

PHOTO CLUB exposed

Photographers Bill Breyfogle, Jim Mitchel, Ted Timmins and Joe Westfield wait to join the human race.

Newly formed and with only a limited number of members, the Photography Club has accomplished a great deal. The six active members, all very interested in photography decided to band together for mutual protection and to save on their flash-bulbs. The club has undertaken photo tours of the N.Y.C. subway system (illegally), and has an art and photo exhibit planned for the spring.

Under the leadership of Ted Timmins, President, the club has attempted to bring photographic coverage to every aspect of college life. The "creative" efforts of photographers Bill Breyfogle, Jim Mitchell, Joe Westfield and Joe Mercurio have provided ample photographs for the school's various publications.

SAILING CLUB in victory

Ron Eidshaug and Joe Mulhern lecture on inland rules to the members.

The Sailing Club under the direction of President Joe Mulhern and Vice-President Ron Eidshaug, has again completed a successful year of sailing meets and events.

Besides giving the novice sailor a good background in sailing techniques and boat handling, water safety is stressed to insure the safety of the team members on the water.

Having twelve meets to their credit, the Sailing Club has placed in all but two of the meets. Thus, it was a very good year for the Club and all members involved.

Frank O'Connor, Mike McInerney, Conrad Leifauf, Terry Ellison, John Lomacchio, Bob Dennis, Frank Cavallo, Phil Caserta, Joe Carone, Rich Gido, Gary Isgro, John Dellasala, Ronnie Eidshaug, Joe Mulhern, Mike Pregot, John Nash.