

Some people lose their very identity.

"My name has got to be here somewhere!"

"My name isn't here?"

"Sorry, I've never seen you before".

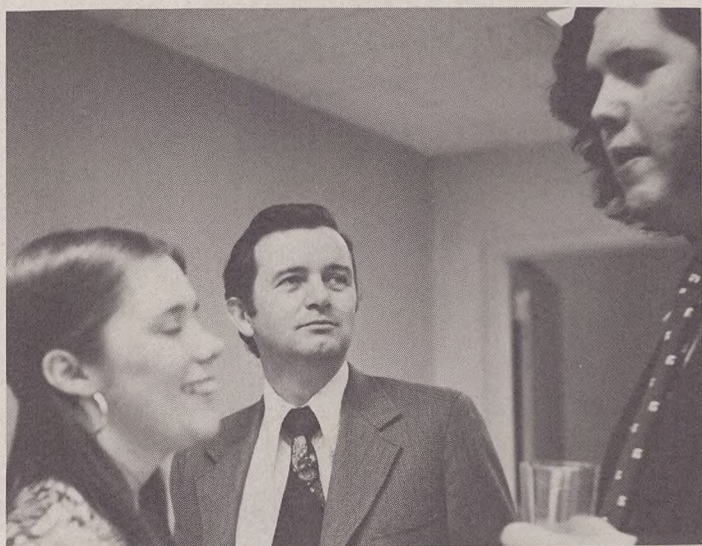

"Now let's see . . . Could your name be Olaf?"

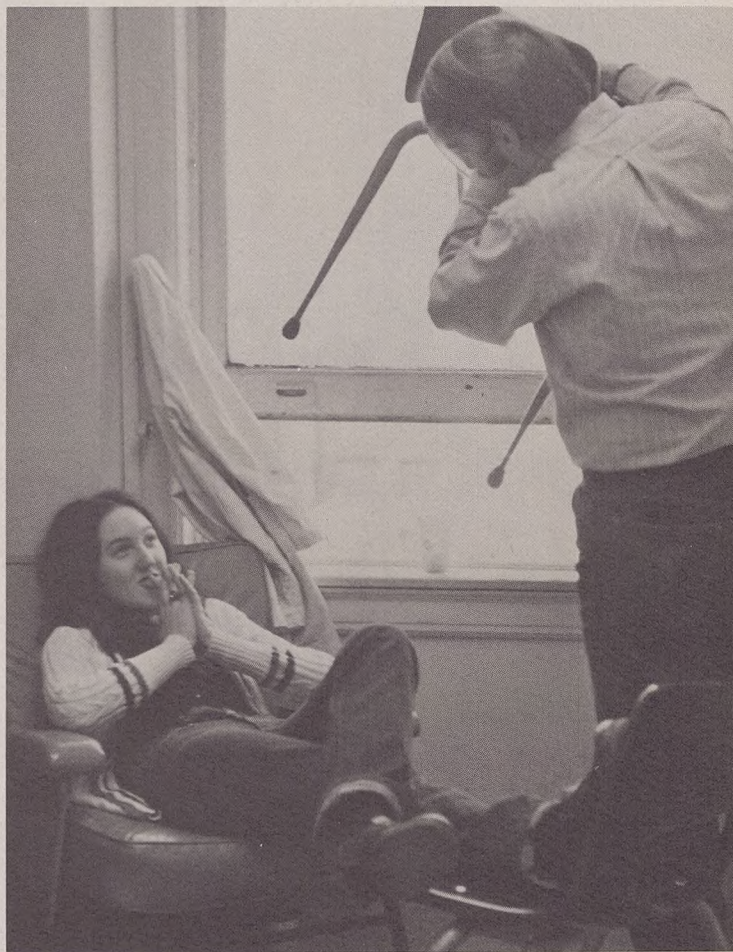

While others have to be beat into submission . . .

"I really think you should apologize to my friends."

"He's lucky he's bigger than I am."

"This'll teach you to cut class!"

"You've been found guilty and sentenced to five more years at St. Francis."
