

Left to Right: Joe McGloin, Paul Krupa, Joe Wengler, Captain; Harry McLeer, Bill Travers, Ray Boehm.

Led by Captain Joe "Skippy" Wengler, the Terrier Keglers entered the Eastern Inter-collegiate Bowling Conference.

At the halfway mark, the Franciscans held down seventh place in the fifteen team circuit. From this squad, Wengler and Paul "Splits" Krupa will graduate and Bill Travers will leave for military service.

Returning for next season will be two yearlings and one soph. Of the three, Ray "Sperando" Boehm is the best prospect and may blossom into one of the best in the league. Harry McLeer possesses the best strike ball on the team. Joe McGloin, intramural champ, rounds out the squad. With this trio and some fair replacements, the Terriers should do well in the future.
