

Intramurals Underway

Bull's-eyes and Maggie's Drawers were in ample evidence during the Rifle Intramurals which were held in January. A total of 75 students participated in the competition which was sponsored by the Rifle Club. The participants under the direction of Brother Conrad, Club Moderator, competed in two divisions firing from the prone, sitting and standing positions. Robert Jankesh led the first Division with 252 points out of a possible 300. He was closely followed by Dennis Kennedy, 248, and Richard Randall, 247. In the second division, Gregory Egan was high man with 222. Brother Albert, 218, and Joseph Svirida, 210, took second and third places respectively.

During the Fall, Intramural Track and Field games were held at Van Cortlandt Park. John Clifford captured top honors in the competition which included the high jump, broad jump, shot put, 100 and 440 yard dashes.

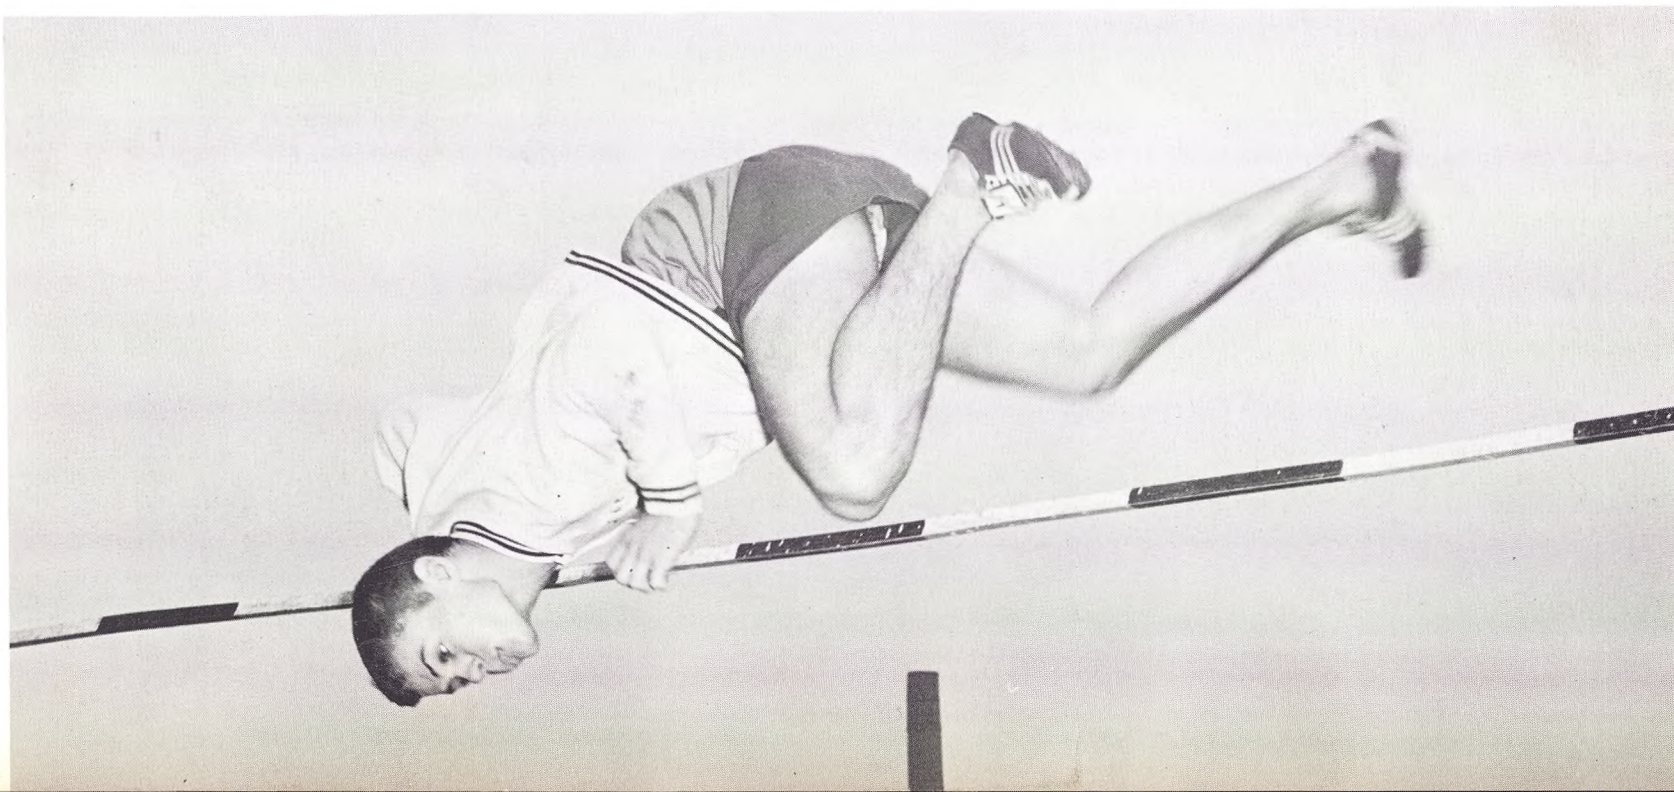

At this writing, other intramurals are about to begin. Basketball Intramurals will be held in the refurbished gym at Butler Street during March. Volley Ball and Foul Shooting competitions will follow. Other Intramurals planned for the Spring are Bowling, Handball, and Swimming at the Metropolitan Pool.

Michalski scored high in rifle intramurals at Armory but was defeated by 252 round of Bob Jankesh.

Slayne makes like a budding Unitis at touch football during impromptu contest in the best of intramural spirits.

Clifford clears bar at 5' 4" in track intramurals. Variety of events also included dashes, shot put, and broad jump.

"Behind every successful man . . ."—variety of emotions mirrored by feminine supporters led by Mrs. Harris urge squad on at the West Point game.

Goal tender Roger Pullis, the final link in the Terrier defense, lunges to intercept an oncoming score.