

DEDICATION

PROFESSOR JOHN CLIFFORD

Dedication . . . means many things to many people; no two people view a person, action, or object in the same perspective. The staff of the 1968 Franciscan has endeavored through pictorial means to capture the essence, spirit, and character of a faculty member beloved by the staff and respected by all who have associated with him while at St. Francis.

Words are not sufficient to express exactly what Professor Clifford has come to mean to the staff. Affectionately known to us as "Mr. C," he has seen the Franciscan through many problems and trying times. Mr. Clifford assumed the position of moderator four years ago. The graduating seniors, or rather the Franciscan Veterans, have published four successful yearbooks under his guidance.

Selection of such a man was easy for those of us who have been so closely associated with him. His obvious dedication to the students and his concern for their aspirations has endeared him to St. Francis. His patient understanding and ever-present humor gave to the student body a treasure which will ever be remembered.

It is with these thoughts in mind that we, the staff of the 1968 Franciscan, respectfully dedicate this book to our moderator Mr. John Clifford.
