December 16th was the final day of classes before the Christmas holidays. Highlighting the assembly was an address by Brother Urban, several popular Christmas numbers rendered by the Campus Tones and a selection of hymns sung by the Glee Club. A surprise came at the assembly's close when Joe Murphy presented a gift from the student body to Mrs. McDermott for her wonderful work in the Lounge.

Richie Dryer hits for two points as the Terriers overcome a strong Siena team.

The Frosh basketball team did not enjoy a winning season, losing several close games. Jim Raftrey sets for two points in a losing cause against St. John's.

Phi Rho Pi held its 40th Annual Ball on January 23rd in the Colonial Room of the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel. Two hundred couples attended the affair. Sal Messineo led a gay conga line as the dancers weaved among the guests' tables.

Members of the Senior Class made a closed three day retreat between January 23rd and 27th. The class was divided into three groups, two going to Mount Alverno, the third to the Third Order Villa. Devotions were held out-of-doors by the seniors on retreat when the weather permitted.

Registration found Dick Manning, Wayne Wisdom and Jim Gannon attempting to work out a schedule of classes.

The closing day of the underclass retreat found most of the students at the communion rail, the perfect ending of a good retreat.

In late January, a group of students met in the Lounge where plans for the Loyalty Fund Campaign were unfolded to them by Brother Urban. The drive, dedicated to the memory of Brother Jerome, began in February and ran until April 11th. A goal of 100% student participation was set.
