Peace Unit Formed Here

Along with Catholic colleges of the Eastern states, St. Francis has organized a unit of the Catholic Association for International Peace. Since the Conference at St. Joseph's College, February 13, the St. Francis delegates, Daniel Buckley and Austin Murphy, have been engaged in forming the new club.

Dr. Frank Naggi was enthusiastic over the plan of a St. Francis peace group; and he and Professor Gregory agreed to lend their full support to the plan. Dr. Naggi consented to be Faculty moderator of the club. At the Wednesday hour of International Law the peace group was the subject of interest. After Mr. Murphy had explained the aims and benefits of the C.A.I.P., the class voted on a name for the St. Francis unit. International Relations Club was the title chosen.

Brother Jerome in a conference with Austin Murphy signified his willingness that St. Francis should take an active part in intercollegiate organizations such as the Peace Association; and offered the cooperation of the college.
