

The new fraternity house offers a restful haven between classes. It also proves to be a means of bringing all the men of Pi Alpha closer together.

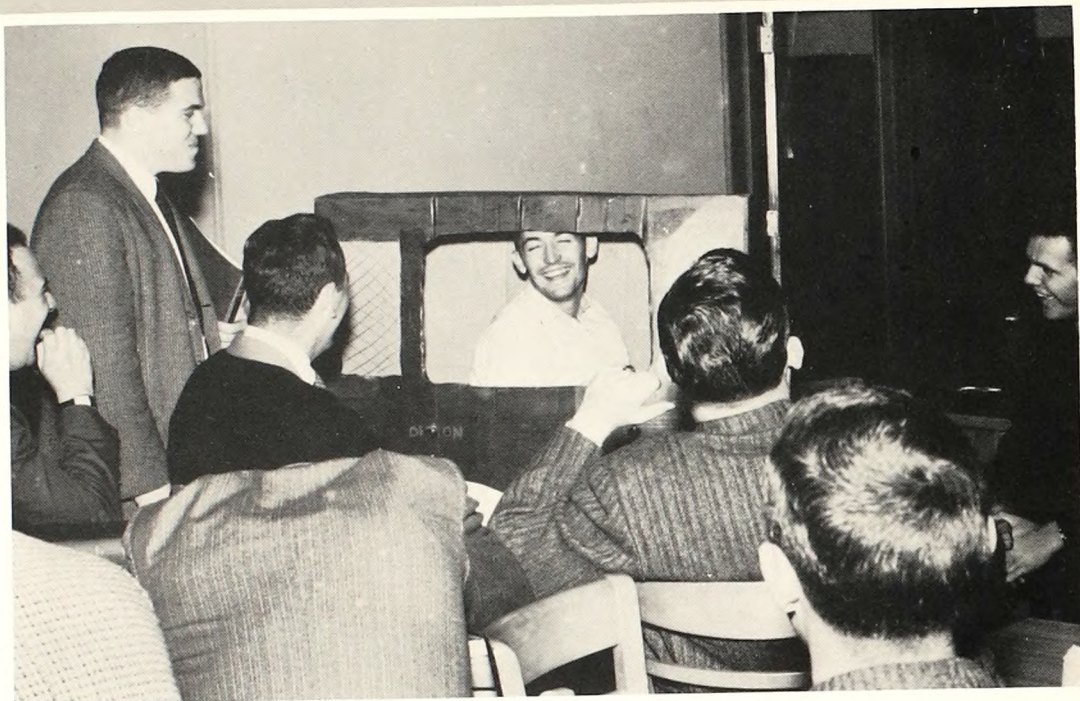

Tony Krasnick leads Wayne Wisdom, John Meudt and Fred Schneider in a bit of practice for the Music Appreciation course.

Underclassmen check the seating plan for the annual dance, while alumnus Jerry Gillia bargains with John Meudt for a choice table.

Dick Flynn proved to be one of the most entertaining "dogs" ever to pledge for Pi Alpha. Dick's antics packed the lounge whenever he appeared.

John Meudt admonishes off-key "dogs."

Everyone seems happy as dogging week nears its end; only Hell Night remains for the wary "dogs."