

Thirteen seniors were elected to Who's Who Among Students . . . by Council approval of the committee's selections. Members of the committee included Bill McCormick, John Fitzgerald, John O'Connor, Sal Allocco and Joe Murphy.

President Murphy was elected by the student body on a simple majority vote following an indecisive election.

The report by Jim Hudson, Bill Walsh and Dom Mollignano aided toward installment of lockers in the Court Street Lounge.

Jim O'Connor and Frank Macchiaiola listen to Ed Brophy's argument for student parking on the Moran Courts during the winter months.

Sal Allocco argues for the nominal donation to the Loyalty Fund, while Vinny Polito, Ed Brophy, Joe Lopez and Mike Henning debate the issue.

The Blood Drive netted 105 pints due to the work and campaigning of committeemen George Festa, Bill Walsh, Joe Murphy (seated), Jerry Atkins, Joe Crowley, and Jim Hudson.

Bill Walsh and John McCormick headed committees for the successful stag dances this year.

Bill and John McCormick listen to Dick Flynn's optimistic views concerning the social calendar; most weekends were filled by activities.

Major action is taken by the Council to aid the clubs in the college. Representatives Buzinkai, Maguire and Ferguson (front row), and Fitzgerald, Walsh, Fallon, Allocco, Messineo and Molignano contributed to much discussion concerning slumping school spirit.