LOYALTY FUND CAMPAIGN

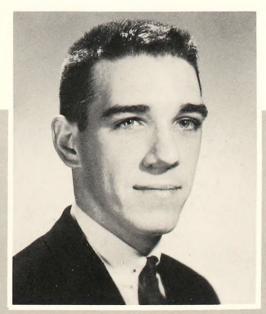

The Loyalty Fund Campaign was instituted this year to establish the Brother Jerome Memorial Scholarship Fund. Every four years, this scholarship will entitle a deserving Catholic youth to a full Franciscan education.

But more than this, the success of the drive was to be a measure of the loyalty of St. Francis students to their college, and of their confidence and concern for its development and improvement.

A goal was set, captains and stewards appointed to collect funds, and a six week period was set aside to measure up to the goal. With typical Franciscan enthusiasm, the drive was held, the results were tallied and the goal was realized.

Brothers Bernard and Camillus and leaders of the Senior Class, Bill McCormick, John Ferguson, Joseph Rand and Vincent Polito, plan the distribution of percentages to the Senior Class in order to evaluate their class percentage.

Brother Urban addressed the students during the initial stages of the drive to feel the measure of its popularity with the student body.

Discussing ideas concerning the steward system which was finally adopted, Brother Bernard asks Wayne Wisdom for his reaction to John and Bill McCormick's suggestion.

The Junior Class representatives plan collection strategy. Bob Campatano, Dom Molignano, Joe Walker, Carmine Allocco (back to camera), Frank Ferguson, Ed Brophy and (standing) John McCormick attend the Loyalty Fund's organizational meeting in February.

The Freshmen rally behind Class Moderator Brother Simeon as progress is made toward the class percentage. Stewards and captains included Joseph Addiego, Joseph Faiello, Joseph Gargiulo, Vincent DiClemente and Mark Thomas.
