ALPHA PSI OMEGA is a national drama honor fraternity founded in 1925 at Fairmont State University, West Virginia, by seven members of the local drama society. In 1964, Brother Lawrence Drowne, O.S.F., moderator of the Troupers Drama Society, founded the Pi Zeta Cast of Alpha Psi Omega at SFC. The Fraternity is open to people who have worked in some way on at least two collegiate drama productions, must be invited by the Fraternity, and pass a vote of the active members of the local Cast of the Fraternity. If the candidate is accepted, he must undergo a secret ceremonial of Initiation, which tests the candidate on the various aspects of dramatic activity.

Alpha Psi Omega Fraternity's members contain the finest and most talented members of the Troupers Drama Society, along with members of the faculty involved in the fine art of drama. To bear the Pin and Key of Alpha Psi Omega is an honor shared by the 65,000 members of the Fraternity in the almost 500 Casts throughout the colleges of the U.S.A.
