

Mrs. Torrone:
Thanks for all your help with the sorority and in general.
Keep them hopping next year.

Laura

Professor DeBenedetto, Welcome to the sorority. I am sorry we did not have the opportunity to do more work together.

Laura

Grandpa,
I know you are watching over me. You will always be a special part of my life.

Love always,

Laura

Lecelle D. Providence, Your friendship is something that money can't buy. You are a very special person with love, caring, understanding and always willing to help others.

Best of Luck,

Shirley

Mom and Dad,
Thank you for all of your love and support over the years. I would not have made it alone. I am glad we were able to share the good times.

All my love,

Laura

Aunt Joanne and Uncle John, Thank you for being there for me. You are like second parents and I hope I have made you both as happy as you have made me.

All my love,

Laura

Dr. Langiulli,
What did you do to get stuck with me for three years?!? My thesis and I are grateful for all of your help. Thank you for always taking the time to listen to me.

Your Faithful Indian

Companion

Lisa,
Next year hang the garland from the ceiling! It is up to you to keep an eye on them up there. Thanks for being a terrific friend!!

Laura

To The Sisters of Pi Sigma Delta, Thanks for the good times. It is up to all of you now to keep the sorority going. Keep the spirit and the tradition alive.

Ever True Soopy

To The Graduating Brothers of Alpha Kappa Psi:

Thanks for your help, your times, and your friendship. You taught us what brotherhood is all about. You guys are and shall be our friends. Good luck always in your future endeavors. In U and I,

The Brothers of Alpha

Kappa Psi

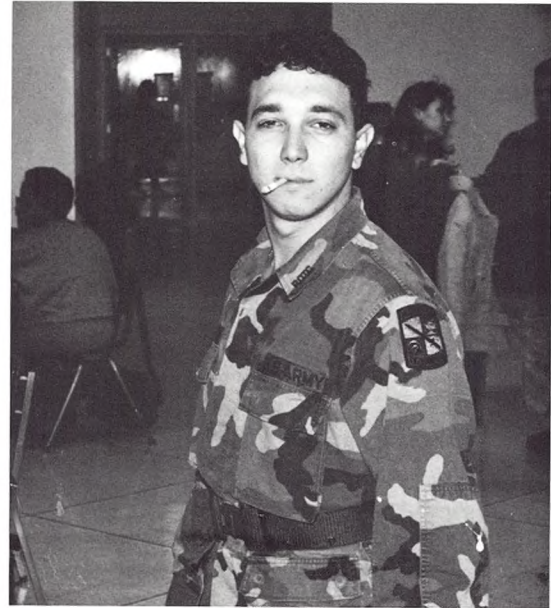

Hey Mare — I wanna dance with somebody!

Christmas just would be Christmas without a S.F.C. Party.

Christmas in the Admissions office.

They call me Rambo.
