

Desiree Sampson takes a trip to Italy during the Easter break to complete her senior comprehensive thesis. She is a Communications major with a concentration in Film and Broadcasting. Dr. Lynne Jackson is her advisor.

- ▲ Florence: one of the largest fountains in the town
- ▶ Florence: Michelangelo's famous statue of David

- ▲ View of the facade of the Pantheon, one of the Rome's best preserved monuments.
- ▶ Getting the film and cameras ready to begin shooting the Coliseum and the Roman Forum.

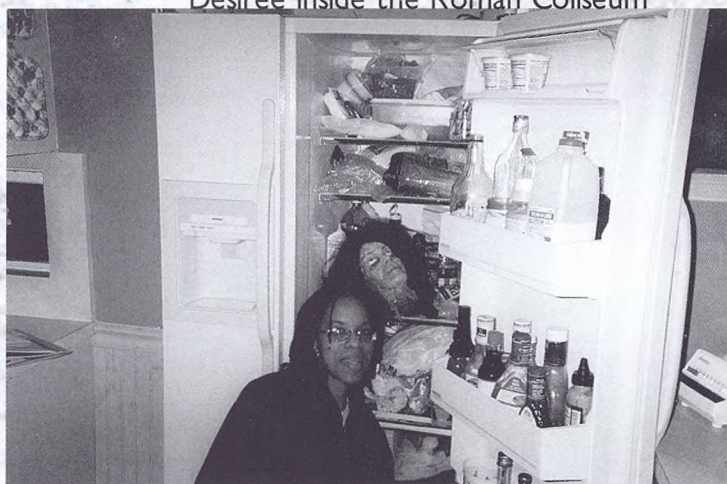

Dr. Jackson and Desiree are attacked by Roman soldiers outside the Coliseum.

Desiree inside the Roman Coliseum

▲ Florence: a view of Giotto's Bell Tower with a view of Brunelleschi's Dome over the duomo or cathedral of Florence.

Bottom right: So what's in your fridge? A behind-the-scenes shot on the set of the film "And Then They Were Dead," produced by communications professor David Gewirtz.

