

PHI RHO PI FRATERNITY

BETA CHAPTER

While celebrating its twenty-sixth year here at St. Francis, the Beta Chapter of Phi Rho Pi added much to its already overflowing storehouse of pleasant memories and outstanding traditions. The Spring Dance, dogging with its "hell and paddle night", the frequent meetings at which the bonds of friendship were renewed and strengthened—all these and more have made this year a memorable one.

Although it has established and encouraged an active fraternal social life among its members, Phi Rho Pi also has fostered in its brothers a keen pride in their frat and a spirit of love and loyalty to their school.

"Hell night comes but once a year but when it comes, look out!"

Joe Cowden lays the law down to some lowly dogs.

Mike Petito and Joe Massamillo about to apply the heat treatment.

Joe Frey and Hank Ziegler lay it on—as "Victim" Dan Minogul takes it happily.

Three dogs out for a stroll:
Bill Shanahan, Mike Monaco, John DeVina.

"Cheer up, boys, only nine more weeks of Dogging."

Three dogs who wonder if it is really worth it.
Clive Donelan, Paul Terranova, Bill Weir.
