Great Terrier

ED MIKOS

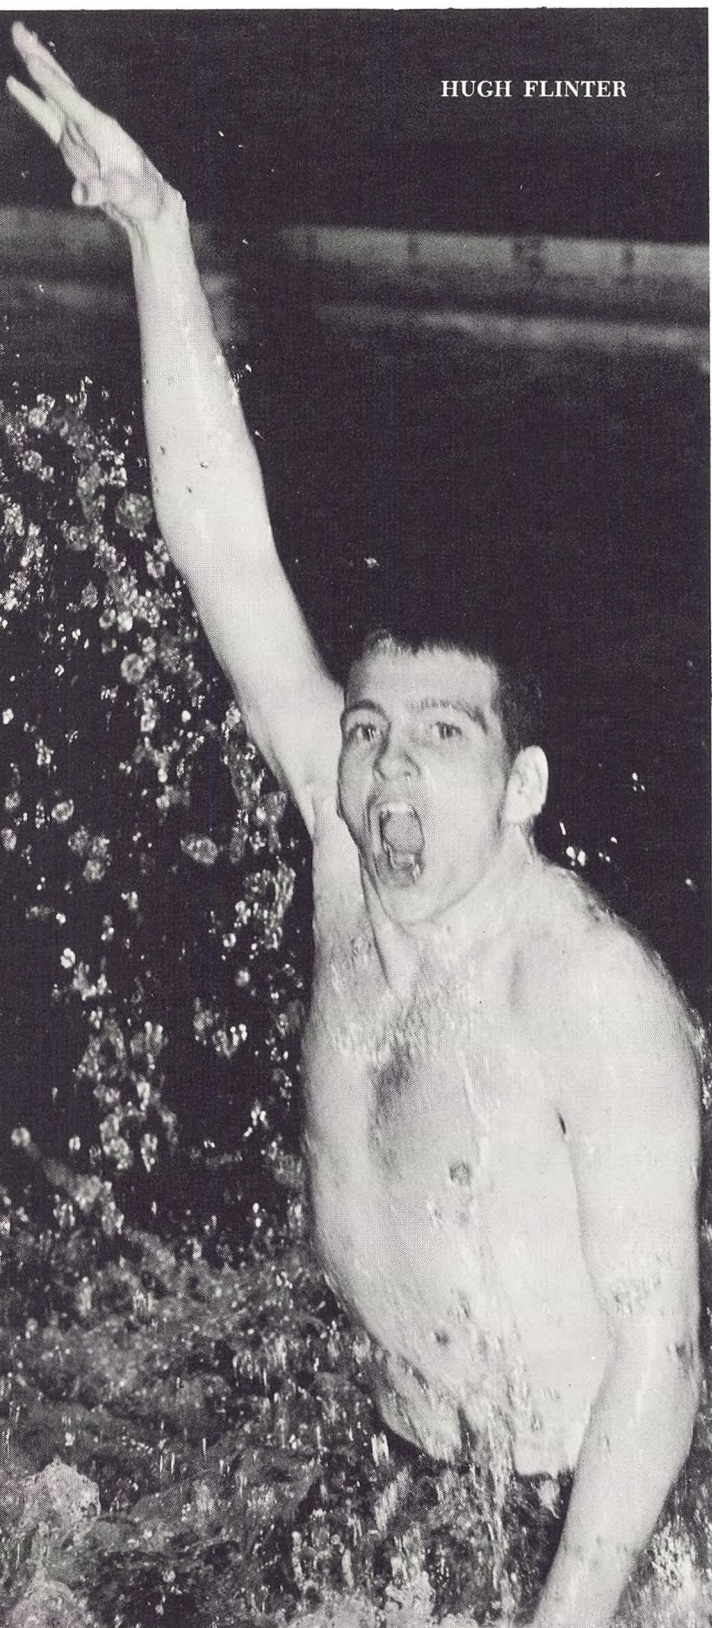

LAST Spring the water polo team finished their season with a record of six wins and no losses to take the Junior National A.A.U. and Eastern Collegiate Water Polo Championships. It was the second straight year the team had captured both crowns, and the third year in a row they have garnered the Eastern Collegiate title. Other honors over the year included the selection of five St. Francis men to the All American team. These were Charlie Harris, Don McQuade, Ed Peters, Frank Loughlin, and Joe Svirida. All are now competing with the

New York Athletic Club water polo team.

