Dear Franciscan,

The yearbook which you have just read, and I hoped enjoyed, is the work of a year which began last March and finished while you were preparing for your Easter vacation. I wish to thank some of those who have come to our aid and ask the indulgences of those whom I do not mention here.

Of course, a special thanks to Mr. John Clifford for his assistance during the trying moments we had in Room 500. I would also like to thank Bro. Theodore Campbell who always came through with the money we so often needed and to Mrs. Rita Burke for providing us with the essential stationery without which a book cannot be printed. Also to Mistery Eddie Adams, George Rubens, and Charles Rossi for their graciousness and for "keeping their cool" when I constantly presented them with problems.

The success of this book would not have been possible without the assistance of Robert Jones, Raymond Sullivan, Theodore Timmins, and Joseph Westfield. I thank these men and I will never forget them.

On behalf of the staff, I hope that you enjoyed the book and that you would not just put it in a corner but rather keep it as a memento of 1968 at St. Francis College.

Very truly yours,

Fabian de Jesus
