The periodical room is an excellent place in which to read, talk, and sleep.

"Hello Brother? I just called to say that a white bird just flew out of the 200 section," says Mrs. Halloran.

"Is it overdue or overrdue?" asks Mr. Hueschkel.

Miss Cuff, our periodical librarian, looks up from her work.

"I wonder if Mr. Hueschkel know how to spell overdue?" wonders Mrs. Kearney.

Miss Pascocello takes time out to smile for our photographer.

A student prepares to descend into our bargain basement.
