

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Charlie Nowak goes for two in the St. John's game, which the Terriers eventually lost.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Dec.

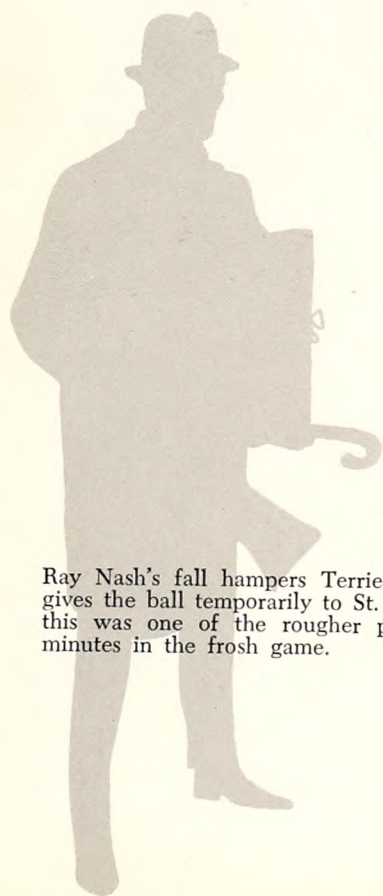

| | | |
|----|-------------------------------|--------|
| 1 | Hunter | Away |
| 4 | St. Peter's | Away |
| 8 | N. Y. Comm. Col. | Armory |
| 14 | Fairfield | Away |
| 19 | Adelphi | Armory |
| 22 | Fairleigh Dickenson | Away |

Jan.

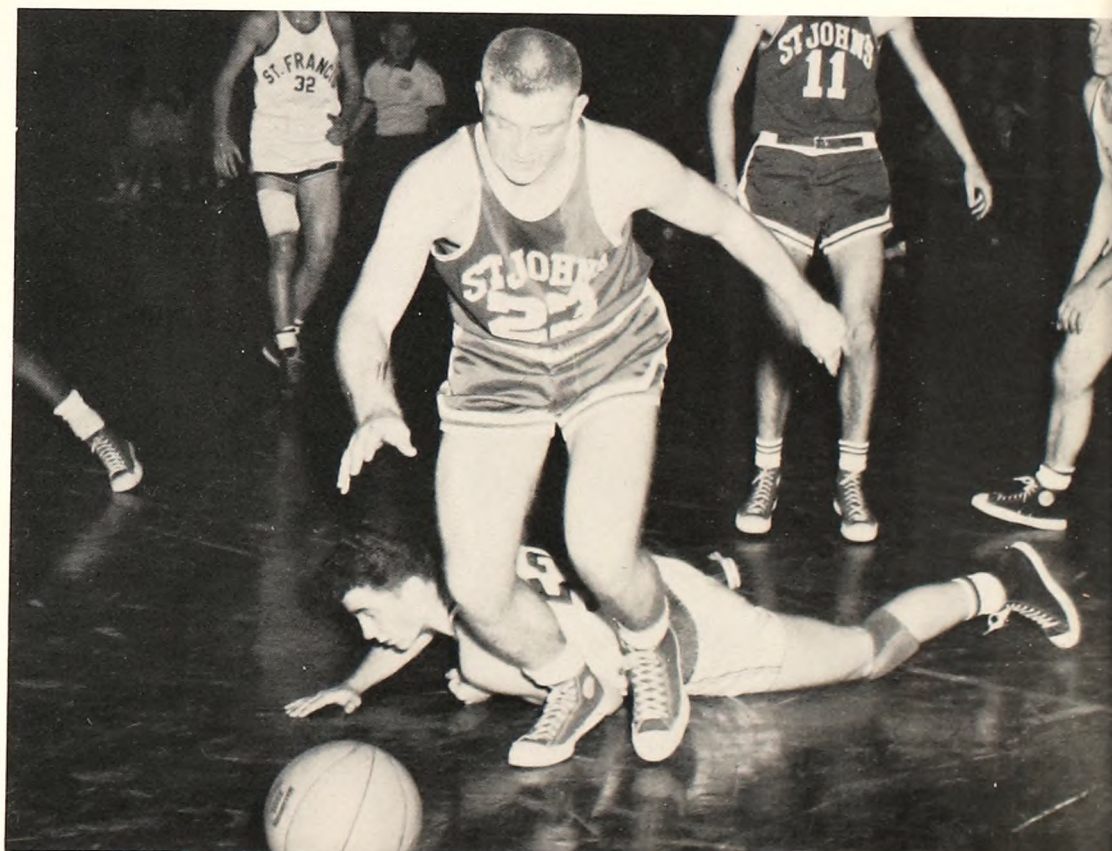

| | | |
|----|-----------------------|--------|
| 2 | St. John's | Armory |
| 5 | St. Peter's | Armory |
| 8 | Brooklyn | Away |
| 9 | Wagner | Away |
| 12 | Pace | Armory |
| 16 | Seton Hall | Away |

Feb.

| | | |
|----|-------------------------|--------|
| 2 | Pratt | Armory |
| 5 | Wagner | Armory |
| 15 | Iona | Armory |
| 17 | Queens | Away |
| 20 | St. John's | Away |
| 23 | Brooklyn Poly | Armory |
| 27 | C.C.N.Y. | Armory |

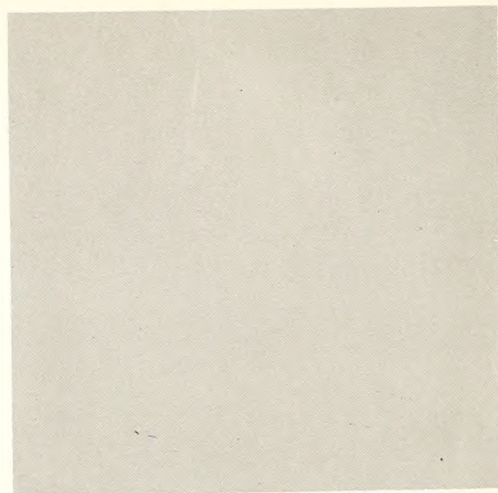

Ray Nash's fall hampers Terriers and gives the ball temporarily to St. John's this was one of the rougher playing minutes in the frosh game.

Charlie Nowak helps Jim Raftery up after an extremely difficult rebound play.

Ray Nash tosses off foul shot at St. John's game.

Marty O'Donnell, frosh coach, watches tensely during St. Peter's game.