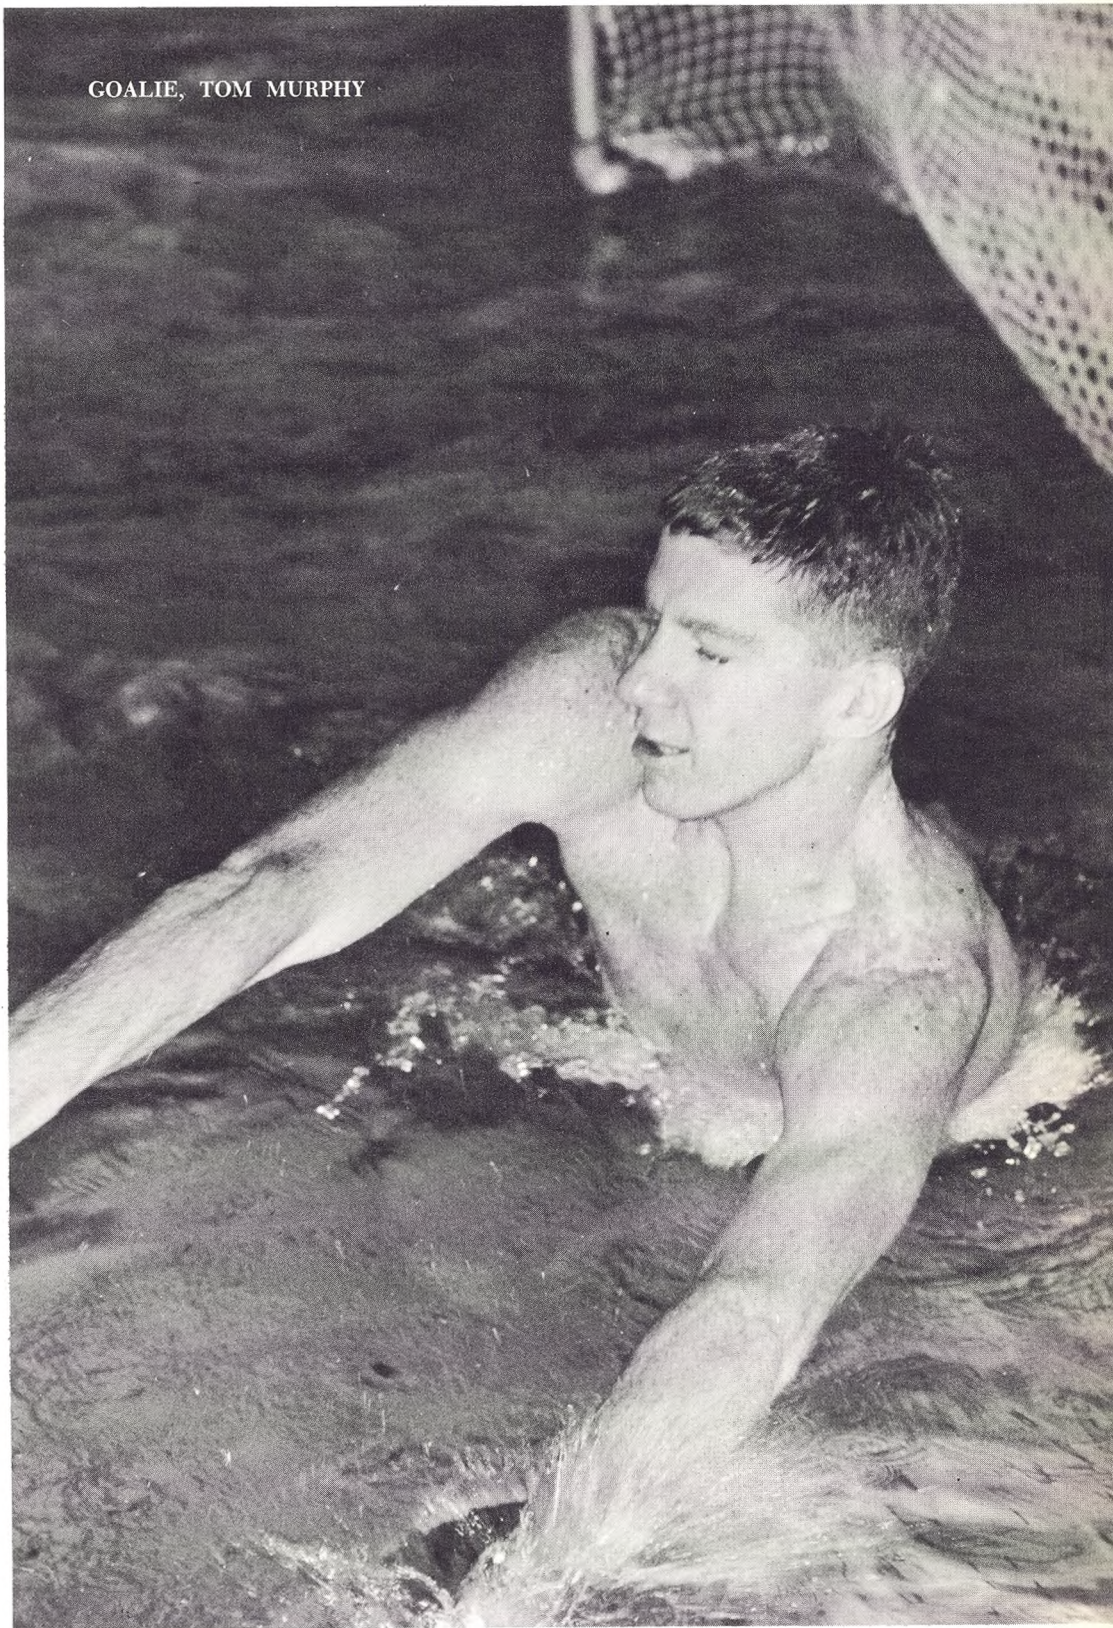

An impressive 17-1 win over Brooklyn Poly opened the year. With Frank Loughlin and Ed Peters leading the way, the Terriers were in control from start to end. One week later, Ed Peters scored six goals as the Terriers beat St. Peter's 16-3. Next the aquamen rolled over Queen's 22-0.

Journeying to Troy to meet R.P.I. the waterpups again swam away with a 10-5 win. Returning home they sunk the Cadets of West Point 11-3. In the final game which would decide the

Defense Holds Off Foes

HUGH FLINTER

GOALIE, TOM MURPHY

Championship the Terriers plunged into the pool against a tough Yale team. After a well played defensive game, they emerged from the pool at the N.Y.A.C. with a 7-4 victory and the Eastern title.

Ending the season, Coach Charles Schaem said farewell to three All Americans through graduation: Don McQuade, Charlie Harris, Frank Loughlin. Joe Svirida and Ed Peters return from last year's starting five. In addition, a number of capable candidates hopefully will fill the vacant slots. Success depends on Jim McFarlane, Hugh Flinter, Tim Stafford, Ed Mikos, Tom Murphy.

At this writing, Coach Schaem has announced six conference games in the ECWA against Yale, West Point, R.P.I., St. Peter's, Queens, and Brooklyn Poly. This Spring the Terriers are ineligible for the Junior National A.A.U. competition as the rules do not permit a title holder to repeat in competition while members of the winning team still compete for the team.