

Yale University and West Point were threats to S.F.C. all year. The College faced the Elis and the Cadets in the last games of league encounters and clinched two exciting triumphs. Yale fell first, 8-5. Bill Harris chipped in with three decisive goals to hold off the talented Ivy Leaguers. West Point was victimized by the Red and Blue scoring machine, succumbing 10-8. Christy and Harris scored three times each while Co-captains Svirida and Flinter chipped in with two apiece.

The Terriers are presently seeking to put successive titles together. Although hurt by the loss of Joe Svirida, an all-time great, Bill Flinter and Tom Murphy, the team has eight letter men returning. Among the returnees are Christy, Harris, Walsh and Gasior. Newcomers Joe Vohs and Jim Thamm undoubtedly will add support.

Coach Schaem poses with the high-scoring pair of Harris and Christy.

D
E
F
E
N
D
S

T
I
T
L
E

Harris and Christy demonstrate their lethal scoring techniques.

Kneeling: Joe Vohs, Dom Tricarico, Bill Harris, Tom Walsh Stan Gaisor, Dennis Christy, Jim Thamm. Standing: Kevin McQuade, Doug Schenk, Myles Kelleher, Bob Bombara, (Coach) Charlie Schaem, John Jacques, Frank Schneller, Steve Korolczuk, Tim Desmond.

Jim Thamm pauses in expectation.

Get rid of that /#* @ thing!