*Denotes Knickerbocker Conference game

Ray Nash awaits the three and two pitch. The bases were loaded and the tension was mounting.

Artie Beyer keeps the opposition from getting that extra jump. A few quick tosses from the pitcher kept the runner safely near the bag.

A hard-hit ground ball is dug out by third baseman Lou Velotta. Lou's slick fielding kept many a ball from going through the infield.

Artie Beyer's speed helped him beat out an infield hit. The hit, with two out, finally got the Terrier's started.
