

It was one of the biggest stories of the basketball season — Michael Jordan, one of the NBA's most popular players announced his retirement. Legions of fans were saddened when Jordan made this announcement at a news conference

OCTOBER 6, 1993

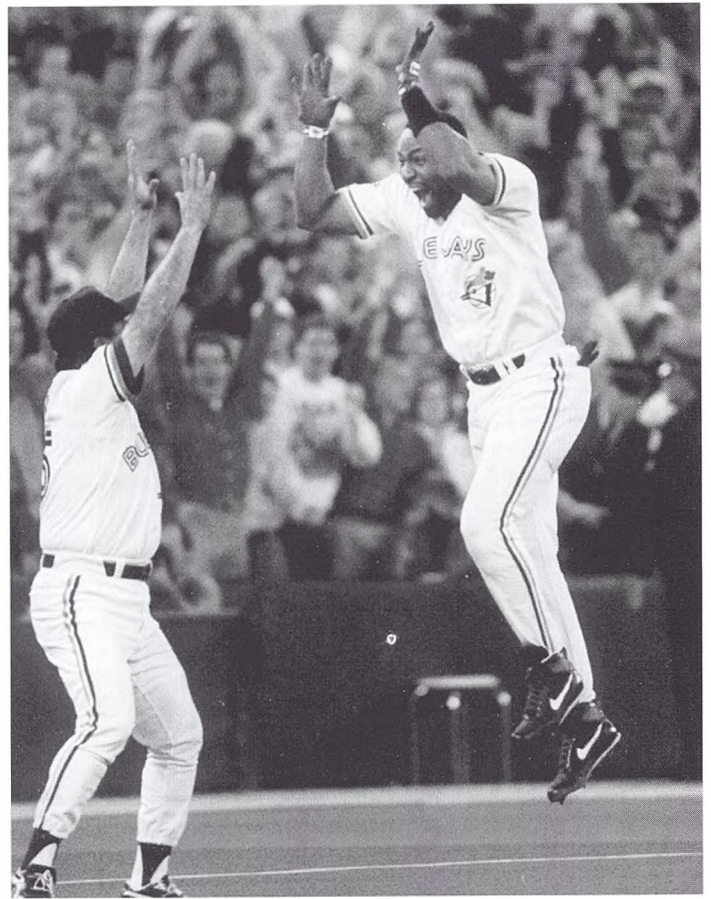

On September 13, 1993, history was made when two old enemies, Yasser Arafat and Yitzhak Rabin shook hands and pledged peace between them. This took place on the White House lawn under the guidance of President Clinton.

The world watched as pictures of starving children emerged from Somalia.

Toronto Blue Jays take the World Series.