IN CONVEYING our appreciation to all who have made this publication possible, we, the editors of THE 1938 FRANCISCAN, desire to express our gratitude especially to our moderator, Rev. Brother Leo, for his enthusiasm and guidance as well as for his practical assistance in all details of our work, without which all efforts of ours would have been in vain; to Rev. Brother Columba for his generosity in providing us with adequate working quarters in the peace and quiet of the monastery; to Mr. Thomas J. McLaughlin, Jr., of the Robert W. Kelly Publishing Corporation for his personal interest in perfecting the layout, design, and general appearance of the annual; to Brother Jerome for his encouragement and to the Office Staff for their help in the host of routine matters; to Delar Studio for their excellent photographs and for the fine spirit of willingness and cooperation ever manifested; to Mr. Emlen Jones for his untiring efforts in providing us with the informal photographs of the Seniors; to Messrs. Frank Hrbek and Al Lenowicz for the loan of several basketball action photographs; to Mr. Frank Fidgeon for his invaluable aid in furnishing the cartoons that appear in the Features Section; to the various classes, clubs, and fraternities for their cooperation with the editors in the preparation of copy; to Mr. Alfred Donohue for his success in soliciting so much of the advertising; to our patrons and advertisers for their generosity and good-will in establishing THE 1938 FRANCISCAN on a sound financial basis; and finally to all the students and faculty who by their patronage of the Seniors' business enterprise did much to insure the success of this annual.
