The Franciscan . . .

in behalf of the Franciscan Brothers, the lay faculty, and the students of St. Francis College, extends felicitations and renewed pledges of filial devotion to our beloved Shepherd and most illustrious alumnus of St. Francis College.

ARCHBISHOP THOMAS EDMUND MOLLOY

upon the occasion of his elevation to the exalted dignity of Archbishop ad personam by His Holiness Pope Pius XII.

Able administrator for three decades of the largest diocese in the United States, his zealous and religiously fruitful endeavors have been notably characterized by the multiplication of educational establishments, the fostering of the Catholic Press, an increase in the number of charitable institutions, the conversion of non-Catholics within the Diocese, and support of the home and foreign missions.

United in prayerful joy we thank God for the signal honor that has been bestowed upon our Apostolic leader, and humbly beseech our heavenly Father to grant our beloved Archbishop choicest graces for many more years of spiritually productive guidance of our Diocese.

AD MULTOS ANNOS!
