aviation Night, and a Paintball Trip. Each year we also have our Valentine's Day balloon and rose sale in the cafeteria.

St. Francis Students Visiting Bella Italia

Victoria Groccia, Senior

Major: International Cultural Studies

This past summer I traveled to Italy for 5 weeks. I began my experience in Rome, where I stayed for 5 days. Rome displayed some of the most breathtaking sights because of the size and age of their existence. Some of these sights included: The Coliseum, The Palatine, The Vatican and Sistine Chapel, the Trevi Fountains, Spanish Steps, Castel San Angelo, and the Pantheon. From Rome I took an express train to Florence.

I stayed in Florence for four weeks where I studied at the school Lorenzo de' Medici. I took a super intensive Italian language class, which I attended five days a week three and a half hours a day. I lived with four other students in a Florentine apartment. Everyday on my way to school I walked over the Ponte Vecchio, through Piazza Signoria, and past the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore. Every evening around five you can listen to an authentic Gregorian chant.

On the weekends I visited Verona, Mantova, Lake Garda, Siena, San Gimignano, Venice and the islands off of Venice, Murano, Burano, and Torcello. In the famous Arena in Verona I saw the Opera "Il Travatore" by Giuseppe Verdi.

In Venice I saw a beautiful fire work show in Piazza San Marco. On the island of Murano a master glass artisan demonstrated how Venetian glass is made.

St. Francis In Assisi

Two St. Francis College students were offered the unique opportunity to visit Assisi, the Italian land where St. Francis lived. Thus, as a result of an essay contest, Alicia Pantaleon and Antonevia Ocho-Coultes, started their trip to Italy over the Christmas break. They shared these pictures with us, giving us a chance to see Assisi through their eyes.

Editor's Message:

2002-2003 was yet another year that put all of us to trial. Having to understand a war we fought in a different country, on a different continent, and a shaky economy that affected the biggest city in the world, our city of New York, we, the seniors, are ironically the most numerous class to graduate from St. Francis College. Once again, the SFC graduates have made it, and to you all we extend our CONGRATULATIONS, together with the most sincere wishes of success, both on a personal level, as well as in the career of your choice.

Music

From hip-hop to electronica, pop to rock, no one musical genre dominated the airwaves and headphones of America. The year saw new albums from Moby, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Eminem, Leann Rimes and many more. Kelly Clarkson's career as a chanteuse took off, Lance Bass was grounded as a cosmonaut, Ozzy showed why he's an iron man, and Triumph marked his territory at the VMAs.

Forget East Coast vs. West Coast

It's rapper versus puppet as Triumph the Insult Comic Dog has a run-in with Eminem's posse on MTV's Video Music Awards.

Britney not so caliente

The divine Miss Spears is booed in Mexico City after she bails her concert just four songs in.

Still red hot

Flea and Anthony continue to assault eardrums and find creative uses for socks on the new Chili Peppers album, "By the Way."

Don't tell Elvis...

Kelly Clarkson becomes the first "American Idol" and hits #1 on the Billboard singles chart.

Bye bye bye!

Lance Bass trains to become the first member of a boy band in orbit. But when he fails to pony up the $20 million fee, the Russians say "nyet!" and send him home.

Something to Crow about

Sheryl Crow performs at the One World, One Child Benefit Concert in Beverly Hills.

Science

Zebra, king of the ocean?

Scientists discover that great white sharks are repelled by zebra striping.

The past year might be remembered as the one in which science fiction met science fact. Our good friends in the white lab coats discovered that dogs could count, fish could walk, and sharks really wanted nothing to do with zebras. Who knew? Humans made a few headlines as well, with balloonist Steve Fossett circling the globe at several thousand feet and the space station crew circling it just a bit higher.

Around the world in 14 days

After some 21,000 miles and two weeks aloft, Steve Fossett becomes the first person to circumnavigate the globe in a balloon.

A long way for pizza delivery

The International Space Station receives its fifth three-person crew, who live and work in orbit for four straight months.

Well, that's disturbing

Meteorologists discover that the Antarctic ozone hole has divided into two parts that are spreading away from each other.

The dog did my homework

Researchers at UC-Davis theorize that dogs have basic math skills, including the ability to count. No word on differential calculus.

That's even more disturbing

The snakehead, a.k.a. the "Frankenfish", is discovered in eight U.S. states. The Chinese fish can walk on land and decimate native ecosystems.

Walk like an Egyptian

Scientists employ a camera-toting robot to enter a previously inaccessible secret chamber of Egypt's Great Pyramid.

Trends

Styles past and future, cheap and chic blended to make the year interesting for the trend-conscious. Denim made a comeback for the 287th time in history, while new electronic devices offered functionality that James Bond would envy. Not to mention that the modern look of Starck and Oldham hit traditional department stores, surfers hit suburbia, and lots of teen girls happily got mud on their faces.

It's, like, totally exfoliating!

Seventeen magazine opens its first spa dedicated exclusively to teens just outside of Dallas, Texas.

Who cares if we live in Ohio?

Surf/skate fashion is cool, with brands such as Ezekiel, Hurley, and BC Ethic making a big splash on the half-pipe.

Feeling blue?

