

Division of

JAMES J. FLYNN

Professor of History; Chairman, Social Studies Division; B.A., Fordham University; M.A., Ibid.; Ph.D., Ibid.

The Division of Social Studies aims to awaken in the student a clear realization of his true position in a Christian Democracy. The courses in the Division are geared to develop a love of one's fellowman so that the student may participate in and work for the betterment of society; to acquaint him with a knowledge of our social and economic heritage which the study of the past provides as an interpretation of the present; to see always the working of Divine Providence and the exercise of man's free will in molding the destinies of men and nations; to understand the need of a clear sense of values in summing up the importance of the past in relation to current situations; to furnish him with a knowledge of our heritage and its application to modern social and economic issues.
