

Acknowledgments

We the editors of THE 1942 FRANCISCAN wish to express our indebtedness and sincere gratitude to the following for their invaluable assistance in preparing this publication:

To BRO. LEO: for his untiring effort and willingness to help as moderator and for the inspiration and aid he has given.

To BRO. JEROME: for his invaluable financial aid, without which this yearbook would not have been.

To MR. McLAUGHLIN: for his capable supervision of the various phases of publication and for his enthusiasm for the departure from the stereotyped yearbook form.

To MR. ZIMET: for his special interest taken in preparing our engravings.

To "MIKE" of the White Studio for his agreeable nature and for the fine results in fulfilling our pictorial demands.

To MISS JO SEMINARA: for the many hours she spent typing copy for this publication.

To those members of the faculty who assisted in giving us an insight to theirs and their colleagues' social life.
