

LIKE TAKING CANDY FROM A BABY. Jim Raftery (14) glides through the air for two as three Fairfield defenders Hutte (53), Shin (55) and Jenkins (33)—look on. However, Fairfield defeated the Terriers '91-83.

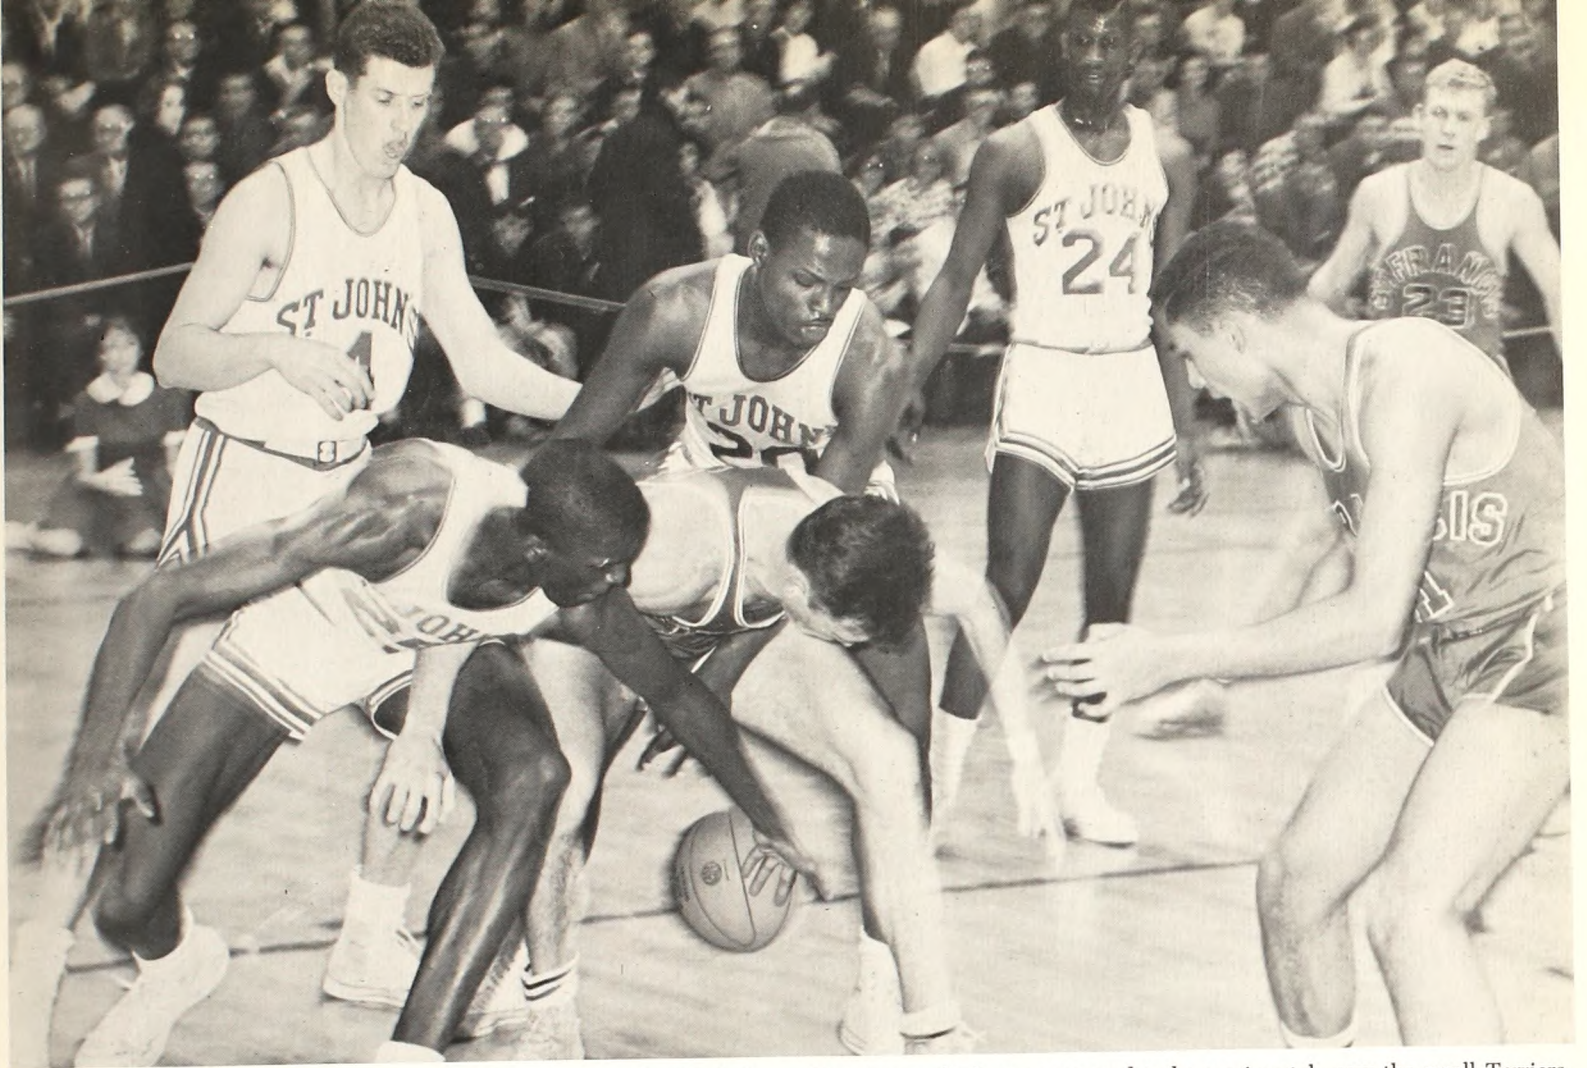

OH, MY SOUL! Playing his heart (and soul) out in the Pace game, Richie Dreyer (center) seems shocked at Saul Weitz's (15) frenzied attempts to pass the ball. The cut under Richie's right eye? "Battle Scars."

A FLYING LOPEZ. Referee Tony Di Phillips looks for possible fouls as Dave Lopez (50), Bob Hutter and Mike Twohey return from the boards. Dave tallied two with a beautiful layup.

1960-1961 BASKETBALL STATISTICS

Player	Games	FGA	FGM	FTA	FTM	Reb.	Fouls	Points
Dreyer	20	213	96	123	70	59	151	262
Lopez	20	201	74	54	23	65	154	171
Raftery	20	325	136	144	98	63	155	370
Davey	20	182	77	59	44	37	48	198
Nash	20	112	48	52	36	51	62	132
Krasnick	11	32	16	22	11	13	31	43
Rooney	9	21	7	25	12	11	8	26
Novak	15	62	30	14	9	23	15	69
O'Lee	9	29	10	17	14	15	15	34
Miller	2	1	0	0	0	0	3	0
Jaisel	8	89	35	20	11	27	6	81
Peacock	1	0	0	0	0	1	1	0
TOTALS	202	1266	528	530	328	364	649	1386

COLLECTIVE CONFUSION. Jim Raftery (center) grasps for the ball as Hall (20) and Ellis (25) lend a hand. Loughery (4) and Jackson (24) of St. John's and Dreyer (23) and Lopez (51) excitedly view the action.

The game, which was supposed to be a mismatch, saw the small Terriers completely out-tussle the talented Redmen until the middle of the second half when the Terriers ran out of gas.

PERFECT POSITION. Richie Dreyer (23) hits a jump shot against St. John's despite the close quartering of barely visible Willy Hall and Bill Goldy (15).

A FIERCE COMPETITOR. Rich Dreyer (22) while not the most talented ballplayer ever to don a Saint Francis uniform, has been called by Coach Lynch the "toughest competitor I have ever coached." Rich was also a two-time MECAA all-star selection.