

Baseball

The St. Francis College varsity baseball team, this year scheduled a 26-game slate, the largest in its history. In addition to 13 games in the Metropolitan Baseball Conference, the Terriers played a four game, two day road trip to the south. They have four experienced pitchers led by Al Figliolia, 1970's outstanding Pitcher of the Met Conference; Mike Salogub, a top hurler in the Atlantic Collegiate Baseball Conference last Summer; senior, Steve Haran and junior, Dan O'Leary.

The outstanding player this year was Lou Anemone who made among other awards, the District II All-American team, hitting .374 and the Met Conference All-Star squad.

