

Doctor Flynn presses home a point.

Also in cooperation with this Center, senior Charles Measter was able to participate in the Congressional intern program. Measter spent the summer working in the office of Congressman Hugh Carey. Phi Alpha Theta the honorary history frat inducted ten new members and heard a lecture on "Man's Answer to Ideological Communism" by Hassan Saab of the Lebanese Embassy.

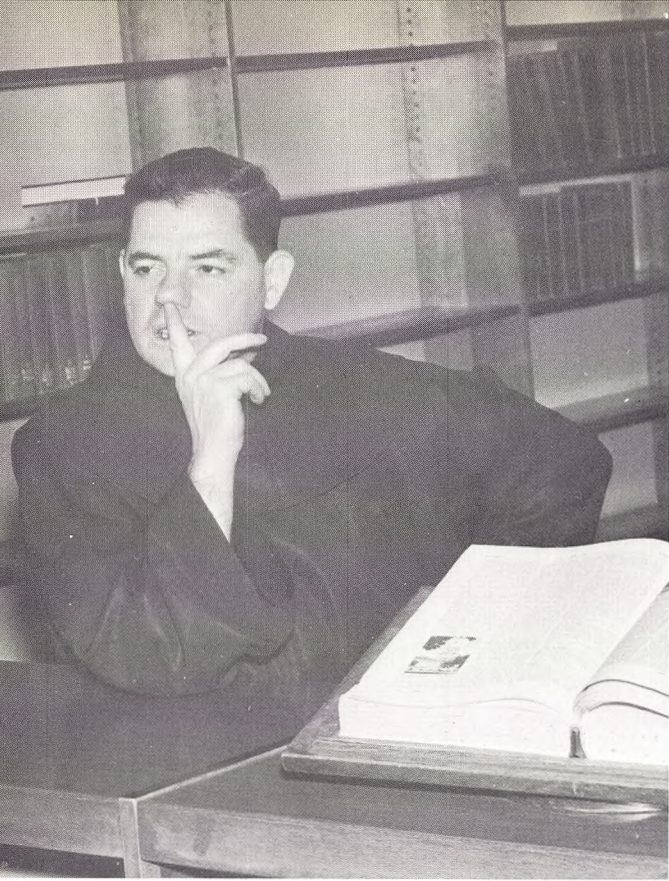

"And you really think economic stability would have straightened out Coleridge!" Brother Michael chats with Mr. Casey.

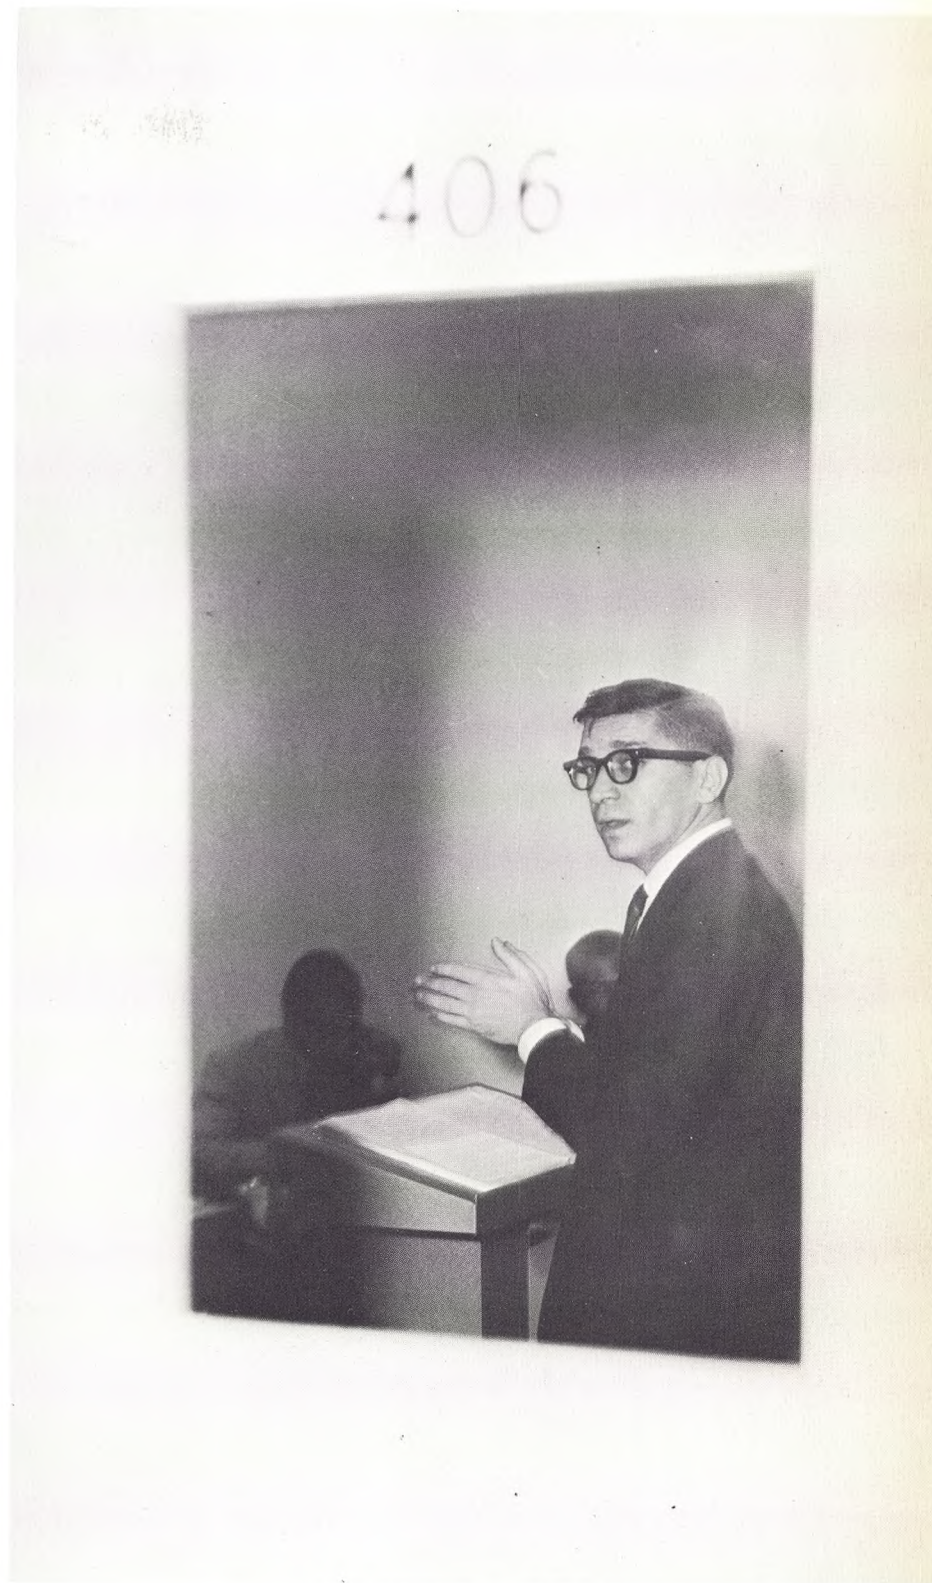

Contemplating at least another ten years at St. Francis, Doctor Jedrzejewski pauses during lecture.

Mr. Kinnelly beams after recording midterm marks.

H.U.A.C. looks in on Doctor Ellis.

The Social Studies Division's other departments added members this year. Mr. Edsel M. Lowe and Mr. Mark A. Roy joined the Economics faculty. In sociology the new teachers were Mrs. Doris Peters and Mr. Marvin D. Roth.