Dear Theresa,
Thanks for the typewriter. The Franciscan wouldn't have been complete without it. I wish you the best — you deserve it.

Dear David,
It's not love.

Dear Andy,
Have you seen Steve lately?
Marie and Liz

Dear Stephen,
Have you seen Andy lately?
Marie and Liz

Dear Bobbie,
You're like a mom to me and I thank you for all your love — even if you do like cowboys.
Love, Lizzy D.

Mom and Aunt Diane, Thanks for all the love, support (and vacations during spring break) through my college years. I love you both very much.
Love, Elizabeth

Dear Marie and Noel, Hope your years together are as great as the years I've spent with Marie.

Love, Liz

Dear Dom,
I would have written you a booster but ... just kidding.
Thanks for all the good times and the bad (you didn't think I'd forget those.) Remembering what you once said — Good friends are hard to find and even harder to lose. Let's not lose touch.

Love Ya,
Liz

Dear Marie,
Who would ever believe that first day in history class would lead to vacations in Florida, Scruffy Studs, Leftover Sal Clubs, name that tune, looking marvelous, jumping off your porch, considering things just for fun, finding out what "real men" are, checking out Christmas trees in Staten Island, men in leopard skin pants, Mr. Bill, U2 concerts, under the Board Walk with John Cougar, two wild Americans in Ireland — and the list goes on. I never knew college would be so much fun. But then it wouldn't have been fun without you. I'm glad we're friends.

Love Ya,
E(Liz)abeth