Denim is in, from jean jackets to hip-huggers, hats to handbags.

Fire up those synapses

You will be integrated

High-tech worlds converge as new devices blend capabilities of the cell phone, MP3 player, camera, and PDA.

It's pronounced "Tar-zhay"

Television

Simon says...

Kelly Clarkson, Justin Guarini, and Nikki McKibbin vie for the top spot on "American Idol: The Search for a Superstar."

The blue light continued to mesmerize viewers with lots of big departures, epic celebrations, and naughty puppets. The cast of "Friends" waved so long to their $1-million-per-episode contracts (or did they?), while "SNL" lost its #1 George Dubya impersonator. NBC dominated the Emmy Awards, Fox dominated the market for Comedies Set Three Decades Ago, and "Crank Yankers" made us all afraid to pick up that phone call.

Bell-bottoms, bell-bottoms everywhere...

The Fox hit "That 70s Show" celebrates its 100th episode with a flurry of polyester and feathered hair.

Bad puppet! Bad, bad, puppet!

Never let a puppet use your calling card—"Crank Yankers" debuts on Comedy Central.

Gimme an L! Gimme an A T E R!

Will Farrell jumps the "SNL" ship and takes his cheerleader sweater with him. Let's hope it's not for "Another Night at the Roxbury."

The Emmy Awards

Conan O'Brien hosts as NBC wins big with 24 awards, including nods to "Friends" and "The West Wing."

Friends no more?

Joey, Rachel, and the rest of the "Friends" weigh whether to return for one more season of their insanely successful show.

EVOTEE

America spent much of the year remembering those lost in last year's terrorist attacks and studying ways to bolster national security. Congress and President Bush debated responses to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and allegations that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was building weapons of mass destruction. Meanwhile, forest fires raged across Arizona and other states, threatening thousands of homes and millions of acres of parkland.

Election 2002

Republicans keep control of the House and regain the Senate, while the Democrats pick up additional gubernatorial offices.

Sniper suspects

Police apprehend John Allen Muhammad and John Lee Malvo and charge them with killing ten people in the Washington, D.C., area.

National tragedy

Space Shuttle Columbia launches on a tragic mission. All seven crew members are lost after the vehicle disintegrates upon re-entry. February 1, 2003

Arizona ablaze

Firefighters across the southwestern U.S. battle intense forest fires fueled by severe drought.

Fighting terrorism at home

President Bush and Congress consider the creation of a Homeland Security Office to combat domestic terrorism.

Movies

When good Jedis go bad
"Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones" continues the saga of Anakin Skywalker's fall to the dark side.

"The Two Towers"
Elijah Woods is back with furry feet and dangerous cargo in the second installment of "The Lord of the Rings" trilogy.

The word in Hollywood? Sequels. Samuel L. Jackson and a digitized Yoda drew their light sabers for "Star Wars Episode II," while the fellowship continued its dangerous mission in the follow-up to "The Lord of the Rings." Will and Tommy Lee kept the universe safe for another summer as Mike Myers went for another groovalicious turn as Austin Powers. There were also a few original flicks, including a sci-fi thriller from Steven Spielberg and new creepiness from the director of "The Sixth Sense" and "Unbreakable."

Do you see the "Signs?"
Mel Gibson stars in M. Night Shyamalan's imaginative tale of crop circles and little green men.

Bourne clueless

Matt Damon battles amnesia and bad men with guns in "The Bourne Identity."

Prelude to a pre-crime
Tom Cruise must prove his innocence in Steven Spielberg's "Minority Report."

Once bitten...
As "Spider-man," Tobey Maguire discovers that with friends like Willem Dafoe, you really don't need enemies.

Back in black
Will Smith and Tommy Lee Jones suit up to save the planet...again... in "Men in Black II."

Oh, behave!
Mike Myers and Beyonce Knowles get their retro groove on for the third Austin Powers movie, "Goldmember."

Sports

It was another big year for world and U.S. sports. Fans across the globe stayed up late, got up early, and tuned in to live broadcasts of the World Cup from Japan and Korea. Ronaldo helped Brazil hoist the Copa Mundial after a disappointing loss to France four years earlier. Americans had their fair share of epic victories as well, with Lance rolling through the Champs-Elysées ahead of his European rivals and Serena Williams dominating the world tennis scene.

Trauma centers on alert

Gravity...and the human instinct for self-preservation...are defied once again as the X-Games roll onto ESPN.

No strikes, just strikeouts

Major League Baseball avoids a strike while the Anaheim Angels beat the S.F. Giants in 7 games to win the World Series.

Sibling rivalry

The Williams sisters take the #1 and #2 spots in world tennis rankings.

Three-for-all

The L.A. Lakers earn their third set of championship rings in as many years.

Viva Brazil!

Brazil captures its sixth World Cup title, while the United States advances to the quarterfinals by beating Mexico.

16,726 plus 1

Cowboys running back Emmitt Smith breaks Walter Payton's all-time rushing record.

Unstoppable

American cyclist Lance Armstrong rides to his fourth consecutive Tour de France victory.

Super Bowl Champs!

Tampa Bay Buccaneers beat the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to win Super Bowl XXXVII.
