

THE FROSH

Some eighty strong, one of the largest classes in the school's history, we boldly marched into the hallowed halls of St. Francis College, met the Sophomores and immediately bypassed them . . . we continued on our merry way, creating high standards, making good impressions on the teachers and breaking age-old traditions . . . succeeded in completely undermining the morale of the Sophs, when on the third day of "Hazing Week" we revolted in the middle of Butler Street and literally "upset the apple-cart" (Musacchia's car) . . . now walked around the school minus our Frosh hats and ties, in open defiance of our "superiors" who numbered about thirty-five.

Our arranging of programs and orientation to the system at St. Francis occupied fully two weeks . . . perhaps we might still be confounded, if it were not for the assistance of Mrs. Deering . . . "Yes, Mr. Kelly, you must take Latin 107" . . . "No, Mr. McCarty, you cannot switch French to a different hour."

We were now completely accustomed to college life . . . our overwhelmingly superior numbers made the Soph class think twice before inaugurating the rush . . . Very diplomatically they managed to avoid any such disastrous encounter . . . we arrive at the Soph-Frosh dance with our best girls . . . Seemed gratifying to be on equal social terms with the upper classmen.

We answered the call for members on the extra curricular activities . . . placed Tom McDonald, Charlie Masone and Al Salmon on the Voice staff . . . as a result, we had a column dedicated to our pranks . . . even our love lives were freely publicised in "Frosh Dirt" . . . The Glee Club was boosted by such of us as Edward Harley, Edsel Rodriguez, Johnny Dooner, and Al Salmon . . . a good nucleus with which to form any Glee Club . . . Our greatest contribution however was in the field of basketball . . . succeeded in placing three men, Harold Grady, Neil Golding and Jack Zeitler on the varsity squad.

We had our somber side too . . . from the opening day of the semester we were uncertain as to the future of our college careers . . . many of us were drafted . . . Brother Jerome advised us to enlist in the reserve . . . the Army, Navy and Marine Board visits the college . . . we admire Captain Ward of the Marines . . . a real fighting Irishman . . . the examining board came next . . . so we joined the reserves . . .

Back to our studies . . . they are not as easy as we thought they would be . . . decide that college is no "snap" . . . admire Bro. Leo's alertness and jocose manner . . . Ernie Hebert serves as typist on the Franciscan staff . . . saw Bro. Richard outside the gym . . . thought he was a new prof . . . still had a crush on Miss O'Brien . . . Mr. Schwendeman tells us of his experiences as a masquerading sophomore, boxer, trolley car conductor and ditch digger . . . Father Beck's views on woman's styles . . . found the books we wanted thanks to the help of Mrs. Sedgwick . . . Expect to have a good Frosh "B" inter-mural basketball squad to fight for the championship . . . hope to be around long enough to finish school.

FRESHMEN

Joseph Alchermes
 John Begly
 Edward Borsare
 Joseph Bottamedi
 Donald Brosnan
 Carroll Burke
 William Burns
 Rudolph Caggiano
 Augustus Cammeyer
 Frederick Cavanagh
 Martin Coan
 John Connor
 Thomas Connors
 James Cunningham
 Thomas Cunningham
 James Daly
 Justin Doheny
 James Donovan
 John Dooner
 Myles Driscoll
 Walter Elschner
 Alex Ezersky

John Figlioizzi
 John Fitzgerald
 Martin Flaherty
 Francis Flynn
 Peter Forte
 Edward Gallagher
 George Gillespie
 Neil Golding
 Vincent Gormley
 Bernard Gostkowski
 Harold Grady
 Arthur Guilfoyle
 Frank Gurman
 Howard Hagan
 Edward Harley
 George Harper
 Joseph Healey
 Ernest Hebert
 Harry Hibner
 Bro. Juniper
 Francis Kelly
 Joseph Kelly

John Labanowski
 Kenneth Lange
 Bro. Linus
 Joseph Lynch
 Gerald Madigan
 John Maher
 Charles Masone
 Donald McCarty
 Thomas McDonald
 John McGee
 Frank McInerney
 Alexander McIntyre
 William Monahan
 Francis Monck
 Henry Murphy
 Thomas Nardo
 Stuart Nassauer
 Bernard O'Connor
 Thomas O'Connor
 Edmund O'Donohue
 William O'Reilly
 Ambrose Pare

Fred Parise
 Bro. Peter
 Arthur Pirundini
 William Powers
 James Redfield
 Raymond Ripp
 Edsel Rodriguez
 John Rogers
 John Ryan
 Thomas Ryan
 Albert Salmon
 Matthew Shannon
 William Singleton
 Rosario Spera
 William Tessitore
 Albert Voiland
 Daniel Walsh
 John Walsh
 Thomas Williams
 James Woods
 Vincent J. Zebrowski
 John Zeitler