

TROUPERS

The Troupers is the dramatics club of St. Francis. The biannual productions offer theatrical training to interested students and provide diverting entertainment for the students, their families and friends.

Frequent workshops polish the thespian abilities of the group, and contribute to the poise and self-confidence of the members. Meetings feature lectures in the history and techniques of the theatre.

JOHN O'CONNOR
President

"Bus Stop"

The second act highlight of Bus Stop featured Elaine Pentony (Cherie) singing "That Old Black Magic," to the edification of John O'Connor (Bo) and the accompaniment of George Sztabnik (Virgil).

JAMES GREEN
Producer

Mary Normandy (Elma) attempts to sober up Fred Kelly (Dr. Lyman). Jane Cush (Grace) stands by and glares sarcastically.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Bo . . . . .	John O'Connor
Cherie . . . . .	Elaine Pentony
Carl . . . . .	Dick Flynn
Grace . . . . .	Jane Cush
Virgil . . . . .	George Sztabnik
Will Masters . . . . .	Bill McCormick
Dr. Lyman . . . . .	Fred Kelly
Elma . . . . .	Mary Normandy

"Tom Dooley" was played by George Sztabnik. Mary Normandy of Bishop McDonnell High School played the ingenue.