

Even if you never return, how could you forget the teacher who was always ten minutes late because he could never find the classroom ... everytime you tell a story about these years whether you just finished them or you're in the midst of them you'll think about SFC.

... the courses they listed and cancelled during registration ... how about the time you were closed out of a course you needed for your major.

Thomas McGwynn
Assistant Registrar

... and you felt like you were gambling with your life ... and the time it took you an hour and a half to get to the front of the registration line and they informed you that you were on the wrong one ... “the wrong one” you thought ... “they’re right, I’m on the wrong line in the wrong place.” ... and you recalled how you had thought about transferring after your freshman year ... but just now you find yourself registering ... this time for the last time ... it’s only the beginning ... the commencement — as the cliché goes ...

