This year has proved to be an exciting and informative one for the members of the Law Society. A provocative symposium on the book Challenges by James B. Donovan, hosted by Bro. Urban Gonnoud, highlighted the Society's evening program. A tour of the New York State Supreme Court introduced the members to the practical side of law.

Under the guidance of Dr. James Flynn, its Moderator, and Howard Muchnikoff, its President, the Society founded its first Journal. Primarily, the Journal will help to acquaint the undergraduate with the legal profession through expositions of the latest developments in the field of jurisprudence. Secondly, the Journal will help to eradicate the many misconceptions concerning the admission policies and academic reputation of the various law schools in the country.

Membership in the Society does not necessitate prior knowledge of law or pursuance of the legal profession. What the Society tries to do is to inculcate in the undergraduate a love and respect for the law as well as instruct him in the importance of legal knowledge in all fields of endeavor.
