

nances and dates for dances and other functions are handled by the Entertainment Committee composed of Chairman Gallagher, Mahoney and Lennon. The Athletic Committee controls all non intercollegiate activities in the college. Members of this committee which arranged the intra-mural basketball tournament are Chairman Bussell, Brachocki, Hutter and Sammon. Various other special committees are formed by the council to meet the needs of the situation.

Pursuing its fundamental aim embodied in the preamble to the constitution of a greater college spirit, the council of 1940-41 has attempted to match the successes of its predecessors. Through the encouragement of the council, the participation of the college in the National Federation of Catholic College Students, National Debater's Federation and Conference of International Relations Clubs has succeeded in gaining recognition for Saint Francis College as one of the leaders in inter-collegiate activities.

DEBATING

THE Debating Society of Saint Francis College has just completed another successful chapter since its institution. Under the councillorship of Mr. Francis A. Delaney, Professor of Speech, the club participated in Intra-society and Inter-collegiate debates. The topics of discussion were, "The Johnson Act" and "The Release Time Bill." Outside debates contested the proposition, Resolved: "The Nations of the Western Hemisphere Should Form a Permanent Union."

Among the many institutions to meet St. Francis on the speakers platform were Fordham, St. Johns, Brooklyn, Columbia, Good Counsel, Sienna and Rensselaer. The team also sent Thomas Mulrine, Robert Kirwin and Paul Sammon as representatives to the Eastern Inter-collegiate Debating Conference which convened at Rochester University.

Prospects for the coming year are encouraging with the arrangement of a more extensive program. The seasoned men of the organization are Mulrine, Kirwin, Sammon, Shelly, Hermida and Gilchrist.
