

Jack Lenze

The men from Equitable Life must not have any insurance.

The flash of the outfield, Gerry Lenze.

VARSITY SCHEDULE

April	3	Saturday	New York State Tech	Away 1:00 P.M.
	6	Tuesday	Saint Peter's College	Away 3:00 P.M.
	10	Saturday	Iona College	Away 2:00 P.M.
	21	*Wednesday	Queens College	Home 2:00P.M.
	24	*Saturday	Adelphi College	Home 2:00P.M.
	26	*Monday	Kings Point	Away 3:00 P.M.
	28	*Wednesday	Pace College	Away 3:00 P.M.
May	1	*Saturday	Long Island University	Home 2:00P.M.
	4	*Tuesday	Pratt Institute	Away 3:00 P.M.
	6	*Thursday	New York Aggies	Away 4:00 P.M.
	8	*Saturday	Fort Schuyler	Away 1:30 P.M.
	11	*Tuesday	Hunter College	Away 3:00 P.M.
	15	*Saturday	Hofstra College	Home 2:00P.M.

*Denotes Knickerbocker Intercollegiate Baseball Conference game

BASEBALL

For the second straight year, the Terrier Baseball squad entered the new Knickerbocker Baseball Conference. The nucleus of the squad was comprised of hard-hitting centerfielder Gerry Lenze, and his dependable brother Jack on the first base sack. Pitching was dependent on Tom Loughery, a sophomore who proved his metal as a varsity man last year, and on veteran Jack Lenze.

Many underclassmen reported to tryouts and the prospects were for a 'green' team with pitching, as usual, the questionable factor.

Two sophs, Ralph D'Amato and Tom Powers, were also on the starting team occupying the left field and catching posts respectively.

Out at the plate.

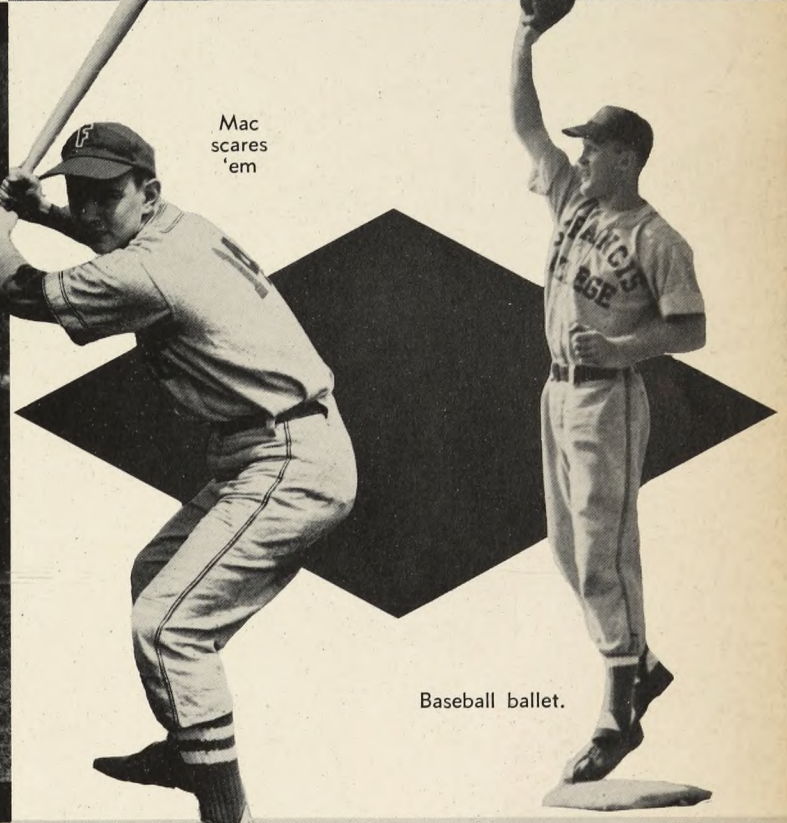

Loughery sure gets around.

Tom Powers, sophomore catching star, awaits the delivery.

