THE editors, assistants, copyists, budding authors and layout experts, camera fiends, conference men, ad solicitors, pasters, scissor men, and consultants band together in a voluble but dignified salute to those thoughtful souls whose efforts have made this edition possible:

To the ever-present Rev. Brother Leo for his unselfish services as faculty moderator during our Senior year.

To Rev. Brother Jerome for providing a secluded Franciscan office away from the maddening crowd.

To Mr. Thomas J. McLaughlin, Jr., of Kelly Publishing Company for valuable assistance in this volume's production and for daring but cool-headed one-handed catches of flying, wayward copy.

To Lucas & Monroe, Inc., whose skillful photographic art is herein proudly displayed.

To Townsend Sausville, Frank Berry and Frank Sciacchitano for their excellent action basketball shots.

To Mr. Frank Hrbek for the gracious loan of attractive action shots to grace our Sports section.

To the willing undergraduates whose candid camera scurryings find cherished abode in these pages.

To the advertisers for an end-all and be-all service.

To the classes, clubs, fraternities, and faculty for cooperation in allowing us to preserve their profiles for a retrospective posterity.

We offer this finished product, the 1939 FRANCISCAN, as proof that their kind efforts were not entirely futile.
