Senior Retreat

On Monday, February 19th, at 6 P. M., the graduating class of June, 1951, checked into the Bishop Molloy Retreat House at the Passionist Monastery in Jamaica. For the next two days the activities of the college senior were to be entirely different from his usual routine. He was still studying; but the subject matter stressed was of far greater significance to him as an individual than anything he could acquaint himself with in either the arts or sciences. He was learning how he might best save his im-