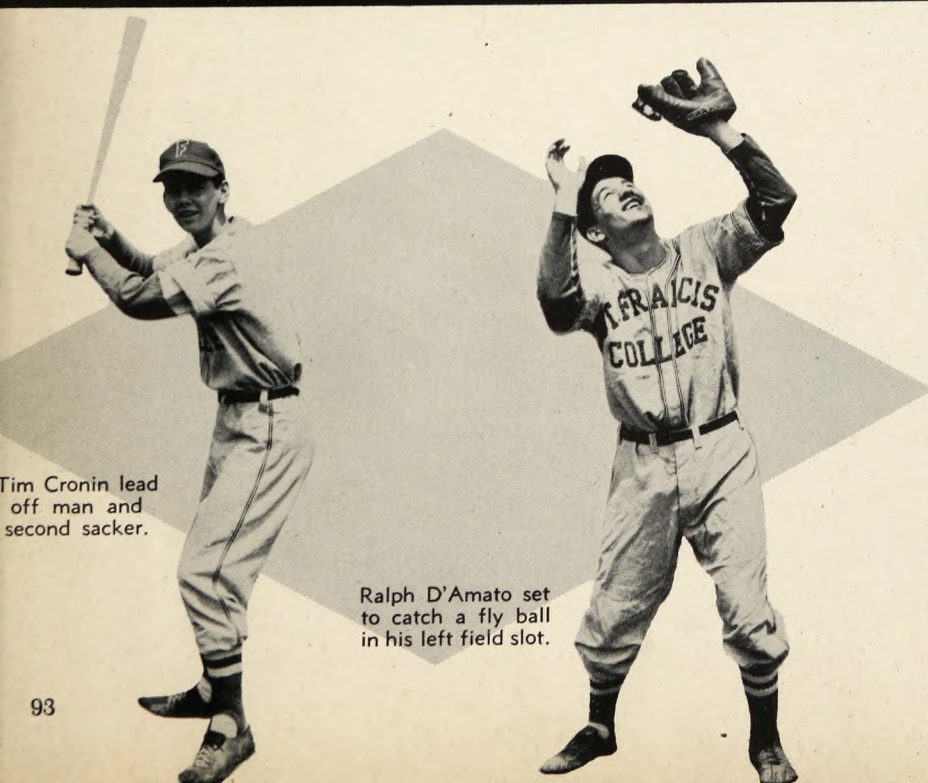

Skull session before the game.

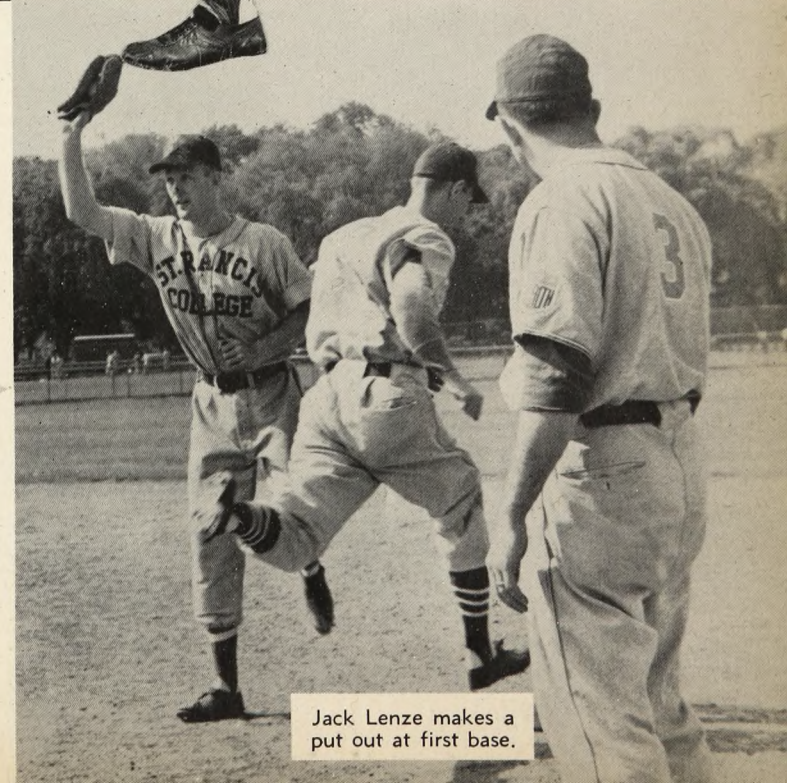

Mac scares 'em

Baseball ballet.

Tim Cronin lead off man and second sacker.

Ralph D'Amato set to catch a fly ball in his left field slot.

Jack Lenze makes a put out at first base.