

The Voice

Editor Quigley conferring with Assistant Editor Minion.

The aim of this year's Voice was to stimulate student support of activities, present straight news accurately, and to create a balance between humor and scholarly feature in a manner proper to a college journal.

The successful "professional look and tone" throughout the paper was achieved by Editor Edward Quigley. His editorial policy uncovered many poignant items as he ripped the fancy covers from the various intercollegiate organizations and exposed them for judgment. His insight into the position of secular education as opposed to parochial brought home the value of our educational system.

Bernie Veney cracked the whip in his capacity of News Editor. He assigned the stories, helped with the proofreading and layout. If ever there were a place when the term 'indispensable' can be applied, Bernie stands first on line.

The feature work was capably directed by Tony Puglisi. Tony arranged that the 'Viewpoint' represent the various major fields here at the College. His music column and the ever popular 'Digit' were equally successful.

The sports department, under the direction of Tom Pellegrino and Bob Chambers, worked hard to bring renewed interest in the intramural program, as well as report the successes and occasional failures of our teams in intercollegiate competition. The "Terrier Growls" gave the student insight into the sport situation in other colleges, as Tom Pellegrino, with his numerous contacts, scooped the scoops.

Assistant Editor Bob Minion is deserving of many laurels. He worked exceedingly hard to integrate all the departments, soothe the editor, and dispel the many fears of our Moderator, Mr. Anthony Mottola.

Tom Vroman was very successful as Business Manager. Besides balancing the books and securing the ads, he also contributed his time and talents to the News Staff. Pat Esemplare arranged a workable 'morgue' and 'cut' file while he also sent the editions to the other colleges.

News Staff: Joseph D'Addario, John DeRiso, Thomas McCarthy, Ray Cellure, Guy Brooks, Dom Firriola, Robert Rethore.

Sports Staff: Dan Walsh, Bob Gabelnam, George Searing, Joe Lategano, Ray Boehm.

Feature Staff: Vince Clemente, John McDermott, Christopher O'Toole, Peter Imperatore, Arthur Maddaloni, Al Abbate.

Copy: Peter Ferrara; Art by Dunn; Photos: Mikkelson, Caccavo, Boyle.

It was these men who combined their efforts in news, sports, feature, art and photography that enabled the Voice to continue the traditions first established in 1936.

THE VOICE

COLLEGE

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

September 26, 1952

are the members of the "crew." Car washing, other odd jobs will be the fate. pay. Realize O Frosh that Laughter and scorn will be the that those who command you were once so ordered.

Tommy T. T.

Two heads are better than one. O.S.F. Superior General, Rev. Brother Aquinas, O.S.F., to the office of Superior of St. Anthony's Juniorate in Smithtown, N. Y. It was there that Brother Henry pursued his own high school course, professed his aid was not forced results were evident

"The Administ fer us nothing b fees, so it's up to dents." The Ar on the road to Senior pictures the week of Sep at the Lorstan T

'TS

Alumni To Honor Rev. Brother Columba

smacked mination, Vin Cle-

The Alumni Association of St. Francis College announced that Saturday, October 4, has been designated opening Mass st was cele l's Church by eturer in rege.

JERRY ASS

A Devoted Scholar

We can use this. later pronounced his ciscan vows. Since the Brothers engage in the work of education, Brother Columba prepared for his career as a teacher by taking degrees at St. Francis College and Fordham University. In 1930, in recognition of his endeavors on behalf of Christian Education, St. John's University conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Laws and again in 1931, Manhattan College did the same.

Columba, on assign- Gen-

The editor knows best, but I'll check with Webster, ade Uni- Alumni: tory of the United States. THE VOICE, realizing that among students lie many actual and potential voters, will run a poll to see if the sentiments of the students will coincide with those expressed by the public on Nov. 4th.

Staff members will poll a cross-section of the school to determine whether the alleged "Party of the Past," or the supposed "Party of Progress and Prosperity" holds most favor. THE VOICE, not endeavoring to favor any one group, has on page 2, an article on the present political picture. The article was written with the help of expert opinions of the day may coincide in

John P. Monaghan, delivered th his message Father Monaghan America since the inception of holiday in 1894.

Father Monaghan, an A.C.T.U. is, at present, its natio was founded in 1937 so Catho inseedinated into the labor mo

The Association has develop- ed to such a degree that it is internationally known and accepted as a leader in Labor-Management relations.

In his address, Fr. Monaghan recalled the Church's leadership in striving for a better existence for the workers. Of particular importance is the knowledge that Christ has been kept in the labor move-

I.R.C. HOLDS FIRST MEETING

On Sept. 19, the I.R.C. held its first meetings of the year in Room 204 at 11:00 a. m. The meeting was conducted by the new officers who were chosen at the Communion breakfas last term.

George Smith, President, an-

Oh Hum! Another issue bit the dust. Office: Headquarters, U. S. Corps, show these candidates came from 500 different colleges and universities. Approximately 1,000 commissions were awarded during the fall of 1952.

Ryan ment and torture. Ryan lived to tell the story. Bishop Ford a native of Brooklyn was a St. Francis Prep graduate and studied at Cathedral College. He was ordained

st. X. list ter or- ard, arle son- Ryan