

The Franciscan student's intellectual reputation . . .

. . . drew a number of representatives to the campus to compete for his service after graduation.

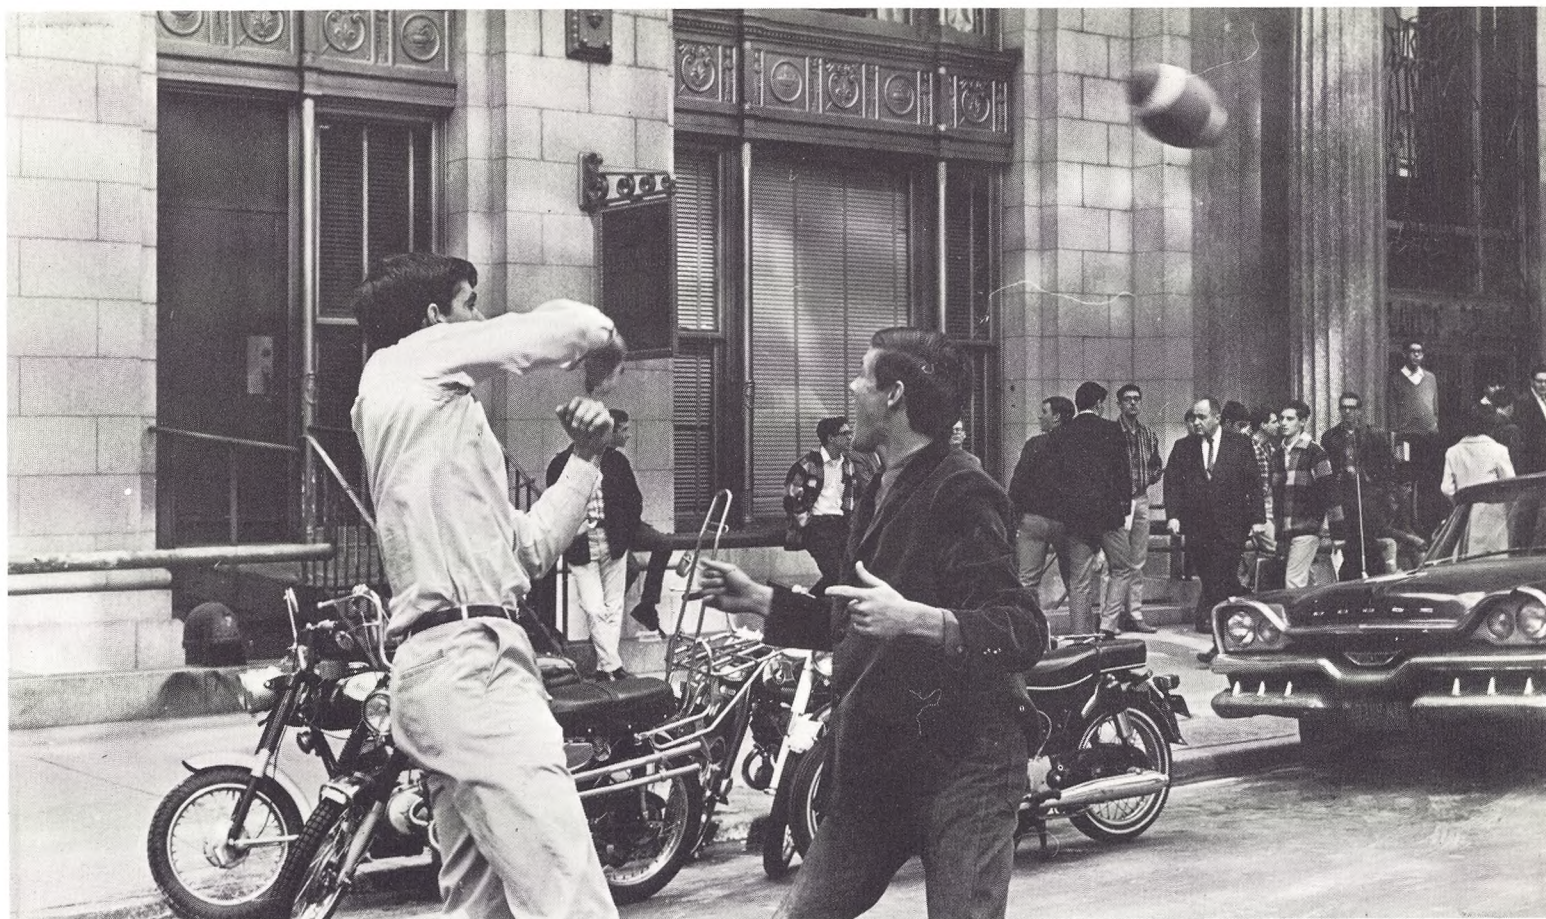

If I'd known that the Army was going to be here I'd have shined my shoes.

No, son, it won't get you out of the draft, but the pay is low.

Some of us entertained ourselves with sports . . .

song . . .

and dance.