History

You will recall:

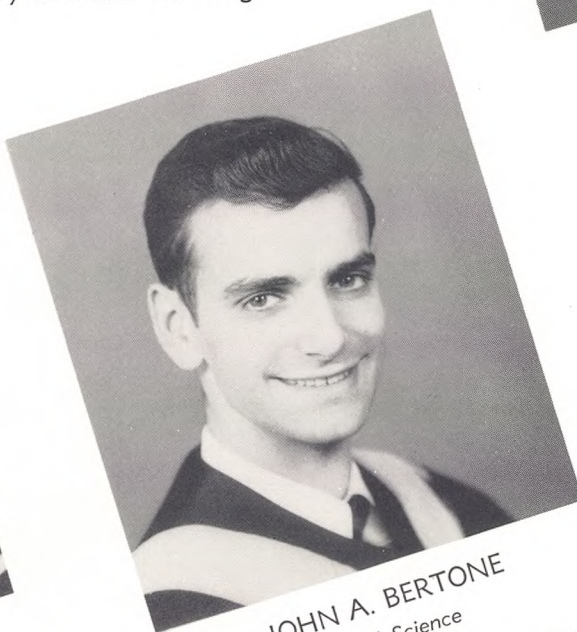

Standing on line outside a strange looking three-story brick building, waiting impatiently to register . . . The confusion that you encountered in the gym that first day . . . The introduction to eight A. M. classes on Saturday . . . Discussing the numerous difficulties that went with your first program with Bro. Leo, then Dean of Studies . . . The first week's toiling with studies and finding out for yourself that college was very different from high
