

Buildings are used for many purposes — spiritual, family, cultural, commercial and entertainment. These correspond to man's activities. The students of St. Francis College take part in activities that prepare them for their life in the Church, the home, in business and in the worthy use of their leisure time.

ACTIVITIES

---