

The Franciscan Heritage

On May 8th St. Francis College established a Literary College in the City of Brooklyn based on the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi.

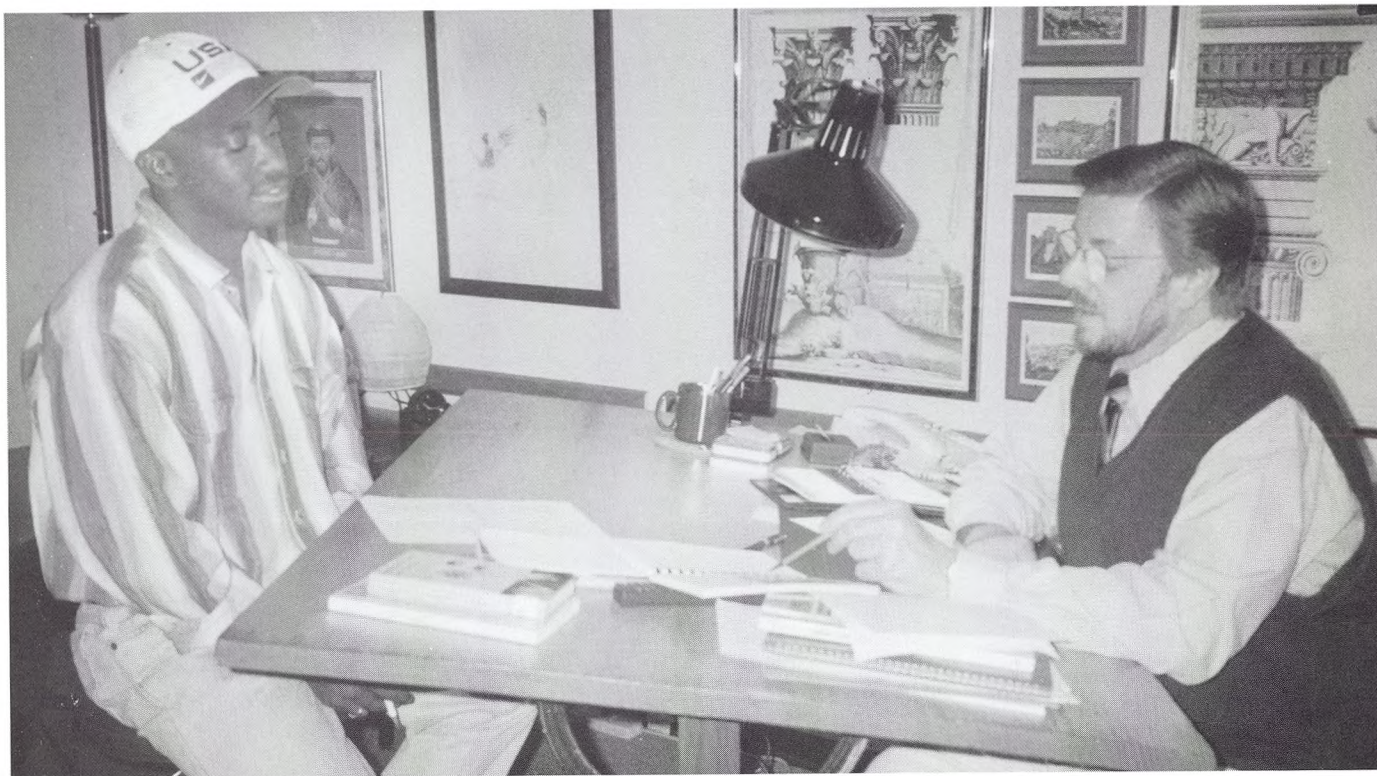

St. Francis College is located on 180 Remsen Street, between Court Street and Clinton Street.

St. Francis welcomed the Class of 2001, 467 freshman joined the college this past year.

Our multi-racial campus is exemplified by the 45 countries that are represented in the student body attending St. Francis College.

The faculty and staff are always ready to help the students any way they can.
