

Student Life

"In my beginning is my end. Now the light falls
Across the open field, leaving the deep lane
Shuttered with branches, dark in the afternoon.
Where you lean against a bank while a van passes.
And the deep lane insists on the direction
Into the village, in the electric heat
Hypnotized. In a warm haze the sultry light
Is absorbed, not refracted, by greay stone.
The dahlias sleep in the empty silence.
Wait for the early owl."

T.S. Eliot
"East Coker"
