

JOHN JOSEPH McKEON

Bachelor of Arts

Power Memorial Academy

History Club 2, 3, 4; German Club 3, 4; French 3, 4;
Religion Club 1, 2; Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Franciscan;
Peace Club 4; Student Council 4; Sodality.

Caters to the gullets of discriminating gourmands . . . "Did you order that candy and stuff" . . . "Who's cleaning up the grill today?" . . . Distressed by absence of waiters in the salon d'intime . . . "Where's Keegan?" . . . Accountancy is all right to him . . . or high school teacher . . . Dimming of strength: Ham in the ten cent sandwiches.

The Social Investigator of Restaurants

"Special sandwiches today, boys."

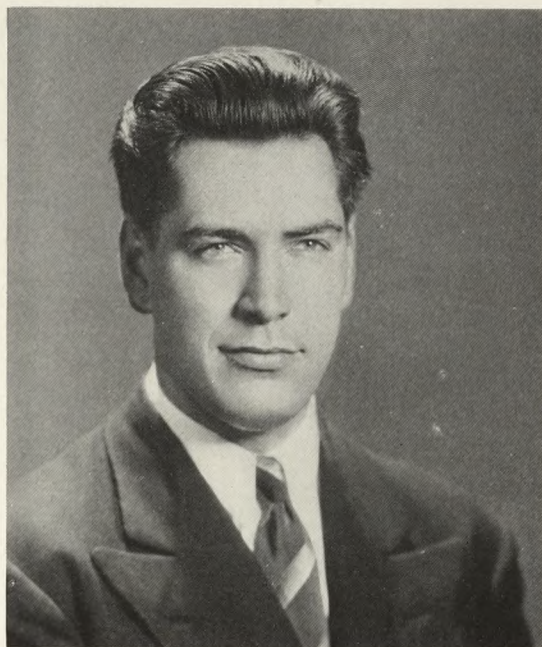

ALBERT WILLIAM MARCOUX

Bachelor of Arts

St. Francis Preparatory

To Kalon 1; History Club 2, 3, 4; Le Cercle Francois 2, 3, 4, President 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4 (Vice-President); Class Basketball 3; Sodality.

Cf. Monsieur Marcoux, Jokes of French vintage for all occasions. . . . "I'm getting so used to French that I'm liable to give up the Irish in Me" . . . "Speaking of Francois Villon, did you hear the one, etc. . . ." The chap who presumes not the way of French to scan, is the true concern of Marcoux, the man. . . "Who's going to be a French waiter. . . . I'm scheduled for higher lingual endeavors" . . . Died from exposed dentalizations . . .

A Man of The Continent

"That ain't the way I heerd it."

